First Year Writing Perspectives On Argument Uta:

Perspectives on Argument Nancy V. Wood, 1998 This college text teaches students strategies for reading thinking and writing that they can use in all types of argument both inside and outside the classroom The author notes that modern arguments often encompass a variety of perspectives rather than a right or wrong position and do not always

Perspectives on Argument with APA Guidelines Nancy V. Wood, 2002-06 For freshman sophomore level writing courses that teach argumentation This combination rhetoric reader helps students develop strategies for critical reading critical thinking research and writing that will help them argue clearly and convincingly It teaches them to identify and develop arguments to read and form reactions and opinions of their own to analyze an audience to seek common ground and to use a wide realistic range of techniques to write argument papers that express their individual views and original perspectives on modern issues The Rhetoric portion includes clear explanations and examples of argument theory and reading and writing processes research and documentation skills and offers engaging class tested writing assignments and activities The Reader portion includes 75 reading selections covering seven broad issue areas and 18 more focused areas all of contemporary concern Unique chapters discuss student argument styles Rogerian argument and argument and literature

The Anthropology of Writing David Barton, Uta Papen, 2010-05-06 We live in a textually mediated world where writing is central to society its cultural practices and institutions Writing has been the subject of much research but it is usually highly visible and valued texts that are studied the work of novelists poets and scholars The studies included in this book examine every day acts of writing and their significance Ordinary quotidian writing may be viewed as mundane and routine but it is central to how societies operate and the ways individuals relate to each other and to institutions Examples discussed in the book including writing in areas such as farming photo sharing childcare work and health care The chapters are united in their approach to examining this writing as cultural practice The book also brings together two important traditions of this type of study the Anglophone and Francophone The work of French scholars in this field is made accessible for the first time to the Anglophone world The insights and research in this collection will appeal to all linguists anthropologists sociolinguistics and cultural theorists

Murakami Haruki and Our Years of Pilgrimage Gitte Marianne Hansen, Michael Tsang, 2021-08-19 This book is a timely and expansive volume on Murakami Haruki arguably Japan's most high profile contemporary writer With contributions from prominent Murakami scholars this book approaches the works of Murakami Haruki through interdisciplinary perspectives discussing their significance and value through the lenses of history geography politics gender and sexuality translation and literary influence and circulation Together the chapters provide a multifaceted assessment on Murakami's literary oeuvre in the last four decades vouching for its continuous importance in understanding the world and Japan in contemporary times The book also features exclusive material that includes the cultural critic Kat Norihiro's final work on Murakami his chapter here is one of the few works ever translated into English to interviews with Murakami and discussions from his translators and editors shedding light not only on Murakami's works as literature but as products of cross cultural exchanges Murakami Haruki and Our Years of Pilgrimage will prove a valuable resource for students and scholars of Japanese studies comparative and world literature cultural studies and beyond Perspectives, 2005 First Year Writing Perspectives On Argument University of Texas at Arlington Staff, 2012 Zen Buddhism: Japan Heinrich Dumoulin, 2005-08-16 In this second volume of his classic history one of the world's foremost Zen scholars turns his attention to the development of Zen in Japan Traveling Bodies Nicole Maruo-Schröder, Sarah Schäfer-Althaus, Uta Schaffers, 2023-09-29 Traveling Bodies Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Traveling as an Embodied Practice explores the central role the body has in and for traveling and thus complements and expands upon existing research in travel studies with new perspectives on and insights in the entanglement of bodies and traveling The case studies assembled in this volume discuss a variety of traveling practices experiences and media with chapters featuring Asian American and European historical and contemporary perspectives Truly interdisciplinary in its approach the volume identifies and examines diverse literary historical and cultural texts contexts and modes in which traveling and the body intersect including classic travelogues new media e.g. film digital travel apps surf culture and travel inspired tattoos The contributions offer various avenues for further research not only for scholars working with body theory and travel writing but also for anyone interested in the intersections of literature culture media and embodied practices of traveling Reconfiguring Transregionalisation in the Global South Ross Anthony, Uta Ruppert, 2019-11-01 This volume examines the Africa Asia relationship from a transregional perspective namely as a set of emergent social political and economic practices spanning a number of analytical and spatial scales Drawing on a host of countries from both regions the contributions illustrate how encounters increasingly transcend fixed territorial categories at local national and regional levels While large scale political and economic considerations tend to dominate in Asia Africa related literature for instance in China Africa BRICS and South South discourses the current volume seeks to foster dialogue between these broader levels of analyses and more localized social practices and experiences including the role of civil society cultural production and migration With an emphasis on the trans aspects of inter regional exchange the volume contributes to a better understanding of new forms of space making between these two increasingly important regions Coherence in Spoken and Written Discourse Wolfram Bublitz, Uta Lenk, Eija Ventola, 1999 Until very recently coherence unlike cohesion was widely held to be a rather mystical notion However taking account of new trends representing a considerable shift in orientation this volume aims at helping relieve coherence of its mystifying aura The general bibliography which concludes the book bears witness to this intriguing development and the rapidly changing scene in coherence research Preceding this comprehensive up to date Bibliography on Coherence are 13 selected papers from the 1997 International Workshop on Coherence at the University of Augsburg Germany They share a number of theoretical and methodological assumptions and reflect a trend in text and discourse analysis to move away from reducing coherence to a product of formally represented cohesion and or semantically established connectivity Instead they start from a user and context oriented interpretive understanding and rely on authentic data throughout in relating micro linguistic to macro linguistic issues The first group of papers looks at the re creation of coherence in inter alia reported speech casual conversation argumentative writing news reports and conference contributions The second group describes the negotiation of coherence in oral examinations text summaries and other situations that require special efforts on the part of the recipient to overcome misunderstandings and other disturbances The third group discusses theoretical approaches to the description of coherence

Directory of American Scholars: English speech and drama, 1999 Literacy and Globalization Uta Papien, 2006-09-27 Using literacy practices in the newly independent post apartheid Namibia as a lens through which to examine the effects of globalisation this broad case study looks at issues surrounding tourism state control and the new forces of consumerism By placing literacy at the centre of an investigation into social and cultural change as experienced by individuals Papien shows that in times of change reading and writing are always implicated in structures of power and inequality The book considers language practices that can exclude some members of Namibian society and also looks at the strategies used by local people to accommodate and even embrace the onward march of global English and the influx of foreign visitors practices and modes of commerce and interaction

Constructions of Illiteracy in Twentieth-Century Ireland Maighr  ad Tobin, 2022-12-23 Constructions of Illiteracy in Twentieth Century Ireland Contesting the Narrative of Full Literacy offers new insights into literacy and illiteracy in the context of twentieth century Ireland Through a close analysis of archived documentation from educational military and parliamentary sources the book reveals a potent narrative of full literacy that promoted literacy proficiency as a facet of the Irish national identity and suppressed any formal acknowledgment of illiteracy within the adult population Tobin applies a sociological approach and uses Foucauldian concepts of knowledge power discourse and silence to examine how constructions of illiteracy and the illiterate person varied over time while also being entwined with activities of nation building in the twentieth century Though focused on Irish society from 1900 to 1980 this volume also offers a resonant lens through which to approach the Decade of Centenaries an Irish Government initiative spanning 2012 2023 that commemorates significant events in the history of the Irish state Relevant to any readers with an interest in the Irish experience of independence decolonisation and postcolonialism this book will be a useful companion for scholars and postgraduate students of literacy and Irish studies more broadly

Understanding and Supporting Children with Literacy Difficulties Valerie Muter, 2021-01-21 Learning to read is arguably the single most important educational challenge a child faces in the first years of schooling setting a child up for future academic success and opportunities However it is estimated that one in six children experience literacy difficulties This is the go to book for psychologists educationalists and other professionals wanting a deeper understanding of current thinking around dyslexia reading comprehension difficulties and related SpLDs Drawing on six fictional case studies to illustrate her points and using examples of good practice throughout Valerie Muter unpacks the latest psychological theories and research on literacy disorders She discusses the interconnections between underlying cognitive problems and learning and educational and behavioural issues as well as the common co occurrence of these conditions This authoritative book also provides accessible guidance on making assessments and tailoring interventions within the home or school Written by a lead thinker in the field this is an essential evidence based guide for those working with children with literacy difficulties and supporting them to achieve their full potential

Dyslexia Philip Kirby,Margaret J. Snowling,2022-11-15 In 1896 the British physician William Pringle Morgan published an account of Percy a bright and intelligent boy quick at games and in no way inferior to others of his age Yet in spite of his intelligence Percy had great difficulty learning to read Percy was one of the first children to be described as having word blindness better known today as dyslexia In this first comprehensive history of dyslexia Philip Kirby and Margaret Snowling chart a journey that begins with Victorian medicine and continues to dyslexia s current status as the most globally recognized specific learning difficulty In an engaging narrative style Kirby and Snowling tell the story of dyslexia examining its origins and revealing the many scientists teachers and campaigners who put it on the map Through this history they explain current debates over the diagnosis of dyslexia and its impact on learning For those who have lived experience of dyslexia professionals who have supported them and scholars of social history education psychology and childhood studies Dyslexia reflects on the place of literacy in society whom it has benefited and whom it has left behind

The Social Thought of Talcott Parsons Uta Gerhardt,2016-02-17 The Social Thought of Talcott Parsons offers an insightful new reading of the work of Talcott Parsons keeping in view at once the important influences of Max Weber on his sociology and the central place occupied by methodology which enables us to better understand the relationship between American and European social theory Revealing American democracy and its nemesis National Socialism in Germany as the basis of his theory of society this book explores the debates in which Parsons was engaged throughout his life with the Frankfurt School C Wright Mills and the young radicals among the disobedient student generation as well as economism and utilitarianism in social theory the opponents that Parsons confronted in the interests of humanism In addition to revisiting Parsons extensive oeuvre Uta Gerhardt takes up themes in current research and theory including social inequality civic culture and globalization offering a fascinating demonstration of what the conceptual approaches of Parsons can accomplish today Revealing methodology and the American ethos to be the cornerstones of Parsons social thought this book will appeal not only to those with interests in classical sociology and who wish to fully understand what this classic has to offer but also to those who wish to make sociology answer to the problems of the society of the present

Art and Activism in the Nuclear Age Roman Rosenbaum,Yasuko Claremont,2023-05-12 This book explores the contemporary legacy of Hiroshima and Nagasaki following the passage of three quarters of a century and the role of art and activism in maintaining a critical perspective on the dangers of the nuclear age It closely interrogates the political and cultural shifts that have accompanied the transition to a nuclearised world Beginning with the contemporary socio political and cultural interpretations of the impact and legacy of the destruction of Hiroshima and Nagasaki the chapters examine the challenges posed by committed opponents in the cultural and activist fields to the ongoing development of nuclear weapons and the expanding industrial uses of nuclear power It explores how the aphorism that all art is political is borne out in the close relation between art and activism This multi disciplinary approach to the socio political and cultural exploration of nuclear energy in relation to Hiroshima Nagasaki via the arts will be of interest to students and scholars of peace and conflict studies social political and cultural studies fine arts and art and aesthetic studies

Exploring Universal Basic Income Ugo Gentilini, Margaret Grosh, Jamele Rigolini, Ruslan Yemtsov, 2019-11-25 Universal basic income UBI is emerging as one of the most hotly debated issues in development and social protection policy But what are the features of UBI What is it meant to achieve How do we know and what don't we know about its performance What does it take to implement it in practice Drawing from global evidence literature and survey data this volume provides a framework to elucidate issues and trade offs in UBI with a view to help inform choices around its appropriateness and feasibility in different contexts Specifically the book examines how UBI differs from or complements other social assistance programs in terms of objectives coverage incidence adequacy incentives effects on poverty and inequality financing political economy and implementation It also reviews past and current country experiences surveys the full range of existing policy proposals provides original results from micro tax benefit simulations and sets out a range of considerations around the analytics and practice of UBI

The Journal of Japanese Studies, 2008 A multidisciplinary forum for communicating new information new interpretations and recent research results concerning Japan to the English reading world

Secularization and Religious Innovation in the North Atlantic World David Hempton, Hugh McLeod, 2017-05-05 In the early twenty first century it had become a cliché that there was a God Gap between a more religious United States and a more secular Europe The apparent religious differences between the United States and western Europe continue to be a focus of intense and sometimes bitter debate between three of the main schools in the sociology of religion According to the influential Secularization Thesis secularization has been an integral part of the processes of modernisation in the Western world since around 1800 For proponents of this thesis the United States appears as an anomaly and they accordingly give considerable attention to explaining why it is different For other sociologists however the apparently high level of religiosity in the USA provides a major argument in their attempts to refute the Thesis

Secularization and Religious Innovation in the Atlantic World provides a systematic comparison between the religious histories of the United States and western European countries from the eighteenth to the late twentieth century noting parallels as well as divergences examining their causes and especially highlighting change over time This is achieved by a series of themes which seem especially relevant to this agenda and in each case the theme is considered by two scholars The volume examines whether American Christians have been more innovative and if so how far this explains the apparent God

Gap It goes beyond the simple American European binary to ask what is American or European in the Christianity of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and in what ways national or regional differences outweigh these commonalities
