Nursing Delegation and Management of Patient Care - E-Book Kathleen Motacki, Kathleen Burke, 2010-03-03 This dynamic resource is your guide to the latest information on the roles and responsibilities of the manager of patient care, core competencies required of nurses caring for patients, and a wide range of management concepts that nurses need to know before entering practice. With an emphasis on patient safety and evidence-based practice, it provides complete coverage of patient care, management, leadership, information management, organizational planning, and human resources. Organized around the five major functional groups within health care organizations that nurses handle or frequently interact with: patient care, management, leadership, information management, organizational planning, and human resources. Important content on the environment of care examines hospital safety and security issues, including emergency codes, Safe Patient Handling and Movement, and Materials Safety Data Sheets (MSDS). Evidence-Based boxes summarize current research and best practices for topics throughout the textbook. Clinical Corner boxes discuss practice process improvements made by nurses, including safe, effective practices used at their institutions, and how they improve patient care NCLEX examination style review questions at the end of each chapter offer valuable review and exam preparation If there are no limits... Dianne Gaudet, 2014-12-05 With life charging at warp speed in a 24/7 on demand world vying for every ounce of energy is it any wonder we hunger for more meaning and balance Like many others I tried to do it all only to realize I was far too busy making a living instead of living with balance and joy I share with you a holistic process and stories that will inspire you to transform your own life If you're ready to live intentionally and to respond more effectively to the incessant demands that get in the way this book is for you Refuel your passions and create possibilities to live on purpose while you provide a living legacy for those who are blessed to be part of your life
