Transboundary Water Management Anton Earle, 2013 The management of water resources across boundaries whether sub national or international is one of the most difficult challenges facing water managers today The upstream exploitation or diversion of groundwater or rivers can have devastating consequences for those living downstream and transboundary rivers can provide a source of conflict between nations or states particularly where water resources are scarce Similarly water based pollution can spread across borders and create disputes and a need for sound governance This book is the first to bring together in a concise and accessible way all of the main topics to be considered when managing transboundary waters It will raise the awareness of practitioners of the various issues needed to be taken into account when making water management decisions and provide a practically based overview for advanced students The authors show clearly how vital it is to cooperate effectively over the management of shared waters to unlock their contribution to regional sustainable development The book is largely based on a long running and tested international training programme run by the Stockholm International Water Institute and Ramboll Natura and supported by the Swedish International Development Co operation Agency Sida where the respective authors have presented modules on the programmes It addresses issues not only of conflict but also of managing power asymmetries benefit sharing stakeholder participation international water law environmental water requirements and regional development It will be particularly useful for those with a background in hydrology or engineering who wish to broaden their management skills Regional Worlds: Advancing the Geography of Regions Martin Jones, Anssi Paasi, 2017-10-02 A key concern in the debate and empirical research on the geography of regions is the evolution of the conceptualizations and practical uses of the idea of region This idea prioritises both the intellectual and the practical development of regional studies This book drives the discussion further It stresses the complex forms of agency advocacy involved in the production and reproduction of regional spaces and space of regionalism as well as the importance of geohistory and context The book moves beyond the territorial relational divide that has characterized debates on regions and regional borders since the 1990s The contributors answer key questions from different conceptual and concrete contextual angles and to motivate readers to reflect on the perpetual significance of regional concepts and how they are mobilized by various actors to maintain or transform the contested spatialities of societal power relations This book was based on a special issue of Regional Studies Subject Index to Periodicals ,2009 2024-25 IAS All States PSC General Studies Indian & World Geography Solved Papers YCT Expert Team, 2024 25 IAS All States PSC General Studies Indian World Geography Solved Papers 400 695 E This book contains 380 sets solved papers and 4476 objective questions

Averting Crisis in Ukraine Steven Pifer,2009 This Council Special Report commissioned by CFR s Center for Preventive Action takes all these issues into account and examines the many challenges facing Ukraine The report comprehensively analyzes the country s difficulties related to both domestic conditions for example fractious politics and deeply divided public opinion and foreign policy for example issues related to the Black Sea Fleet and Ukrainian and European dependence on Russia s natural gas The report then recommends ways for the United States to encourage Ukraine on a path of stability and integration with the West It proposes measures to bolster high level dialogue between Washington and Kiev foster effective governance in Ukraine and reduce Ukraine s susceptibility to Russian pressure On the crucial NATO question the report urges the United States to support continued Ukrainian integration with the alliance though it recommends waiting to back concrete steps toward membership until Kiev achieves consensus on this point One need not agree with this judgment to find Pifer s analysis of value Averting Crisis in Ukraine takes a clear eyed look at the issues that could cause instability or worse in Ukraine But it also recommends practical steps that could increase the prospect that Ukraine will enjoy a prosperous democratic and independent future 2024-25 IAS/PSC General Studies Indian & World Geography YCT Expert Team , 2024 25 IAS PSC General Studies Indian World Geography Electronic Constitution: Social, Cultural, and Political Implications Amoretti, Francesco,2009-03-31 Provides analysis of the relationship between digital information technologies and politics relating these issues to the historical system transformation

Economic Development and Inequality in China Hong Yu, 2017-09-29 The conventional belief that all regions have equally benefited from China's remarkable development over the last three decades is subjected to criticism in this book as Hong Yu systematically analyses the issue of regional inequality during the post 1978 period using the case of Guangdong Guangdong is one of the key industrial centres and economic powerhouses in China and as a pioneer province instigating economic reform as China opened up to the world it offers an ideal focus upon which to question and enrich the Western theories of economic geography and regional disparity Based on field research analysis of geographic characteristics and regression models this book illustrates how Guangdong's impressive development record has been marred by its rising regional disparity investigates the main causes of this disparity and draws conclusions regarding the lessons China can learn from it Economic Development and Inequality in China will be of interest to students and scholars of Chinese economics Chinese regional studies economic geography and China Studies Hong Yu is a Visiting Research Fellow at the National University of Singapore His research interests lie in the field of regional economy He is the author of a chapter on China's two delta regions in the book China and The Global Economic Crisis

The Robbery of Nature John Bellamy Foster, Brett Clark, 2020-02-24 Bridges the gap between social and environmental critiques of capitalism In the nineteenth century Karl Marx inspired by the German chemist Justus von Liebig argued that capitalism's relation to its natural environment was that of a robbery system leading to an irreparable rift in the metabolism between humanity and nature In the twenty first century these classical insights into capitalism's degradation of the earth have become the basis of extraordinary advances in critical theory and practice associated with contemporary ecosocialism In The Robbery of Nature John Bellamy Foster and Brett Clark working within this historical tradition examine capitalism's plundering of nature via commodity production and how it has led to the current anthropogenic rift in the Earth System Departing from much previous scholarship Foster and Clark adopt a materialist and dialectical approach bridging the gap between social and environmental critiques of capitalism The ecological crisis they explain extends beyond questions of traditional class struggle to a corporeal rift in the physical organization of living beings themselves raising critical issues of social reproduction racial capitalism alienated speciesism and ecological imperialism No one they conclude following Marx owns the earth Instead we must maintain it for future generations and the innumerable diverse inhabitants of the planet as part of a process of sustainable human development
