Geography Memorandum 2014:

The Boundaries of Belonging Bernadette Nadya Jaworsky, 2016-12-09 This book addresses an issue currently making political headlines in the United States immigration Immigrants have long engendered debates about the boundaries of belonging with some singing their praises and others warning of their dangers In particular the 11 million unauthorized immigrants in the country provoke heated disagreements with issues of legality and morality at the forefront Increasingly such debates take place online by organizations in the immigrant rights and the immigration control movements who engage in symbolic work that includes blurring crossing maintaining solidifying and shifting the boundaries of belonging Based on data collected from 29 national level groups this book features a cultural sociological analysis of the online materials deployed by social movement organizations debating immigration in the United States

Children of Migrants in China Kam Wing Chan, Yuan Ren, 2020-11-25 Children are precious in China especially as its population ages rapidly The unprecedented fast urbanization and massive internal migration have profoundly changed almost every aspect of society They have impacted the livelihood of children of migrants most Because of the hukou system and related policies China's internal migrants face major obstacles to assimilate into cities But more than that as this book shows these policies have also torn families apart on a scale unseen heretofore More than 100 million children grow up in unstable families and the great majority have suffered from prolonged separation from their parents in the migratory upheaval This book provides an updated analysis of this mega and painful process unfolding at various geographical scales The chapters revolve around the central notion of family togetherness or the lack thereof The book measures dissects and analyses the impacts of migration on children and recommends policies to address major problems from a variety of disciplinary perspectives employing different methodologies The problems faced by the children of migrants remain enormous and it is a looming huge crisis in the making If unaddressed those problems can damage a whole generation with serious consequences The chapters in this book were first published in Eurasian Geography and Economics

Research Handbook on the Belt and Road Initiative Chinyong Liow, Joseph, Liu, Hong, Xue, Gong, 2021-10-26 This timely Research Handbook investigates the radically transformative impact of the Belt and Road Initiative BRI addressing key questions regarding its economic political and strategic consequences what does the Chinese government hope to achieve with the BRI How have recipient states responded And what are its potential opportunities and risks

Asymmetric Crisis in Europe and Possible Futures Johannes Jäger, Elisabeth Springler, 2015-04-10 The crisis in Europe is often discussed as a crisis of European integration or a crisis of national economies within Europe Both the methodological Europeanism and methodological nationalism miss out the important links between economic and political processes at different spatial scales within Europe and therefore asymmetries and phenomena of uneven development In addition a discussion of possible scenarios which systematically addresses the implications of anti crisis policies is missing This volume seeks to close this gap by systematically integrating the analysis of economic policy or technical solutions to the crisis within a broader framework of political economy It argues that combining critical political economy approaches and post Keynesian perspectives allows for a systematic understanding of the economic and political dimensions of the crisis Although both approaches have the capacity to deal with asymmetries and uneven development the heterogeneity in Europe has been an often largely neglected dimension of analysis However this recent crisis has shown that this is an essential dimension which has to be addressed in order to better understand the dynamics of European development and integration Hence this book aims to deal with asymmetries in Europe and to bridge the gap between the two perspectives This work will initiate an integrative debate that is crucial for a deeper understanding of the current crisis and is an important resource for all students and scholars of IPE European political economy and European politics

Propaganda and Ideology in the Russian-Ukrainian War Jon Roozenbeek,2024-05-23 The first analysis and history of Russian propaganda in Ukraine how it works and its key weaknesses

Defense Technological Innovation Bharat Rao,Adam J. Harrison,Bala Mulloth,2020-05-29 Defense Technological Innovation describes the emerging paradigm for innovation at the US Department of Defense and the consequent impacts on its stakeholders Leveraging a combination of prior research archival data first person observations and interviews the authors identify practices and themes characterizing the key trends in defense innovation describe current organizational approaches and practices and develop a theoretical framework that elucidates the competencies required to underwrite defense innovation objectives The findings therein are relevant to any large technology driven organization contending with the implications of rapid change in the high tech landscape

The African Metropolis Toyin Falola,Bisola Falola,2017-08-07 On a planet where urbanization is rapidly expanding nowhere is the growth more pronounced than in cities of the global South and in particular Africa African metropolises are harbingers of the urban challenges that lie ahead as societies grapple with the fractured social economic and political relations forming within these new often mega cities The African Metropolis integrates geographical and historical perspectives to examine how processes of segregation marginalization resilience and resistance are shaping cities across Africa spanning from Nigeria and Ghana to Kenya Ethiopia and South Africa The chapters pay particular attention to the voices and daily realities of those most vulnerable to urban transformations and to questions such as Who governs Who should the city serve Who has a right to the city And how can the built spaces and contentious legacies of colonialism and prior development regimes be inclusively reconstructed In addition to highlighting critical contemporary debates the book furthers our ability to examine the transformations taking place in cities of the global South providing detailed accounts of local complexities while also generating insights that can scale up and across to similar cities around the world This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African Studies urban development and human geography

Assembling Bus Rapid Transit in the Global South Malve Jacobsen,2020-12-13 This book explores the mobile ethnography of Dar es Salaam where consultants and politicians have planned and implemented a bus rapid transit BRT system for two decades It analyses the dual processes of assembling BRT in the Tanzanian metropolis and establishing BRT as a policy model of and for the Global South The book elucidates how policy models are constructed and circulated around the globe and depicts the processes by which they are translated between and materialise within specific contexts It presents the case of BRT to demonstrate how technocrats shape these processes through persuasive work aimed at disseminating and stabilising this transport model and how local actors influence its adaptation in Dar es Salaam The book adopts a double mobility approach to show how this ethnography follows travelling consultants circulating policies and moving buses to explore the fluidity of the BRT model Linking key debates in policy mobility studies and Science and Technology Studies enriched with postcolonial perspectives and geographies of transport and infrastructure it offers new insights into the technopolitics of planning and implementing infrastructure systems This book will appeal to academics and students of human geography transport studies science and technology studies and African and development studies interested in the technopolitics of transport planning

Geographies of Displacement/s Kendra Strauss,2023-05-29 This book assembles cutting edge contemporary research and thinking on multiple forms and meanings of displacements and their geographies patterns of shifting dislocation or putting out of place substitutions of one idea for another or the unconscious transfer of intense feelings or emotions activities occurring outside their normal context and replacements of one thing by another The COVID 19 pandemic declared by the World Health Organization in 2020 produced new displacements and intensified existing patterns of displacement and dispossession At the same time socionatural displacements floods fires droughts hurricanes sea level rise species loss and dislocation were the backdrop to the displaced and deferred hopes of the 2021 United Nations Climate Change Conference The chapters in this volume contend with how we as geographers conceptualize and theorize displacements the range of sites spaces processes affects scales and actors we study with to understand them and what is at stake politically in how we research displacements

It is also a pandemic archive of academic labor in which we find traces of displacements within and beyond the academic discipline of geography. Geographies of Displacement s will be of particular interest to students, scholars and researchers of Geography including those interested in human geography, socio-natural displacements and the politics of migration and displacement. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Annals of the American Association of Geographers.

Raced Markets Lisa Tilley, Robbie Shilliam, 2021-05-30. Despite rich archives of work on race and the global economy, most notably by scholars of colour and Global South intellectuals, the discipline of Political Economy has largely avoided an honest confrontation with how race works within the domains it studies, not least within markets. By way of corrective, this book draws together scholarship on the material function of race at various scales in the global political economy. The collective provocation of the contributors to this volume is that race has been integral to the formation of capitalism, as extensively laid out by the racial capitalism literature, and takes on new forms in the novel market spaces of neoliberalism. The chapters within this volume also reinforce that the current political conjuncture, marked by the ascension of neo-fascist power, cannot be defined by an exceptional intrusion of racism, nor can its racism be dismissed as epiphenomenal. Raced Markets will be of great value to scholars, students and researchers interested in political economy and racial capitalism, as well as those willing to explore how race takes on new forms in the novel market spaces of contemporary neoliberalism. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the New Political Economy.

Origination Andy Pike, 2015-06-02. Origination: The Geographies of Brands and Branding offers innovative theoretical and conceptual frameworks relating to the ways that actors create meaning and value in commodity brands and branding through processes of geographical association. Provides innovative conceptualization and theorization to facilitate an understanding of the geographical dimensions of brands and branding. Challenges current interpretations of brands as vehicles of homogenization in globalization. Establishes the theoretical and conceptual foundations of a more geographically sensitive approach through rigorous empirical examination of the under-researched geographical differentiation of commodity brands and branding. Presents innovative new research and analysis of the socio-spatial biographies of the Newcastle Brown Ale, Burberry and Apple brands. Forges strong new connections between political and cultural economy approaches within geography. Provides a distinctive and incisive conceptual and theoretical framework capable of engaging other branded commodities and their branding in other times and places.

The Empirical and Institutional Dimensions of Smart Specialisation Philip McCann, Frank van Oort, John Goddard, 2016-11-25. Smart specialisation is the new policy approach to the development of regional innovation systems across Europe and it involves fostering innovative and entrepreneurial initiatives which are well tailored to the local context. The different technologies, skills, profiles, business activities, institutions and sectors which reflect a region's economic strengths and potential are to be fostered and encouraged to diversify in ways which also exploit the region's linkages with broader global value chains. Yet the ideas contained in the smart specialisation agenda have until now been primarily conceptual in nature The Empirical and Institutional Dimensions of Smart Specialisation draws together some of the leading regional economists and scientists in Europe to analyse how smart specialisation is working in practice This book investigates different dimensions of the agenda as it is developing across parts of Europe from both quantitative and qualitative perspectives The quantitative analysis examines the nature of the diversification processes undertaken by regions and the interplay between the chosen local regional development priorities and the wider global value chain impacts of these choices Meanwhile the qualitative analysis examines the institutional opportunities and challenges facing policy makers and the key elements most likely to provide the underpinnings of a workable set of policy settings The book is aimed both at academic researchers interested in the interface between economic geography and regional innovation systems as well as at policy makers making public policy decisions related to regional development at the local city regional or national levels

Land Fictions D. Asher Ghertner, Robert W. Lake, 2021-03-15 Land Fictions explores the common storylines narratives and tales of social betterment that justify and enact land as commodity It interrogates global patterns of property formation the dispossessions property markets enact and the popular movements to halt the growing waves of evictions and land grabs This collection brings together original research on urban rural and peri urban India rapidly urbanizing China and Southeast Asia resource expropriation in Africa and Latin America and the neoliberal urban landscapes of North America and Europe Through a variety of perspectives Land Fictions finds resonances between local stories of land s fictional powers and global visions of landed property s imagined power to automatically create value and advance national development Editors D Asher Ghertner and Robert W Lake unpack the dynamics of land commodification across a broad range of political spatial and temporal settings exposing its simultaneously contingent and collective nature The essays advance understanding of the politics of land while also contributing to current debates on the intersections of local and global urban and rural and general and particular Contributors Erik Harms Michael Watts Sai Balakrishnan Brett Christophers David Ferring Sarah Knuth Meghan Morris Benjamin Teresa Mi Shih Michael Levien Michael L Dwyer Heather Whiteside

Libya in the Arab Spring Ramazan Erdağ, 2017-03-22 By examining Libya s security architecture before and after the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO intervention in 2011 this book aims to answer three questions First what were the security patterns in Libya within the Middle East security complex before the Arab Spring Second to what extent did the Arab Spring and the revolution and intervention processes in Libya affect this security architecture And third what are the implications of the Libyan revolution and the NATO intervention on regional security and on the security sub complexes of the Middle East in the post Arab Spring era The author addresses these issues by providing a micro level analysis of amity enmity patterns power distribution and external power interests

Muslims and Political Participation in Britain Timothy Peace, 2015-05-01 This new volume showcases the latest research into Muslim political participation both in terms of electoral politics and civil society initiatives Muslims play a prominent role in British political life yet what do we actually know about the involvement of British Muslims beyond the existence of a handful of Muslim MPs What is unique about political participation in Muslim communities All the major parties actively seek to court a Muslim electorate but does such a phenomenon exist Despite the impact that Muslims have had on election campaigns and their roles in various political institutions research on this topic remains scant Indeed much of the existing work was couched within the broader areas of the participation of ethnic minorities or the impact of race on electoral politics The chapters in this volume address this lacuna by highlighting different aspects of Muslim participation in British politics They investigate voting patterns and election campaigns civil society and grassroots political movements the engagement of young people and the participation of Muslims in formal political institutions Written in an accessible style this book will be of interest to students and scholars of political participation and religious studies

Networks and Geographies of Global Social Policy Diffusion Michael

Windzio,Ivo Mossig,Fabian Besche-Truthe,Helen Seitzer,2021-11-24 This open access book analyses the global diffusion of social policy as a process driven by multiplex ties between countries in global social networks The contributions analyze links between countries via global trade colonial history similarity in culture and spatial proximity Networks are viewed as the structural backbone of the diffusion process and diffusion is analysed via several subfields of social policy in order to interrogate which network dimensions drive this process The focus is on a global perspective of social policy diffusion via networks and it is the first book to explicitly follow this macro quantitative perspective on diffusion at a global scale whilst also comparing different networks The collection tests the network structures in terms of their relevance to the diffusion process in different subfields of social policy such as old age and survivor pensions labor and labor markets health and long term care education and training and family and gender policy The book will therefore be invaluable to students and researchers of global social policy sociology political science international relations organization theory and economics
