work A huge body of discourse is available that categorizes and labels acts of violence and correspondingly practices that pin blame responsibility for the violence These have led to evolution of intervention strategies to resolve or address the violence Some explanations foreground systemic causes others look at person centric causes The two views bring forth the fundamental ontological divide of structuralism and individualism The question for social workers to debate is what to factor in while working with families experiencing violence and conflict What amongst the person the agency or the structure needs to be addressed to understand the experience of families in conflict and violence Are these positions supplementary complementary or to be understood reflexively With the inclusion of new families the parochial understanding of families has long been dislodged and given way to newer radical and contextual understanding of families Similarly different people agencies and states understand violence and conflict differently Gender too has moved from the binaries of male and female to the gender diverse LGBTQIA identities The book positions the ontological premise on which the epistemological practise is located Simply put the person centric ontology on families and violence epistemologically finds understanding in agency based approaches in individual agency whereas the structure based approaches find the experience of families and violence in society state and the world order The contributors locate their work around identification definition an intervention or empirical study policy analysis historical evolution of concepts and ontological and paradigmatic debates to position their individual chapters Family and Gendered Violence and Conflict Pan Continent Reach provides a paradigmatic prism for practice for social workers who are equipped to interpret context differently The differing and competing paradigmatic lenses cannot be mediated resolved or addressed but they definitely can be understood and debated to provide a 360 degree lens on the issues of families in violence in the gendered context The reference work is a useful resource for social work practitioners educators academicians researchers and other development professionals

Opportunities Seek the Peace of Jerusalem Omer Salem,2017-12-19 Over the last seven decades since the formation of the State of Israel there has been no shortage of Jews and Arabs desiring peace in Israel Palestine the Holy Land Most peacemaking attempts failed because the parties did not see peace as a win win deal The prevailing mantra in this conflict is win lose or no deal Today the Palestinians are not willing to make a deal with the Israeli Jews because they perceive that a deal with the Israeli Jews means the Palestinians will lose Also the Israelis are not willing to make a deal with the Palestinian Arabs because they perceive that a deal with the Palestinian Arabs means the Israelis will lose There are also other geopolitical factors affecting this conflict This conflict is gradually shifting toward a battle fueled by people relying on religious texts to prolong the struggle THE AMERICAN FILM INSTITUTE CATALOG OF MOTION PICTURES PRODUCED IN THE UNITED STATES FEATURE FILMS 1921-1930 ,1971 The Kremlin's Chinese Advance Guard Daria Arincheva,Alexander Pantsov,2023-04-21 This book is a comprehensive historical study of the Bolshevik system of ideological and political indoctrination of a substantial number of Chinese revolutionaries who studied in Comintern international institutions in Soviet Russia from the October Revolution of 1917 to the Great Terror of the late 1930s Including analysis of previously unknown documentary materials from the Bolshevik Party and Comintern archives as well as memoirs of former Chinese students and prisoners of Stalin s camps the book determines how effective the training of Chinese students in the main educational centers in Moscow was how well it compared to the existing level of Marxist education in the USSR and how the Stalinist regime defined the lives and fates of the Chinese revolutionaries in Soviet Russia In raising questions about the transferability of revolutionary ideology experience and practice from the revolutionaries of one country to would be revolutionaries in other countries the authors ask can revolution be exported Shedding light on an under explored aspect of the early history of the CCP and the Soviet Bolshevik Party this book will be a valuable resource to both students and scholars of Chinese and Russian history and politics Qur'anic Matters Natalia K. Suit,2020-05-14 In Qur anic Matters Natalia Suit explores the materiality of books focusing on the mushaf With its paper binding ink and script the mushaf is not simply a carrier of the Qur anic text but by the virtue of its material body it also has the ability to engender reformulations of religious knowledge and practice Reading the Qur an on a screen of a phone for example does not require the same forms of ritual ablutions as reading a printed text The rules of purity limiting the access to the Qur anic text for menstruating woman change when the Qur anic text is mediated by digital bytes instead of paper Qur anic Matters spans the time between two important technological shifts the introduction of printed Qur anic books in Egypt in the early nineteenth century and the digitization of the Qur an almost two centuries later Throughout Natalia Suit weaves together the theological legal economic and social presences of the Qur anic books into a single account She argues that the message and the materiality of the object are not separate from each other nor are they separate from the human bodies with which they come in contact
