Tragic Hero in The Crucible

Arthur Miller's play The Crucible takes place of 1692. The final scene in the play is one of great drama. The final act reveals his heroic character. He sacrifices his life for his cause and exhibits such courage and honor that he must be regarded as a tragic hero.

...goodness, however, he has a tragic flaw. He has had a relationship with Abigail, one of the teenagers in Salem who practices witchcraft. His relationship with Abigail, followed by his rejection of her, makes accusations against Proctor's wife, Elizabeth, and her arrest as a witch. He is respected in the town but regards himself as a sinner and is unable to resist Abigail. Worse yet, his involvement with her leads to the hysteria that overtakes the town. His weakness leads to his downfall and the destruction of the community.
