Shani Adia Evans

Geography Grade Pnw November2014 Question Paper:

We Belong Here Shani Adia Evans, 2015-01-16 A landmark study that shows how Black residents experience and respond to the rapid transformation of historically Black places Although Portland Oregon is sometimes called America's whitest city Black residents who grew up in the neighborhoods of northeast Portland have made it their own The district of Albina also called Northeast was their haven and a hub of Black community life But between 1990 and 2010 Albina changed dramatically it became majority white In We Belong Here sociologist Shani Adia Evans offers an intimate look at gentrification from the inside documenting the reactions of the residents of Albina as the racial demographics of their neighborhood shift As white culture becomes centered in Northeast Black residents recount their experiences with what Evans refers to as white watching the questioning look on the faces of white people they encounter which conveys an exclusionary message What are you doing here This Evans shows is a prime example of what she calls white spacemaking the establishment of white space spaces in which whiteness is assumed to be the norm in formerly non white neighborhoods While gentrification typically describes socioeconomic changes that may have racial implications white spacemaking allows us to understand racism as a primary mechanism of neighborhood change We Belong Here illuminates why gentrification and white spacemaking should be examined as intersecting but not interchangeable processes of neighborhood change
