A Geography of Jihad Stephanie Zehnle, 2020-01-20 This book addresses the Jihad movement that created the largest African state of the 19th century the Sokoto Caliphate existing for 99 years from 1804 until its military defeat by European colonial troops in 1903 The author carves out the entanglements of jihadist ideology and warfare with geographical concepts at Africa's periphery of the Islamic world geographical knowledge about the boundary between the Land of Islam and the Land of War the pre colonial construction of the Muslim and the unbeliever and the transfer of ideas between political elites and mobile actors traders pilgrims slaves soldiers whose reports helped shape new definitions of the African frontier of Islam Research for this book is based on the study of a very wide range of Arabic and West African Hausa Fulfulde manuscripts Their policies reveal the persistent reciprocity of jihadist warfare and territorial statehood of Africa and the Middle East Stephanie Zehnle is Assistant Professor JProf of Extra European History at Kiel University Christian Albrechts Universität Her work on African and trans continental history includes research on the history of Islam human animal relations and comics in Africa

Lands of the Future Echi Christina Gabbert, Fana Gebresenbet, John G. Galaty, Günther Schlee, 2021-01-15 Rangeland forests and riverine landscapes of pastoral communities in Eastern Africa are increasingly under threat Abetted by states who think that outsiders can better use the lands than the people who have lived there for centuries outside commercial interests have displaced indigenous dwellers from pastoral territories This volume presents case studies from Eastern Africa based on long term field research that vividly illustrate the struggles and strategies of those who face dispossession and also discredit ideological false modernist tropes like backwardness and primitiveness

Matter of North Brent Wetters, Anthony Cushing, 2025-07-01 Documents and illuminates Glenn Gould's groundbreaking radio composition The Idea of North Matter of North collects essays and source material related to Glenn Gould's landmark 1967 radio documentary The Idea of North The most famous product other than his studio piano recordings of Gould's 1964 decision to abandon the concert stage for the recording studio it combines Gould's interests in the contrapuntal by the simultaneous layering of speaking voices with philosophy and a life long fascination with the Canadian Arctic Because the documentary is a multivalent work the contributors approach the documentary from unique perspectives sociological philosophical music theoretical ethnomusicological each illuminating a salient aspect of the work The source material section includes for the first time the complete interview responses by Gould's five participants along with other important documentation

Assembling Bus Rapid Transit in the Global South Malve Jacobsen, 2020-12-13 This book explores the mobile ethnography of Dar es Salaam where consultants and politicians have planned and implemented a bus rapid transit BRT system for two decades It analyses the dual processes of assembling BRT in the Tanzanian metropolis and establishing BRT as a policy model of and for the Global South The book elucidates how policy models are constructed and circulated around the globe and depicts the processes by which they are translated between and materialise within specific contexts It presents the case of BRT to demonstrate how technocrats shape these processes through persuasive work aimed at disseminating and stabilising this transport model and how local actors influence its adaptation in Dar es Salaam The book adopts a double mobility approach to show how this ethnography follows travelling consultants circulating policies and moving buses to explore the fluidity of the BRT model Linking key debates in policy mobility studies and Science and Technology Studies enriched with postcolonial perspectives and geographies of transport and infrastructure it offers new insights into the technopolitics of planning and implementing infrastructure systems This book will appeal to academics and students of human geography transport studies science and technology studies and African and development studies interested in the technopolitics of transport planning Designing Peace Neophytos Loizides, 2016-01-08 Why do some societies choose to adopt federal settlements in the face of acute ethnic conflict while others do not Neophytos Loizides examines how acrimoniously divided Cyprus could reunify by adopting a federal and consociational arrangement inspiring similar attempts in its region Loizides asserts that institutional innovation is key in designing peace processes Analyzing power sharing in Northern Ireland the return of displaced persons in Bosnia and the preparatory mandate referendum in South Africa he shows how divided societies have implemented novel solutions despite conditions that initially seemed prohibitive Turning to Cyprus he chronicles the breakthrough that led to the exhumations of the missing after 2003 and observes that a society's choice of narratives and institutions can overcome structural constraints While Loizides points to the relative absence of successful federal and consociational arrangements among societies evolving from the post Ottoman space he argues that neither elites nor broader societies in the region must be held hostages to the past To effect lasting and positive change Loizides encourages stakeholders in divided societies to be prepared to identify redesign and implement innovative new institutions Examining successful peace mediations and identifying the shared experience and commonalities between Cyprus and other divided societies promises not only to inform the tackling of the Cyprus problem but also to provide transferable knowledge with broader implications for the fields of peace studies and conflict resolution The Populist Temptation Barry Eichengreen, 2018-05-03 Populism of the right and left has spread like wildfire throughout the world The impulse reached its apogee in the United States with the election of Trump but it was a force in Europe ever since the Great Recession sent the European economy into a prolonged tailspin In the simplest terms populism is a political ideology that vilifies economic and political elites and instead lionizes the people The people populists of all stripes contend need to retake power from the unaccountable elites who have left them powerless And typically populists distrust of elites shades into a catchall distrust of trained experts because of their perceived distance from and contempt for the people Another signature element of populist movements is faith in a savior who can not only speak directly to the people but also serve as a vessel for the plain people's hopes and dreams Going back to the 1890s a series of such saviors have come and gone in the US alone from William Jennings Bryan to Huey Long to finally Donald Trump In The Populist Temptation the eminent economic historian Barry Eichengreen focuses on the global resurgence of populism today and places it in a deep context Alternating between the present and earlier populist waves from modern history he argues that populists tend to thrive most in the wake of economic downturns when it is easy to convince the masses of elite malfeasance Yet while there is more than a grain of truth that bankers financiers and bought politicians are responsible for the mess populists own solutions tend to be simplistic and economically counterproductive Moreover by arguing that the ordinary people are at the mercy of extra national forces beyond their control international capital immigrants cosmopolitan globalists populists often degenerate into demagoguery and xenophobia There is no one solution to addressing the concerns that populists raise but Eichengreen argues that there is an obvious place to start shoring up and improving the welfare state so that it is better able to act as a buffer for those who suffer most during economic slumps For example America s patchwork welfare state was not well equipped to deal with the economic fallout that attended globalization and the decline of manufacturing in America and that played no small part in Trump s victory Lucidly explaining both the appeals and dangers of populism across history this book is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand not just the populist phenomenon but more generally the lasting political fallout that follows in the wake of major economic crises

Food Words Peter Jackson,2013-06-27 Food Words is a series of provocative essays on some of the most important keywords in the emergent field of food studies focusing on current controversies and on going debates Words like choice and convenience are often used as explanatory terms in understanding consumer behavior but are clearly ideological in the way they reflect particular positions and serve specific interests while words like taste and value are no less complex and contested Inspired by Raymond Williams Food Words traces the multiple meanings of each of our keywords tracking nuances in different academic commercial and policy contexts Mapping the dynamic meanings of each term the book moves forward from critical assessment to active intervention an attitude that is reflected in the lively sometimes combative style of the essays Each essay is research based and fully referenced but accessible to the general reader With a foreword by eminent food scholar Warren Belasco Professor of American Studies at the University of Maryland Baltimore County and written by an inter disciplinary team associated with the CONANX research project Consumer culture in an age of anxiety Food Words will be essential reading for food scholars across the arts humanities and social sciences

Travel, Travel Writing, and British Political Economy Brian P. Cooper,2021-11-10 The book draws on the history of economics literary theory and the history of science to explore how European travelers like Alexander von Humboldt and their readers circa 1750 1850 adapted the work of British political economists such as Adam Smith to help organize their observations and in turn how political economists used travelers observations in their own analyses Cooper examines journals letters books art and critical reviews to cast in sharp relief questions raised about political economy by contemporaries over the status of facts and evidence whether its principles admitted of universal application and the determination of wealth value and happiness in different societies Travelers citing T R Malthus s population principle blurred the gendered boundaries between domestic economy and British political economy as embodied in the idealized subjects domestic woman and economic man The book opens new realms in the histories of science in its analyses of debates about gender in social scientific observation Maria Edgeworth Maria Graham and Harriet Martineau observe a role associated with women and methodically interpret what they observe an act reserved in theory by men The EU's Eastern

Neighbourhood Ilkka Liikanen,James W. Scott,Tiina Sotkasiira,2016-07-01 The collapse of the Soviet Union has had profound and long lasting impacts on the societies of Eastern Europe the South Caucasus and Central Asia impacts which are not yet fully worked through changes in state society relations a comprehensive reconfiguration of political economic and social ties the resurgence of regional conflicts frozen during the Soviet period and new migration patterns both towards Russia and the European Union At the same time the EU has emerged as an important player in the region formulating its European Neighbourhood Policy and engaging neighbouring states in a process of cross border regional co operation This book explores a wide range of complex and contested questions related to borders security and migration in the emerging European Neighbourhood which includes countries of the Caucasus and Central Asia as well as the countries which immediately border the EU Issues discussed include new forms of regional and cross border co operation new patterns of migration and the potential role of the EU as a stabilizing external force Protection and Empire Lauren Benton,Adam

Clulow,Bain Attwood,2017-11-02 For five centuries protection has provided a basic currency for organising relations between polities Protection underpinned sprawling tributary systems permeated networks of long distance trade reinforced claims of royal authority in distant colonies and structured treaties Empires made routine use of protection as they extended their influence projecting authority over old and new subjects forcing weaker parties to pay them for safe conduct and sometimes paying for it themselves The result was a fluid politics that absorbed both the powerful and the weak while giving rise to institutions and jurisdictional arrangements with broad geographic scope and influence This volume brings together leading scholars to trace the long history of protection across empires in Asia Africa Australasia Europe and the Americas Employing a global lens it offers an innovative way of understanding the formation and growth of empires and uncovers new dimensions of the relation of empires to regional and global order India China L.H.M. Ling,Adriana Erthal Abdenur,Payal

Banerjee,Nimmi Kurian,Mahendra P. Lama,Li Bo,2021-03-11 Challenging the Westphalian view of international relations which focuses on the sovereignty of states and the inevitable potential for conflict the authors from the Borderlands Study Group reconceive borders as capillaries enabling the flow of material cultural and social benefits through local communities nation states and entire regions By emphasizing local agency and regional interdependencies this metaphor reconfigures current narratives about the China India border and opens a new perspective on the long history of the Silk Roads the modern BCIM Initiative and dam construction along the Nu River in China and the Teesta River in India Together the authors show that positive interaction among people on both sides of a border generates larger cross border communities which can pressure for cooperation and development India China offers the hope that people divided by arbitrary geo political boundaries can circumvent race gender class religion and other social barriers to form more inclusive institutions and forms of governance

Single Mothers in Twentieth-century Ireland and Britain Lorraine Grimes, 2025-08-21 Throughout the Twentieth Century many women in Ireland and Britain endured shame and institutionalisation for becoming pregnant outside of marriage In this welcome study Lorraine Grimes examines the journeys made by hundreds of pregnant Irish women to Britain as they fled to escape their local communities Their experiences in Britain however were not free of stigma and Grimes s book analyses the nuances of the institutional networks both in Britain and Ireland which these women utilised Single Mothers in Twentieth Century Ireland and Britain focuses on the experiences of women from 1926 1973 in cities with high Irish emigrant populations including London Liverpool Birmingham and Glasgow Unlike official narratives such as Ireland s Commission of Investigation into the Mother and Baby Homes this book prioritises the experiences of the survivors and ensure that women s experiences are central to the narrative It also incorporates original interviews with children born in institutions and for the first time interviews with religious and medical staff are also included in the historiography Using archival research and oral history Grimes reveals the methods British and Irish institutions developed from forced adoption to repatriation and the impacts of this on the women and children s lives Grimes makes a significant contribution to the historiography surrounding the movement of women and children across international borders through repatriation and adoption between institutions on both sides of the Irish Sea From extensive archival research this book reveals cases of Irish single mothers seeking assistance in Britain as well as cases of rape incest and domestic violence within the institutional records In addition archival cases expose prejudice towards women from other colonial countries in institutions in Britain particularly from the 1960s A first for the field Single Mothers includes a chapter on the experiences of single fathers Sensitive to the underlying issues of class and gender politics the book also shows that women often enacted a large degree of agency to improve their situation If you are interested in women s political and social history and the history of the institutional relationships of Britain and Ireland this book is essential reading

Security after Christendom John Heathershaw,2024-02-13 We live in the wealthiest and most heavily defended world in history so why do we feel so insecure In a secular world what does Christian theology have to say about this problem Security after Christendom combines practical examples social scientific research and an ecumenical approach to political theology to answer these questions It argues that Christendom was a plural phenomenon of imagined security communities of East and West whose unravelling continues to have implications for global politics today as dramatically illustrated by Russia s war in Ukraine While notions of a new Christendom are idolatrous and delusional secular imaginaries of national security or the liberal international order are both destructive and unstable True security radical inclusion nonviolent protection and abundant provision is an eschatological phenomenon inaugurated by Christ Security after Christendom is neither found in faithful government nor an exclusive church as polis approach but in relations of tension where the fallen powers are continuously confronted by prophetic practices A post Christendom community expresses its love for the world by seeking its security providentially limiting the disorders of the secular age and offering glimmers of a new earth
