La Coscienza Di Zeno Italian Edition:

Literature's Contributions to Scientific Knowledge Dario Maestri, 2019-02-08 The most important intellectual development in the academy in the 21st century has been the forging of new relationships between the sciences and the humanities and the realization that interdisciplinary scholarship holds the promise of the unification of all knowledge This groundbreaking book shows how this can be fulfilled Through a wide ranging analysis of arguments concerning the complementarity of arts and sciences advanced by Schelling and Goethe and those about the cognitive value of literature articulated by contemporary philosophers the book shows that literary fiction can contribute to the scientific understanding of human nature With a careful and original examination of autobiographical material and literary texts it demonstrates that European novelists such as Leopold von Sacher-Masoch Italo Svevo and Elias Canetti conducted ambitious and innovative literary explorations of the human mind and human behavior using Darwinian theory as their scientific framework and in doing so they anticipated the theoretical developments and empirical findings of cognitive social and evolutionary psychology by almost 100 years The work of these novelists was largely misunderstood by literary scholars but this book's re-discovery and illustration of what these writers attempted to accomplish and how they did it show one important path leading to the future unification of all knowledge about the human condition

Zeno's Conscience Italo Svevo, 2015-03-18 Long hailed as a seminal work of modernism in the tradition of Joyce and Kafka and now available in a superb new English translation Italo Svevo's charming and splendidly idiosyncratic novel conducts readers deep into one hilariously hyperactive and endlessly self-deluding mind The mind in question belongs to Zeno Cosini a neurotic Italian businessman who is writing his confessions at the behest of his psychiatrist Here are Zeno's interminable attempts to quit smoking his courtship of the beautiful yet unresponsive Ada his unexpected and unexpectedly happy marriage to Ada's homely sister Augusta and his affair with a shrill-voiced aspiring singer Relating these misadventures with wry wit and a perspicacity at once unblinking and compassionate Zeno's Conscience is a miracle of psychological realism

Gothic Italy Stefano Serafini, 2024-11-30 The Gothic proliferating across different literary socio cultural and scientific spaces permeated and influenced the project of Italian nation building casting a dark and pervasive shadow on Italian history Gothic Italy explores the nuances contradictions and implications of the conflict between what the Gothic embodies in post unification Italy and the values that a supposedly secular modern country tries to uphold and promote The book analyses a variety of literary works concerned with crime that tapped into fears relating to contagion race and class fluidity deviant minds and abnormal sexuality female transgression male performativity and the instability of the new body politic By tracing how writers scientists and thinkers engaged with these issues Gothic Italy unveils the mutual network of exchanges that informed national discourses about crime Stefano Serafini brings attention to a historical moment that was crucial to the development of modern attitudes towards normality and deviance which continue to circulate widely and still resonate disturbingly in contemporary society

Giraffes in the Garden of Italian Literature Deborah Amberson, 2017-12-02 Writing in 1926 Carlo Emilio Gadda 1893 1973 acknowledges his peculiarity within the Italian literary field by describing himself as a giraffe or a kangaroo in Italy's beautiful garden of literature Gadda's self characterization as exotic and even ungainly animal applies in equal measure to Italo Svevo 1861 1928 and Federico Tozzi 1883 1920 authors who like Gadda thwarted efforts at critical classification Yet the ostensible strangeness of these three Italian authors is diminished when their writing is considered within the framework of modernism a label traditionally avoided by the Italian critical establishment Indeed within a modernism preoccupied with human embodiment these Italian literary giraffes find their kin Here the central nexus of body subjectivity and style that informs and binds the writing of Svevo Tozzi and Gadda resonates with a modernist renegotiation and revalorization of a human body whose dignity and epistemological authority have been contested by social and technological modernity Gender, Narrative, and Dissonance in the Modern Italian Novel Silvia Valisa, 2014-11-05

Combining close textual readings with a broad theoretical perspective Gender Narrative and Dissonance in the Modern Italian Novel is a study of the ways in which gender shapes the principal characters and narratives of seven important Italian novels of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from Alessandro Manzoni's I promessi sposi 1827 to Elsa Morante's Aracoeli 1982 Silvia Valisa's innovative approach focuses on the tensions between the characters and the gender ideologies that surround them and the ways in which this dissonance exposes the ideological and epistemological structures of the modern novel A provocative account of the intersection between gender narrative and epistemology that draws on the work of Georg Lukács Barbara Spackman and Teresa de Lauretis this volume offers an intriguing new approach to investigating the nature of fiction Literary Translation and Cultural Mediators in 'Peripheral' Cultures Diana Roig-Sanz, Reine Meylaerts, 2018-07-20 This book sets the grounds for a new approach exploring cultural mediators as key figures in literary and cultural history It proposes an innovative conceptual and methodological understanding of the figure of the cultural mediator defined as a cultural actor active across linguistic cultural and geographical borders occupying strategic positions within large networks and being the carrier of cultural transfer Many studies on translation and cultural mediation privileged the major metropolis of Paris London and New York as centres of cultural production and translation However other cities and megacities that are not global centres of culture also feature vibrant translation scenes This book abandons the focus on innovative centres and imitative peripheries and follows processes of cultural exchange as they develop Thus it analyses the role of cultural mediators as customs officers or smugglers or both in different proportions in so called peripheral cultures and offers insights into an under analysed body of actors and institutions promoting intercultural transfer in often multilingual and less studied venues such as Trieste Tel Aviv Buenos Aires Lima Lahore or Cape Town
