

A close-up, slightly high-angle portrait of an elderly man with a very receding hairline. He is wearing thin-framed, dark-rimmed glasses and has a serious, contemplative expression. He is dressed in a dark suit jacket over a white collared shirt and a blue and white striped tie. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Minnesota Police Report On Larry Craig:

Preventing Torture,2008 Connecting Sociology to Our Lives Tim Delaney,2015-11-17 Many introductory texts claim to make sociology relevant to student interests Perhaps no other text has done this so completely and engagingly as Connecting Sociology to Our Lives Tim Delaney not only uses popular and contemporary culture examples he explains sociology thoroughly within the frame of the contemporary culture of students a culture shaped by political economic and environmental trends just as much as by today s pop stars This book will help academics to engage their students in sociology through the prism of their own culture It involves students in critical thinking and classroom discussion through the book s many What Do You Think inserts and will inspire them to careers with the book s unique chapter Sociology s Place in Society Completing the Connection On Not Looking Frances Guerin,2015-01-09 On Not Looking The Paradox of Contemporary Visual Culture focuses on the image and our relationship to it as a site of not looking The collection demonstrates that even though we live in an image saturated culture many images do not look at what they claim viewers often do not look at the images and in other cases we are encouraged by the context of exhibition not to look at images Contributors discuss an array of images photographs films videos press images digital images paintings sculptures and drawings from everyday life museums and galleries and institutional contexts such as the press and political arena The themes discussed include politics of institutional exhibition and perception of images censored repressed and banned images transformations to practices of not looking as a result of new media interventions images in history and memory not looking at images of bodies and cultures on the margins responses to images of trauma and embodied vision Trainwreck Bill Press,2008-04-01 One of America s best known progressive commentators reveals that far from betraying conservative ideals George W Bush s administration has behaved exactly as anyone would expect of a group that believes government is evil and always doomed to failure Bill Press demonstrates that conservative positions have remained consistently wrong and that from its inception the movement was dedicated to tearing things down not building them up Trainwreck will convince you that the conservative movement has remained on track for decades and that from the beginning those tracks were headed for disaster

The Washington Post Index,2008 Recounting Minnesota Carl Eeman,Carl G. Eeman,2009 A Colossal Wreck Alexander Cockburn,2013-09-10 Alexander Cockburn was without question one of the most influential journalists of his generation whose writing stems from the best tradition of Mark Twain H L Mencken and Tom Paine Colossal Wreck his final work finished shortly before his death in July 2012 exemplifies the prodigious literary brio that made Cockburn s name Whether ruthlessly exposing Beltway hypocrisy pricking the pomposity of those in power or tirelessly defending the rights of the oppressed Cockburn never pulled his punches and always landed a blow where it mattered In this panoramic work covering nearly two decades of American culture and politics he explores subjects as varied as the sex life of Bill Clinton and the best way to cook wild turkey He stands up for the rights of prisoners on death row and exposes the chicanery of the media and the duplicity of the political elite As he pursues a serpentine path through the nation he charts the fortunes of friends famous relatives and sworn enemies alike to hilarious effect This is a thrilling trip through the reefs and shoals of politics and everyday life Combining a passion for the places the food and the people he encountered on dozens of cross country journeys Cockburn reports back over seventeen years of tumultuous change among what he affectionately called the thousand landscapes of the United States

Political Scandal and American Pop Culture Jim Twombly,2024-07-31

This book provides a newer definition of political scandal and applies it in a way to remove ordinary corruption from the discussion It then defines pop culture and examines how scandal and pop culture interact The discussion addresses the question when does a scandal actually enter into our pop culture The mechanisms or vehicles by which this occurs include editorial cartoons Broadway shows music movies television and more The first chapter lays out the two main definitions and gives a bit of historical background to the discussion that follows This new edition builds on the previous book with analysis of January 6th George Santos allegations of election fraud and Rudy Giuliani This book works well as a supplement in a course on American Government in American Studies and is aimed at a wide range of readers from college freshmen to more advanced scholars and political junkies

Discursive Constructions of Consent in the Legal Process Susan Ehrlich,Diana

Eades,Janet Ainsworth,2016-01-04 As a linguistically grounded critical examination of consent this volume views consent not as an individual mental state or act but as a process that is interactionally and discursively situated It highlights the ways in which legal consent is often fictional at best due to the impoverished view of meaning and the linguistic ideologies that typically inform interpretations and representations in the legal system The authors are experts in linguistics and law who use diverse theoretical and analytical approaches to examine the complex ways in which language is used to seek negotiate give or withhold consent in a range of legal contexts Authors draw on case studies or larger research corpora or a wider sociolegal approach in investigations of police citizen interactions in the street police interviews with suspects police call handlers rape and abduction trials interactions with lay litigants in a multilingual small claims court a restorative justice sentencing scheme for young offenders biomedical research and legal disputes over contracts
