Ellen Glasgows The Difference:

The Other Woman Susan Koppelman, 1984 Inside and outside marriage what happens to the woman betrayed How do abandoned wives or lovers feel What happens when the battle between the sexes becomes a triangle The plots in this collection of eighteen stories written between the 1840s and 1980s are infinitely variable and the outcomes will enrage shock amuse and sometimes hearten In some stories women forge links with other women in solidarity In others women fight for their men and win In many stories the betrayal ultimately enriches the central character who learns through the loss of her man the value of her own life A Study Guide for Ellen Glasgow's "The Difference" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016

SHORT STORIES FOR STUDENTS CENGAGE LEARNING. GALE, 2016 Feminisms Robyn R. Warhol, Diane Price Herndl, 1997 In the landmark 1991 edition of Feminisms Robyn Warhol and Diane Price Herndl assembled the most comprehensive collection of American and British feminist literary criticism ever to be published In this revised edition the editors have updated the volume in keeping with the expanded parameters of feminist literary discourse With the inclusion of more than two dozen new essays along with a major reorganization of the sections in which they appear Warhol and Price Herndl have again established the measure for representing the latest developments in the field of feminist literary theory Believing that the feminist movement can only move forward where difference commands attention not dismissal or negativism they have continued the original collection's mission of providing a multiplicity of perspectives and approaches This anthology contains three new sections Conflict Gaze and Practice and includes more selections by and about women of color and lesbians Aimed at academics and the general public alike this collection is an indispensable guide to the range of practice on campus today in the field of feminist literary criticism The Faith of Our Feminists Josephine L. Jessup, 1950-03

The Reconstruction of White Southern Womanhood, 1865-1895 Jane Turner Censer, 2003-09-30 This impressively researched book tells the important but little known story of elite southern white women's successful quest for a measure of self reliance and independence between antebellum strictures and the restored patriarchy of Jim Crow Profusely illustrated with the experiences of fascinating women in Virginia and North Carolina it presents a compelling new chapter in the history of American women and of the South As were many ideas notions of the ideal woman were in flux after the Civil War While poverty added a harder edge to the search for a good marriage among some southern belles other privileged white women forged identities that challenged the belle model altogether Their private and public writings from the 1870s and 1880s suggest a widespread ethic of autonomy Sometimes that meant increased domestic skills born of the new reality of fewer servants But women also owned and transmitted property worked for pay and even pursued long term careers Many found a voice in a plethora of new voluntary organizations and some southern women attained national celebrity in the literary world creating strong and capable heroines and mirroring an evolving view toward northern society Yet even as elite southern women experimented with their roles external forces and contradictions within their position were making their unprecedented attitudes and achievements socially untenable During the 1890s however virulent racism and pressures to re create a mythic South left these women caught between the revived image of the southern belle and the emerging emancipated woman Just as the memoirs of southern white women have been key to understanding life during the Civil War the writings of such women unlock the years of dramatic change that followed Informed by myriad primary documents Jane Turner Censer immerses us in the world of postwar southern women as they rethought and rebuilt themselves their families and their region during a brief but important period of relative freedom The Review of Reviews ,1906 The William and Mary Literary Magazine ,1920 The Tragic Life Story of Medea as Mother, Monster, and Muse Jana Rivers Norton,2019-11-13 This volume offers a critical yet empathic exploration of the ancient myth of Medea as immortalized by early Greek and Roman dramatists to showcase the tragic forces afoot when relational suffering remains unresolved in the lives of individuals families and communities Medea as a tragic figure whose sense of isolation and betrayal interferes with her ability to form healthy attachments reveals the human propensity for violence when the agony of unresolved grief turns to vengeance against those we hold most dear However metaphorically her life story as an emblem for existential crisis serves as a psychological touchstone in the lives of early twentieth century female authors who struggled to find their rightful place in the world to resolve the sorrow of unrequited love and devotion and to reconcile experiences of societal abandonment and neglect as self discovery Civil Wars Susan Goodman,2003-06-02 In a work that recovers the broader meaning of manners for past generations Susan Goodman demonstrates that American writers have consistently tied the subject of national identity to the norms and behaviors of everyday life that in fact the novel of manners is a dominant form of American fiction The Sewanee Review ,1927 The Calvinist Roots of the Modern Era Alik Barnstone,Michael Tomasek Manson,Carol J. Conflicting Stories Elizabeth Ammons,1992-10-01 The early 1890s through the late 1920s saw an explosion in serious long fiction by women in the United States Considering a wide range of authors African American Asian American white American and Native American this book looks at the work of seventeen writers from that period Frances Ellen Harper Charlotte Perkins Gilman Sarah Orne Jewett Alice Dunbar Nelson Kate Chopin Pauline Hopkins Gertrude Stein Mary Austin Sui Sin Far Willa Cather Humishuma Jessie Fauset Edith Wharton Ellen Glasgow Anzia Yezierska Edith Summers Kelley and Nella Larsen The discussion focuses on the differences in their work and the similarities that unite them particularly their determination to experiment with narrative form as they explored and voiced issues of power for women Analyzing the historical context that both enabled and limited American women writers at the turn of the century Ammons provides detailed readings of many texts and offers extensive commentary on the interaction between race and gender This book joins the deepening discussion of modern women writers creation of themselves as artists and raises fundamental questions about the shape of American literary history as it has been constructed in the academy

Southern Mothers Nagueyalti Warren,Sally Wolff,1999-10-01 Southern Mothers a collection of critical essays by prominent southern literary scholars examines the significance of motherhood in southern fiction The belle the mammy religion and racism are several of the distinctive threads with which southern women writers have woven the fabric of their stories Bringing southern motherhood into focus with all its peculiarities of attitude and tradition the essays speak to both the established and the unconventional modes of motherhood that are typical in southern writing and probe the extent to which southern women writers have rejected or embraced supported or challenged the individual social and cultural understanding and institution of motherhood

Sacred Estrangement Peter A. Dorsey, 1993-07-01 Sacred Estrangement analyzes certain works by important American writers and thinkers in the context of the rhetoric of conversion Such analysis is especially valuable because it provides a reliable index of the relationship between the self and larger communities Traditionally conversion has served a socializing function signifying that one has come into alignment with certain linguistic behavioral and cultural expectations The socialization process is particularly apparent in the Christian conversion narratives of the seventeenth through nineteenth centuries by publicly testifying to a conversion experience believers became empowered members not only of God's elect community but also of a local population As modern autobiography developed in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the Christian pattern was secularized and individualized Conversion became a model for many kinds of psychological change With the coming of the twentieth century however the authors upon whom Peter Dorsey focuses including William and Henry James Henry Adams Edith Wharton Ellen Glasgow Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright radically revised conversion rhetoric If conversion had traditionally linked the search for illumination with the search for a defined social role these writers increasingly used conversion as an index of estrangement from mainstream America Dorsey documents this profound change in the way American intellectuals defined the self not in terms of personal orientation toward or away from a given community but as a resistance to such an orientation altogether as if social forces by their nature were a threat to personal identity

Resources in Women's Educational Equity, 1980 If Ignorance Is Bliss, Why Aren't There More Happy People? John Lloyd, John Mitchinson, 2009-08-04 John Lloyd and John Mitchinson have proven themselves to be masters at digging up obscure facts abstruse information and amusing anecdotes and presenting them effortlessly somewhat slyly with either great wit or at least a little bit of tongue in cheek Their gifts are on full display in Quote Interesting a lively wonderfully enjoyable anthology of hundreds of quotes you probably have never heard before arranged thematically from A to Z From laugh out loud funny bon mots to some real headscratchers Lloyd and Mitchinson have gathered a universe of star studded blurbs like The Beatles are dying in the wrong order Victor Lewis Smith When you forget to eat you know you're alive Henry James I think people would be alive today if there were a death penalty Nancy Reagan You know that look women get when they want sex Me neither Steve Martin
