First Love, Last Rites Ian McEwan, 2011-02-11 Somerset Maugham Award winner. Dark early fiction by the author of Nutshell. A splendid magician of fear. The Village Voice Literary Supplement. Taut brooding and densely atmospheric the stories here show us how murder can arise out of boredom, perversity from adolescent curiosity and how sheer evil can become the solution to unbearable loneliness. These short fiction pieces from the early career of the New York Times bestselling and Man Booker Prize winning author of Atonement and On Chesil Beach are claustrophobic tales of childhood, twisted psychology and disjointed family life as terrifying as anything by Stephen King and finely crafted with a lyricism and an intensity that compels us to confront our secret kinship with what repels us. A powerful talent that is both weird and wonderful. The Boston Sunday Globe. Ian McEwan's fictional world combines the bleak dreamlike quality of de Chirico's cityscapes with the strange eroticism of canvases by Balthus. Menace lies crouched between the lines of his neat angular prose and weird grisly things occur in his books with nearly casual aplomb. The New York Times

Ian Russell McEwan was born on the 21st of June in 1948 in Aldershot, England, as the only son of David and Rose McEwan. He spent most of his childhood in military outposts such as Singapore and Libya because his father was a soldier of the British army. After having attended a boarding school in Suffolk, he enters the University of Sussex in 1966 where he began writing fiction and also achieved his BA degree in English literature in 1970. One year later he obtained his MA degree at the University of East Anglia, Norwich. In 1975 he published his first short story collection First Love Last Rites, which was his Master's thesis in the subject creative writing. The shocking stories that are arranged in First Love Last Rites brought him immediate critical compliments and he won the Somerset Maugham Award for their intelligent skills and originality. Most of these stories deal with abnormal sexuality, disorganized family life or claustrophobic tales. In his Short Stories, McEwan wrote at the beginning of his career; the protagonists are mostly children or young persons who tell the stories as first person narrators. Wolfgang G. Müller says in his interpretation of the short story First Love Last Rites that the attention is drawn to the developmental stage of adolescence with its psychological problems that are especially linked to the first sexual experiences and to the search of gender identity translated from Müller 266 Ian McEwan became well known for his new way of dealing with the topic of initiation where he places special emphasis on transgress and perverse sexual behaviour and also on criminal aspects translated from Müller 266 In this term paper the title story First Love Last Rites will be analysed in the context of initiation and adolescence Hereby I will firstly introduce some important terms so that I can go on with explaining what an initiation story is The last part then will be about the short story itself where I will summarize and analyse FLLR

Posting the Male , 2022-06-08 The essays collected in Posting the Male examine representations of masculinity in post war and contemporary British literature focussing on the works of writers as diverse as John Osborne Joe Orton James Kelman Ian Rankin Carol Ann Duffy Alan Hollinghurst Ian

McEwan Graham Swift and Jackie Kay The collection seeks to capture the current historical moment of crisis at which masculinity loses its universal transparency and becomes visible as a performative gender construct Rather than denoting just one fixed polarised point on a hierarchised axis of strictly segregated gender binaries masculinity is revealed to oscillate within a virtually limitless spectrum of gender identities characterised not by purity and self containment but by difference and alterity As the contributors demonstrate rather than a gender in crisis millennial manhood is a gender in transition Patriarchal strategies of man making are gradually being replaced by less exclusionary patterns of self identification inspired by feminism Men have begun to recognise themselves as gendered beings and as a result masculinity has been set in motion
