Global Nutrition Report 2015 International Food Policy Research Institute, 2015-09-15 As we move into the post 2015 era of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs the world faces many seemingly intractable problems Malnutrition should not be one of them Countries that are determined to make rapid advances in malnutrition reduction can do so If governments want to achieve the SDG target of ending all forms of malnutrition by 2030 they have clear pathways to follow There are many levers to pull and this report provides many examples of countries that have done so Tackling malnutrition effectively is also key to meeting many other SDG targets Good nutrition signals the realization of people s rights to food and health It reflects a narrowing of the inequalities in our world Without good nutrition human beings cannot achieve their full potential When people s nutrition status improves it helps break the intergenerational cycle of poverty generates broad based economic growth and leads to a host of benefits for individuals families communities and countries Good nutrition provides both a foundation for human development and the scaffolding needed to ensure it reaches its full potential Good nutrition in short is an essential driver of sustainable development Analyzing Global Social Media Consumption Wamuyu, Patrick

Kanyi, 2020-10-16 Social media has revolutionized how individuals communities and organizations create share and consume information Similarly social media offers numerous opportunities as well as enormous social and economic ills for individuals communities and organizations Despite the increase in popularity of social networking sites and related digital media there are limited data and studies on consumption patterns of the new media by different global communities Analyzing Global Social Media Consumption is an essential reference book that investigates the current trends practices and newly emerging narratives on theoretical and empirical research on all aspects of social media and its global use Covering topics that include fake news detection social media addiction and motivations and impacts of social media use this book is ideal for big data analysts media and communications experts researchers academicians and students in media and communications information systems and information technology study programs Sustainable Production and Consumption Systems

Charbel Jose Chiappetta Jabbour, Syed Abdul Rehman Khan, 2021-09-26 This book opens up a critical dimension to the field of industrial ecology The book discusses the post COVID 19 trends in the field of industrial ecology and evolving practices adopted by firms for betterment of environment and society The authors identify valuable lessons to be learned and present conceptual frameworks to guide future industrial ecology applications Transforming industrial systems into closed loop industrial ecosystems dramatically reduces the negative impact of industrial activities on the environment Therefore this book is important not only for operation management scholars but also those who are interested in ensuring an environmentally sustainable future Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Toyin Falola, Emmanuel M.

Mbah, 2023-08-29 Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Gender Religion and Ethno cultural Identities explores the changing dynamics of identities in Africa with a focus on gender ethno cultural and religious identity Toyin Falola and

Emmanuel M Mbah argue that because identity defines who we are as individuals or groups studies on African identities must focus on understanding the changing dynamics in the socio economic and political spheres in the continent These chapters cover subjects such as women s career identity gender roles and knowledge childlessness ethnocentrism and democracy cultural identity through theater Black identity in the diaspora and diasporic consciousness Using existing scholarship the chapters in this edited volume challenge our understanding of what identity entails and provide new discussions on the hitherto politicized historiography of some identities in Africa

Food Systems Profile - Kenya Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations ,European Union,French Agricultural Research Centre for International Development,2023-06-23 Food systems are intimately linked to our lives through the food we eat our nutrition and health our livelihoods jobs and the environment and natural resources of the planet The main challenge for food systems is to produce nutritious food for all while preserving our biodiversity and environment and ensuring equitable distribution of wealth This Food Systems Profile provides a summary of the main food system issues in Kenya and highlights potential solutions for their sustainable and inclusive transformation It is the result of a systemic analysis and stakeholders consultation that was part of a global assessment of food systems in over 50 countries following a joint initiative by the European Union FAO and CIRAD which aims at catalysing the sustainable and inclusive transformation of food systems

Corporate Report International Livestock Research Institute, Sustainable Consumption and Production Bjørn Bauer, David Watson,Anja Charlotte Gylling,2018-07-05 The Nordic countries rank high in international reports of nations progress towards the 17 Sustainable Development Goals SDG Along with other industrialised countries however the Nordic countries have been ranked poorly in their progress towards SDG 12 which concerns Sustainable Consumption and Production This report looks closer at the Nordic countries main challenges in achieving SDG12 and sets out recommendations for Nordic collaboration to tackle these

Access to markets, weather risk, and livestock production decisions: Evidence from Ethiopia Abay, Kibrom A.,Jensen, Nathaniel D.,2020-03-03 Despite several studies showing the effect of access to markets and weather conditions on crop production we know quite little on whether and how livestock production systems respond to variation in weather risk and access to markets In this paper we study whether and how livestock production responds to access to markets and varying weather risk We also explore whether such responses vary across livelihood zones and livestock production systems We study these research questions using information on the livestock production ownership and marketing decisions of households in Ethiopia We find that households living close to markets are more likely to engage in market oriented livestock production and use modern livestock inputs We also find that households exposed to more unpredictable weather are less likely to engage in livestock production for markets Rather they are more likely to engage in livestock production for precautionary savings and insurance Furthermore greater rainfall uncertainty influences livestock portfolio allocation towards those types of livestock which can be easily liquidated while also discouraging investment in modern livestock inputs However these responses and patterns vary across livelihood zones and production systems most of these stylized responses and impacts are more pronounced in the arid and semi arid lands of Ethiopia where livestock herding remains a dominant source of livelihood Those households relying only on livestock production seem more sensitive and responsive to weather risk and weather shocks The heterogeneity in responses to and impacts of weather risk among farming systems and livelihoods highlights the need for more tailored livestock sector policies and interventions

Routledge Handbook on the Green New Deal Kyla Tienhaara,Joanna Robinson,2022-08-26 In recent years the Green New Deal has moved from relative obscurity to front and centre of policy discussions and public debates about how to respond to the climate crisis It has been credited with radically changing the nature of the conversation on climate change and with re energizing the environmental movement at a critical time All Green New Deal proposals share an emphasis on the need for governments rather than markets to lead the energy transition However they differ in other respects This Handbook analyses the fundamentals underlying all Green New Deals as well as exploring national and regional variations It is divided into three parts The first part examines the political economy of the Green New Deal focussing not just on how proposals will be costed but also on opportunities for a fundamental transformation of both national economies and the global economic system The second part explores issues of justice which are central to many Green New Deal proposals including Indigenous rights racial and gender equity and justice for the Global South In the third part authors detail case studies of Green New Deal proposals and plans at the local national and regional level This book will be an invaluable research and reference volume for students and scholars in economics politics sociology geography and environmental studies It should also be of interest to those actively involved in climate and environmental policymaking

Sustainability in African Agriculture Rattan Lal,David Kraybill,David O. Hansen,Bal Ram Singh,Theodosy Mosogoya,Lars Olav Eik,2016-11-23 This 35 chapter book is based on several oral and poster presentations including both invited and contributory chapters The book is thematically based on four pillars of sustainability with focus on sub Saharan Africa SSA Environment Economic Social and Institutional The environmental sustainability which determines economic and social institutional sustainability refers to the rate of use of natural resources soil water landscape vegetation which can be continued indefinitely without degrading their quality productivity and ecosystem services for different ecoregions of SSA

This book will help achieve the Sustainable Development Goals of the U N in SSA Therefore the book is of interest to agriculturalists economists social scientists policy makers extension agents and development bilateral organizations Basic principles explained in the book can be pertinent to all development organizations The Report: Kenya 2017 , As the largest economy in the EAC and COMESA in terms of GDP Kenya has positioned itself as a major economic power in sub Saharan Africa Traditionally a largely agrarian economy Kenya has quickly entrenched its position as a manufacturing logistics and technology hub in the region and this diversification forms a solid platform from which the government can generate economic growth over the coming years The resolution of the electoral process improving business confidence and strong private consumption are likely to support GDP expansion over 2018 and into 2019 In April 2018 the IMF estimated the economy would expand by 5.5% in 2018 and 6% in 2019 compared to 4.8% in 2017 Integrated Pollution Prevention and Control for the Municipal Water Cycle in a River Basin Context Alberto Galvis-Castaño,2019-08-14 The protection of water resources from deterioration in quality by pollution discharges is probably the biggest challenge in sustainable water resources management in the recent decades In practice most countries have adopted pollution control strategies and measures which are based on end of pipe solutions wastewater treatment plants and adjustments to the regulations including taxes for wastewater discharges Conventional Strategy Although this approach involves very high costs on many occasions this strategy has been a complete failure The research described in this book contribute to the development of sustainable solutions for the previously outlined problem It was based on the validation of the Three Step Strategic Approach concept 3 SSA which includes 1 prevention or minimisation of waste production 2 treatment aimed at recovery and reuse of waste components and 3 disposal of remaining waste with stimulation of natural self purification of the receiving water body The study showed overall positive effects of the 3 SSA in comparison of Conventional Strategy on wastewater management in the Upper Basin 389 km of the Cauca river the second most important river in Colombia The Cost Benefit Analysis clearly favoured the 3 SSA generating a major impact on the river water quality at lower cost compared to the Conventional Strategy

Meat, milk and more: Policy innovations to shepherd inclusive and sustainable livestock systems in Africa Malabo Montpellier Panel,2020-07-29 Meat Milk More Policy Innovations to Shepherd Inclusive and Sustainable Livestock Systems in Africa highlights options for sustainably promoting growth in the livestock sector drawing from what four African countries Ethiopia Mali South Africa and Uganda have done successfully in terms of institutional and policy innovation as well as programmatic interventions By adapting these lessons to countries specific contexts and scaling them up across the continent African governments can meet their national and international commitments to agricultural growth and transformation Minerals Yearbook ,2014 Ethiopia's agrifood system: Past trends, present challenges, and future scenarios Dorosh, Paul A., ed.,Minten, Bart, ed.,2020-09-14 Ethiopia has experienced impressive agricultural growth and poverty reduction stemming in part from substantial public investments in agriculture Yet the agriculture sector now faces increasing land and water constraints along with other challenges to growth Ethiopia's Agrifood System Past Trends Present Challenges and Future Scenarios presents a forward looking analysis of Ethiopia's agrifood system in the context of a rapidly changing economy Growth in the agriculture sector remains essential to continued poverty reduction in Ethiopia and will depend on sustained investment in the agrifood system especially private sector investment Many of the policies for a successful agricultural and rural development strategy for Ethiopia are relevant for other African countries as well Ethiopia's Agrifood System should be a valuable resource for policymakers development specialists and others concerned with economic development in Africa south of the Sahara
