Performing Nostalgia: Migration Culture and Creativity in South Albania Eckehard Pistrick, 2017-07-05 Migration studies is an area of increasing significance in musicology as in other disciplines How do migrants express and imagine themselves through musical practice How does music help them to construct social imaginaries and to cope with longings and belongings In this study of migration music in postsocialist Albania Eckehard Pistrick identifies links between sound space emotionality and mobility in performance provides new insights into the controversial relationship between sound and migration and sheds light on the cultural effects of migration processes Central to Pistrick's approach is the essential role of emotionality for musical creativity which is highlighted throughout the volume pain and longing are discussed not as a traumatising end point but as a driving force for human action and as a source for cultural creativity In addition the study provides a fascinating overview about the current state of a rarely documented vocal tradition in Europe that is a part of the mosaic of Mediterranean singing traditions It refers to the challenges imposed onto this practice by heritage politics the dynamics of retraditionalisation and musical globalisation In this sense the book constitutes an important study to the dynamics of postsocialism as seen from a musicological perspective

Sea of Literatures Angela Fabris, Albert Göschl, Steffen Schneider, 2023-12-18 Mediterranean studies flourish in literary and cultural studies but concepts of the Mediterranean and the theories and methods they use are very disparate This is because the Mediterranean is not a simple geographical or historical unity but a multiplicity a network of highly interconnected elements each of which is different and individual Talking about Mediterranean literature raises the question of whether the connectivity of Mediterranean literature can or should be limited in some way by constructing an inside and an outside of the Mediterranean What kind of connectivity and fragmentation do literary texts produce how do they build and interrupt references to the real to fictional forms of representation to history but also to other texts and discourses how do they create and deny communication and how do they engage with and reflect literary and non literary concepts of the Mediterranean These and other questions are considered and discussed in the over twenty contributions
