The Behavior of

Assurance Professionals Olof P. G. Bik,2010 The complexity of human behavior challenges our explanatory powers Yet in this day and age we desperately try to manage and control the behavior of our corporate citizens through rules codes systems and procedures alike This study is an illustration that true human behavior cannot simply be controlled by more of such rules Instead it is driven by many psychological cultural contextual and environmental factors The focus of this study is the influence of cross national cultural differences in the context of the professional behavior of auditors based on the central question Is auditors professional behavior affected by crossnational cultural differences and if so how Being based on grounded theory in part validated within an international accounting organization this study is the first to provide a more profound in depth and contextualized analysis and understanding of the effect of cross national cultural differences on the behavior of professionals in general and that of auditors in particular
