[Date]

To: Paul Bailey
Head Of University Admission Committee
Horn Lake University
9508 North Lincoln Street
Horn Lake, Minnesota 38637

Dear Mr. Bailey,

My name is Lauren Underwood, and I will be providing my nephew, Sam Clark, with full financial support during his course of studies at Horn Lake University starting on [Date]. I understand that the cost of tuition is about $15,000 per semester.

I have included my bank statement from Horn Lake Bank, 84 Goldfield Avenue, Horn Lake, Minnesota, to prove that I have adequate funds to support Sam Clark until he graduates in two years on [Date].

Sincerely,

Lauren Underwood

Hearings, Reports, Public Laws United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor, 1967 The Integration of the UCLA School of Law, 1966—1978 Miguel Espinoza, 2017-12-01 In 1966 a group of UCLA law school professors sparked the era of affirmative action by creating one of the earliest and most expansive race conscious admissions programs in higher education The Legal Education Opportunity Program LEOP served to integrate the legal profession by admitting large cohorts of minority students under non traditional standards and sending them into the world as emissaries of integration upon graduation Together these students bent the arc of educational equality and the LEOP served as a model for similar programs around the country Drawing upon rich historical archives and interviews with dozens of students and professors who helped integrate UCLA this book argues that such programs should be reinstituted and with haste because affirmative action worked Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1890 "Just Like Other Students" Magda Czigány, 2009-03-26 Based on extensive archival research and in depth interviews with former refugee students the author has painted a detailed picture of how and why the students came to Britain after the failure of the 1956 revolution She chronicles their studies and achievements and their attempts to adapt to British society and recalls the extraordinary welcome extended to them by British higher educational institutions as well as the magnanimous response by the people of Britain to the appeal to raise funds to cover the cost of their education The British people feeling guilty that the Suez crisis had prevented the British government from being able to help Hungary in face of Soviet aggression readily offered whatever they could to help the refugees pouring into Britain The Lord Mayor of London s Appeal Fund was set up within a week of the Russian tanks rolling into Budapest It had the then unprecedented sum of two million pounds as its target which was collected mainly from small individual donations by the first week of January 1957 The universities immediately began to organize the selection and transfer of refugee students from the Austrian camps to Britain to interview them allocate places for them and set up the necessary English language classes Nearly one thousand potential students were interviewed five hundred of whom were placed in higher educational institution all over the country Well over the half of these students obtained degrees and an unusually high proportion went on to gain higher degrees Medical News Letter, 1964 Graduate Programs in the Humanities, Arts & Social Sciences 2014 (Grad 2) Peterson's, 2013-11-22 Peterson s Graduate Programs in the Humanities Arts Social Sciences 2014 contains comprehensive profiles of more than 11 000 graduate programs in disciplines such as applied arts design area cultural studies art art history conflict resolution mediation peace studies criminology forensics language literature psychology counseling religious studies sociology anthropology

University of Michigan News-letter ,1901 A Mathematician's Practical Guide to Mentoring Undergraduate Research Michael Dorff,Allison Henrich,Lara Pudwell,2019-09-16 A Mathematician s Practical Guide to Mentoring Undergraduate Research is a complete how to manual on starting an undergraduate research program Readers will find advice on setting appropriate problems directing student progress managing group dynamics obtaining external funding publishing student results and a myriad of other relevant issues The authors have decades of experience and have accumulated knowledge that other mathematicians will find extremely useful U.S.- China Educational Exchange Hongshan Li,2007-12-01 U S China relations became increasingly important and complex in the twentieth century While economic political and military interactions all grew over time the most dramatic expansion took place in educational exchange turning it into the strongest tie between the two nations By the end of the 1940s tens of thousands of Chinese and American students and scholars had crisscrossed the Pacific leaving indelible marks on both societies Although all exchange programs were terminated during the cold war the two nations reemerged as top partners within a decade after the reestablishment of diplomatic relations Approaching U S China relations from a unique and usually overlooked perspective Hongshan Li reveals that both the drastic expansion and complete termination of educational ties between the two nations in the first half of the twentieth century were largely the results of direct and deep intervention from the American and Chinese governments Benefiting from government support and collaboration educational exchange succeeded in diffusing knowledge and improving mutual understanding between the two peoples across the divide of civilizations However the visible hand of government also proved to be most destructive to the development of healthy intercultural relations when educational interactions were treated merely as an instrument for crisis management
