Feuding, Conflict and Banditry in Nineteenth-Century Corsica Stephen Wilson, 2003-10-30 A study of vendetta and banditry applying insights from the field of social anthropology

The Women of Corsica Julia Gasper, 2018-12 The women of Corsica are as remarkable and extraordinary as everything else about this unique Mediterranean island. Through centuries of fierce struggle, it has bred women who are tough, brave, resourceful and redoubtable, passing on a culture that has often been materially poor but spiritually rich. Here they are wives and warriors, saints, spies and seductresses, poets, painters, patriots and bandits. Anyone who visits the island and is interested in learning more about its women will find this a useful little handbook.

Bonaparte Patrice Gueniffey, 2015-04-13 Patrice Gueniffey, the leading French historian of the Revolutionary and Napoleonic age, takes up the epic narrative at the heart of this turbulent period: the life of Napoleon himself, from his boyhood in Corsica to his meteoric rise during the Italian and Egyptian campaigns, to his proclamation as Consul for Life in 1802.

Other Histories Kirsten Hastrup, 2013-01-11 The historization of anthropology has entailed a radically new view upon history and the nature of history. This collection of papers from the first conference of the newly formed European Association of Social Anthropologists demonstrates how ways of thinking about history are important features of any production of history and how cultural concepts enter as forces of historical causation.
