Coombs, M. Potts, J. Whitehead, 2014-09-23 Addressing the debate around what makes a good citizen this work proposes a new form of post colonial citizenship education which can be applied in any cultural setting International educational partnerships provide the opportunity for participants to live out values such as cultural empathy and thus demonstrate their right to citizenship Political Economy and the Aid Industry in Asia J. Hutchison, W. Hout, C. Hughes, R. Robison, 2015-12-25 Adopting a distinctive structural political economy approach this book uniquely explains the blind spots of alternative political economy approaches to international aid and presents an original framework for evaluating likely reformers strength of commitment and potential alliances with donors

Oiling the Urban Economy Franklin Obeng-Odoom, 2014-06-13 This book presents a critical analysis of the resource curse doctrine and a review of the international evidence on oil and urban development to examine the role of oil on property development and rights in West Africa's new oil metropolis Sekondi Takoradi Ghana It seeks answers to the following questions In what ways did the city come into existence What changes to property rights are oil prospecting explorations and production introducing in the 21st century How do the effects vary across different social classes and spectrums To what extent are local and national institutions able to shape restrain and constrain trans national oil related accumulation and its effects on property in land property in housing residential leisure and commercial and property in labour How do these processes connect with the entire urban system in Ghana This book shows how institutions of varying degrees of power interact to govern land housing and labour in the city and analyses how efficient sustainable and equitable the outcomes of these interactions are It is a comprehensive account of the tensions and contradictions in the main sectors of the urban economy society and environment in the booming Oil City and will be of interest to urban economists development economists real estate economists Africanists and urbanists

Rethinking Climate Change, Conflict and Security Jan Selby, Clemens Hoffmann, 2017-10-02 Is global climate change likely to become a significant source of violent conflict and should it therefore be seen as a national security challenge Most Northern governments militaries think tanks and NGOs believe so as do many academic researchers on the grounds that increased temperatures changing precipitation patterns and rising sea levels will worsen existing social stresses especially within poor societies and marginal communities across Africa and Asia This book argues otherwise The first collection of its kind it brings together leading scholars of Anthropology Geography Development Studies and International Relations to provide a series of critical analyses of mainstream thinking on the climate security nexus It shows how policy discourse on climate conflict consistently misrepresents the causes of violence especially by obscuring its core political dimensions It demonstrates that quantitative research provides a flawed basis for understanding climate conflict linkages It argues that climate security discourse is in hoc with a range of questionable military authoritarian and developmental agendas And it reveals that the greening of global capitalism is already having violent consequences across the global South Climate change the book argues does indeed have serious conflict and security implications but these are quite different from how they are usually imagined This book was published as a special issue of Geopolitics

Africa's Information Revolution James T. Murphy, Padraig R. Carmody, 2015-04-20 Africa's Information Revolution was recently announced as the 2016 prizewinner of the Royal Academy for Overseas Sciences congratulations to the authors James T Murphy and Padraig Carmody Africa's Information Revolution presents an in depth examination of the development and economic geographies accompanying the rapid diffusion of new ICTs in Sub Saharan Africa Represents the first book length comparative case study ICT diffusion in Africa of its kind

Confronts current information and communication technologies for development ICT4D discourse by providing a counter to largely optimistic mainstream perspectives on Africa's prospects for modern development Features comparative research based on more than 200 interviews with firms from a manufacturing and service industry in Tanzania and South Africa Raises key insights regarding the structural challenges facing Africa even in the context of the continent's recent economic growth spurt Combines perspectives from economic and development geography and science and technology studies to demonstrate the power of integrated conceptual theoretical frameworks Include maps photos diagrams and tables to highlight the concepts field research settings and key findings Agricultural Reform in Rwanda Chris Huggins, 2017-10-15 International observers have lauded Rwanda as an example of an African country taking control of its own development trajectory and as a market friendly destination for investment A key component of this narrative has been an ambitious programme of agricultural reform involving private firms NGOs and international charities The Rwandan government claims these reforms have been a resounding success tripling crop yields and helping to combat hunger Chris Huggins argues however that Rwanda's liberal modernising image sits poorly with the regime's continuing authoritarian tendencies Featuring in depth case studies of the effects of agricultural reform in three different regions and drawing on hundreds of interviews Huggins shows that the much vaunted liberalization of agriculture has in fact depended on the coercion of Rwandan farmers and in many cases has had a detrimental impact on their livelihoods With the Kagame regime now coming under increasing international scrutiny this work provides a timely look at the impact of market friendly authoritarianism in contemporary Africa making essential reading for students and scholars of development in the fields of sociology anthropology political science and economics Southeastern Geographer David M. Cochran Jr., Carl A. Reese, 2014-12-19 Southeastern Geographer is published by UNC Press for the Southeastern Division of the Association of American Geographers www.sedaag.org The quarterly journal publishes the academic work of geographers and other social and physical scientists and features peer reviewed articles and essays that reflect sound scholarship and contain significant contributions to geographical understanding with a special interest in work that focuses on the southeastern United States The South China Sea Maritime Dispute Leszek Buszynski, Christopher B. Roberts, 2014-09-25 The South China Sea is a major strategic waterway for trade and oil shipments to Japan Korea as well as southern China It has been the focus of a maritime dispute which has continued now for over six decades with competing claims from China Vietnam the Philippines Indonesia and Brunei Recently China has become more assertive in pressing its claims harassing Vietnamese fishing vessels and seizing reefs in the Philippine claim zone China has insisted that it has indisputable sovereignty over the area and has threatened to enforce its claim All of this is unsettling and draws in the United States which is concerned about freedom of navigation in the area The US has been supporting the Philippines and has been developing security ties with Vietnam as a check upon China This book examines the conflict potential of the current dispute it discusses how the main claimants and the United States view the issue and assesses the prospects for a resolution of the problem

Law and Regulation of Mobile

Payment Systems Joy Malala, 2017-11-28 Over the last ten years mobile payment systems have revolutionised banking in some countries in Africa In Kenya the introduction of M Pesa a new financial services model has transformed the banking and financial services industry Giving the unbanked majority access to the financial services market it has attracted over 18 million subscribers which is remarkable given that fewer than 4 million people in Kenya have bank accounts This book addresses the legal and regulatory issues arising out of the introduction of M Pesa in Kenya and its drive towards financial inclusion It considers the interaction between regulation and technological innovation with a particular focus on the regulatory tools institutional arrangements and government decisional processes through the examination as a whole of its regulatory capacity This is done with a view to understanding the regulatory capacity of Kenya in addressing the vulnerabilities presented by technological innovation in the financial industry for consumers after financial inclusion It also examines the way that mobile payments have been regulated by criticising the piecemeal approach that the Central Bank of Kenya has taken in addressing the legal and regulatory issues presented by mobile payments The book argues there are significant gaps in the regulatory regime of mobile banking in Kenya

Media Activism in the Digital Age

Victor Pickard, Guobin Yang, 2017-07-06 Media Activism in the Digital Age captures an exciting moment in the evolution of media activism studies and offers an invaluable guide to this vibrant and evolving field of research Victor Pickard and Guobin Yang have assembled essays by leading scholars and activists to provide case studies of feminist technological and political interventions during different historical periods and at local national and global levels Looking at the underlying theories histories politics ideologies tactics strategies and aesthetics the book takes an expansive view of media activism It explores how varieties of activism are mediated through communication technologies how activists deploy strategies for changing the structures of media systems and how governments and corporations seek to police media activism From memes to zines hacktivism to activism this volume considers activist practices involving both older kinds of media and newer digital social and network based forms Media Activism in the Digital Age provides a useful cross section of this growing field for both students and researchers

Geographies of Developing Areas

Glyn Williams, Paula Meth, Katie Willis, 2014-03-21 Geographies of Developing Areas is a thought provoking and accessible introductory text presenting a fresh view of the Global South that challenges students pre conceptions and promotes lively debate Rather than presenting the Global South as a set of problems from rapid urbanization to poverty this book focuses on the diversity of life in the South and looks at the role the South plays in shaping and responding to current global change The core contents of the book integrate traditional concerns of development geographers such as economic development and social inequality with aspects of the global South that are usually given less attention such as cultural identity and political conflict This edition has been fully updated to reflect recent changes in the field and highlight issues of security risk and violence environmental sustainability and climate change and the impact of ICT on patterns of North South and South South exchange It also challenges students to think about how space is important in both the directions and the outcomes of change in the Global South emphasizing the inherently spatial nature of political economic and socio cultural processes Students are introduced to the Global South via contemporary debates in development and current research in cultural economic and political geographies of developing areas The textbook consider how images of the so called Third World are powerful but problematic It explores the economic political and cultural processes shaping the South at the global scale and the impact that these have on people s lives and identities Finally the text considers the possibilities and limitations of different development strategies The main arguments of the book are richly illustrated through case study material drawn from across the Global South as well as full colour figures and photos Students are supported throughout with clear examples explanations of key terms ideas and debates and introductions to the wider literature and relevant websites in the field The pedagogical features of the book have been further developed through discussion questions and activities that provide focused tasks for students research including investigation based around the book s case studies and in depth exploration of debates and concepts it introduces

R&D Investment and Impact in the Global Construction Industry Keith Hampson, Judy A. Kraatz, Adriana X. Sanchez, 2014-06-20 R and how industry and researchers can manage their efforts to improve productivity whilst addressing the environmental and social needs of their communities Case studies present projects where R D ideas funded by both the private and public sectors have been translated from research into practice or policy and examine drivers successes and barriers to the delivery of R D in industry Based on research from members of the CIB Task Group 85 R D Investment and Impact and concluding with key insights for maximising the impact of R D in the future the book holds valuable lessons for practitioners policy makers and researchers across the international construction industry

China's Power and Asian Security Mingjiang Li, Kalyan M. Kemburi, 2014-11-27 One of the most significant factors for contemporary international relations is the growth of China s economic military and political power Indeed few analysts would dispute the observation that China s power has strongly influenced the structure of the international system major power strategic relations international security the patterns of trans border economic activities and most importantly the political and security dynamics in Asia in the twenty first century This book maps the growth of China s political economic and military capabilities and its impact on the security order in Asia over the coming decades While updating the emerging power dimensions and prevailing discourse it provides a nuanced analysis of whether the growth of Chinese power is resulting in Beijing becoming more assertive or even aggressive in its behavior and pursuit of national interests It also examines how the key Asian countries perceive and react to the growth of China s power and how US rebalancing would play out in the context of Beijing s political economic and military power China s Power and Asian Security will be of huge interest to student and scholars of Asian politics Chinese politics security studies and international security and international relations more generally

The New Urban Crisis Richard

Florida,2017-04-11 In recent years the young educated and affluent have surged back into cities reversing decades of suburban flight and urban decline And yet all is not well Richard Florida argues in The New Urban Crisis Florida one of the first scholars to anticipate this back to the city movement in his groundbreaking The Rise of the Creative Class demonstrates how the same forces that power the growth of the world s superstar cities also generate their vexing challenges gentrification unaffordability segregation and inequality Meanwhile many more cities still stagnate and middle class neighborhoods everywhere are disappearing Our winner take all cities are just one manifestation of a profound crisis in today s urbanized knowledge economy A bracingly original work of research and analysis The New Urban Crisis offers a compelling diagnosis of our economic ills and a bold prescription for more inclusive cities capable of ensuring growth and prosperity for all
