Connections Jean Hillier, Jonathan Metzger, 2017-05-15
The professional practice as well as the academic discipline of planning has been fundamentally re invented all over the world in recent decades In this astonishing transition the thinking and scholarship of Patsy Healey appears as a constantly recurring influence and inspiration around the globe The purpose of this book is to present discuss and celebrate Healey s seminal contributions to the development of the theory and practice of spatial planning The volume contains a selection of 13 less readily available but nevertheless key texts by Healey which have been selected to represent the trajectory of Patsy s work across the several decades of her research career 12 original chapters by a wide range of invited contributors take the ideas in the reprinted papers as points of departure for their own work tracing out their continuing relevance for contemporary and future directions in planning scholarship In doing so these chapters tease out the themes and interests in Healey s work which are still highly relevant to the planning project The title Connections symbolises relationality possibly the most outstanding element linking Patsy s ideas The book showcases the wide international influence of Patsy s work and celebrates the whole trajectory of work to show how many of her ideas on for instance the role of theory in planning processes of change networking as a mode of governance how ideas spread and ways of thinking planning democratically were ahead of their time and are still of importance

The Road to Unfreedom Timothy Snyder, 2019-04-09 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER From the author of On Tyranny comes a stunning new chronicle of the rise of authoritarianism from Russia to Europe and America A brilliant analysis of our time Karl Ove Knausgaard The New Yorker With the end of the Cold War the victory of liberal democracy seemed final Observers declared the end of history confident in a peaceful globalized future This faith was misplaced Authoritarianism returned to Russia as Vladimir Putin found fascist ideas that could be used to justify rule by the wealthy In the 2010s it has spread from east to west aided by Russian warfare in Ukraine and cyberwar in Europe and the United States Russia found allies among nationalists oligarchs and radicals everywhere and its drive to dissolve Western institutions states and values found resonance within the West itself The rise of populism the British vote against the EU and the election of Donald Trump were all Russian goals but their achievement reveals the vulnerability of Western societies In this forceful and unsparing work of contemporary history based on vast research as well as personal reporting Snyder goes beyond the headlines to expose the true nature of the threat to democracy and law To understand the challenge is to see and perhaps renew the fundamental political virtues offered by tradition and demanded by the future By revealing the stark choices before us between equality or oligarchy individuality or totality truth and falsehood Snyder restores our understanding of the basis of our way of life offering a way forward in a time of terrible uncertainty

Muslim Fashion Reina Lewis, 2015-10-15 In the shops of London's Oxford Street girls wear patterned scarves over their hair as they cluster around makeup counters Alongside them hip twenty somethings style their head wraps in high black topknots to match their black boot cut trousers Participating in the world of popular mainstream fashion often thought to be the domain of the West these young Muslim women are part of an emergent cross faith transnational youth subculture of modest fashion In treating hijab and other forms of modest clothing as fashion Reina Lewis counters the overuse of images of veiled women as evidence in the prevalent suggestion that Muslims and Islam are incompatible with Western modernity Muslim Fashion contextualizes modest wardrobe styling within Islamic and global consumer cultures interviewing key players including designers bloggers shoppers store clerks and shop owners Focusing on Britain North America and Turkey Lewis provides insights into the ways young Muslim women use multiple fashion systems to negotiate religion identity and ethnicity

The War Lawyers Craig Jones, 2020-11-26 Over the last 20 years the world's most advanced militaries have invited a small number of military legal professionals into the heart of their targeting operations spaces which had previously been exclusively for generals and commanders These professionals trained and hired to give legal advice on an array of military operations have become known as war lawyers The War Lawyers examines the laws of war as applied by military lawyers to aerial targeting operations carried out by the US military in Iraq and Afghanistan and the Israel military in Gaza Drawing on interviews with military lawyers and others this book explains why some lawyers became integrated in the chain of command whereby military targets are identified and attacked whether by manned aircraft drones and or ground forces and with what results This book shows just how important law and military lawyers have become in the conduct of contemporary warfare and how it is understood Jones argues that circulations of law and policy between the US and Israel have bolstered targeting practices considered legally questionable contending that the involvement of war lawyers in targeting operations enables legitimises and sometimes even extends military violence

Advances in Biographical Methods Maggie O'Neill, Brian Roberts, Andrew Sparkes, 2014-12-05 Rooted in a long and diverse genealogy biographical approaches have developed from a focus upon a single story a life story and personal documents e.g diaries to encompass more routinely autobiographical secondary and archival research and analysis as well as multi media arts based creative multi sensory methods Biographical Research and practices as part of human understanding helps people to make sense of what has been and what is happening in their lives cultures communities and societies Advances in Biographical Methods Creative Applications takes up these themes theorising doing and applying current advances in biographical methods It demonstrates the momentum with which they areas are developing as a field of scholarship especially in relation to creative innovations and applications such as in new forms of interview and other practices and debates on its interlinking with art performance and digital methods The Uneven Offshore World Justin Robertson, Michael Tyralla, 2022-03-24 Informed by world systems analysis this book examines the shifting patterns of accommodation and resistance to the offshore world with a particular focus on Mauritius as a critical but underappreciated offshore node mediating foreign investment into India and Africa Drawing on a large pool of financial data and elite interviews the authors present the first detailed comparative study of the Mauritius India and Mauritius Africa offshore relationships These relationships serve as indicative test cases of the contemporary global tax reform agenda and its promise to rein in offshore finance Whereas India's economic power and multilateral track record have enabled it to actively shape this agenda and implement it in a robust manner most African countries have found themselves either unable to meet its stringent criteria or unwilling to do so out of fear that it might discourage investment Its impact on offshore financial centers has likewise been limited A few of the least sophisticated ones appear to have fallen by the wayside but the rest have either remained largely unaffected or like Mauritius succeeded in consolidating their operations and surviving the current round of regulatory headwinds The findings suggest that the contemporary global tax reform agenda has thus far not only failed to make good on its promise but also actually reinforced numerous existing power hierarchies The Uneven Offshore World is written in an accessible style and aimed at readers without specialized knowledge of tax issues The World-Literary System and the Atlantic Sorcha Gunne, Neil Lazarus, 2020-12-30 The World Literary System and the Atlantic grapples with key questions about how American studies and the Atlantic region in general engages with new considerations of literary comparativism international literary space and the world literary system The edited collection furthers these discussions by placing them into a relationship with the theory of combined and uneven development a theory that has a long pedigree in Marxist sociology and political economy and that continues to stimulate debate across the social sciences but whose implications for culture have received less attention Drawing on the comparative modes concepts and methods being developed in the new world literary studies the essays cover a diverse range of topics such as the periodization of world literature racism and the world system singular modernity critical realism commodity frontiers semi peripherality and world ecology The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Atlantic Studies

Locating Value Samantha Saville, Gareth Hoskins, 2019-11-21 This book considers the concept of value at the root of our actions and decision making Value is an ever present yet little interrogated aspect of everyday life This book explores value as it is theorised practiced and critiqued from a variety of disciplinary perspectives It examines how value is operationalized endorsed and contested in contemporary society With international insights from leading scholars chapters offer a diverse and vibrant geographical engagement with value to showcase its conceptual flexibility The book explores value's eclectic epistemic foundations its roll out and legitimation across a range of policy fields and its challenges and opportunities The book draws on global examples of value in practice from forest conservation in Indonesia protected area management in arctic Norway a state park in the US certification schemes for biodiversity in the UK protection of the international night sky heritage planning in East Taiwan a re developed airport site in Norway a local food networks in Canada and the UK a market in the US and urban development in China The book will be of interest to human geographers political ecologists heritage scholars and practitioners planners and those working in public policy as well as practitioners and policy makers interested in how valuation processes work

Incomplete Streets Stephen Zavestoski, Julian Agyeman, 2014-08-27 The Complete Streets concept and movement in urban planning and policy has been hailed by many as a revolution that aims to challenge the auto normative paradigm by reversing the broader effects of an urban form shaped by the logic of keeping automobiles moving By enabling safe access for all users Complete Streets promise to make cities more walkable and livable and at the same time more sustainable This book problematizes the Complete Streets concept by suggesting that streets should not be thought of as merely physical spaces but as symbolic and social spaces When important social and symbolic narratives are missing from the discourse and practice of Complete Streets what actually results are incomplete streets The volume questions whether the ways in which complete streets narratives policies plans and efforts are envisioned and implemented might be systematically reproducing many of the urban spatial and social inequalities and injustices that have characterized cities for the last century or more From critiques of a mobility bias rooted in the neoliberal foundations of the Complete Streets concept to concerns about resulting environmental gentrification the chapters in Incomplete Streets variously call for planning processes that give voice to the historically marginalized and more broadly that approach streets as dynamic fluid and public social places This interdisciplinary book is aimed at students researchers and professionals in the fields of urban geography environmental studies urban planning and policy transportation planning and urban sociology

Disaster Research and the Second Environmental Crisis James Kendra, Scott G. Knowles, Tricia Wachtendorf, 2019-04-04 The 50th anniversary of the Disaster Research Center of the University of Delaware provoked a discussion of the field s background its accomplishments and its future directions Participants representing many disciplines brought new methods to bear on perennial problems relevant to effective disaster management and policy formation However new concerns were raised stemming from the fact that we live today in a globally unfolding environmental crisis every bit as pressing and worrisome as that of the 1960s when the Disaster Research center was founded This volume brings together ideas of participants from that workshop as well as other contributors Topics include the history and evolution of disaster research innovations in disaster management disaster policy and ethical considerations of disaster research Readers interested in science and technology public policy community action and the evolution of the social sciences will find much of interest in this collection

The Internet as Second Action Space Aharon Kellerman, 2014-07-11 One of the most significant and important advancements in information and communication technology over the past 20 years is the introduction and expansion of the Internet Now almost universally available the Internet brings us email global voice and video communications research repositories reference libraries and almost unlimited opportunities for daily activities Bridging geographical distances in unprecedented ways the Internet has impacted all aspects of our daily lives from facilitating the running of businesses the attainment of services and keeping in touch with friends and family Accessible at any time and for many of us from our mobile phones the Internet has opened up a world of knowledge and communication platforms that we cannot now imagine living without This book explores the concept that the Internet has become a second action space for individuals Coexisting with traditional and obvious real space the Internet serves as a novel spatial platform and action space to its subscribers all over the world Kellerman expertly discusses this notion and examines the practical integration of cyberspace with real space Part I examines the Internet as a platform for action and presents its relations with physical space concerning a range of uses and applications which were traditionally performed in physical space only It discusses the idea that the Internet has become a second space and explores theoretical perspectives surrounding this notion The Internet has undeniably made humankind more efficient and connected Part II explores the Internet as an action space for human life considering basic human needs curiosity identity and social relations It further considers instances whereby use and application of the Internet cannot be fully performed in real space mainly regarding people s presentation of identity Part III explores daily actions over the Internet such as work shopping banking and social interactions Kellerman also briefly touches on the darker aspects that the expansion of the Internet has made possible including its role in fraud and other crimes The concluding chapter discusses people living across the two spaces and identifies potential future developments The Internet as Second Actions Space will appeal to students across the social sciences in particular those studying Geography Sociology Media Studies Internet Studies Business and related disciplines

The One-Way Street of Integration Edward G. Goetz, 2018-03-15 The One Way Street of Integration examines two contrasting housing policy approaches to achieving racial justice Integration initiatives and community development efforts have been for decades contrasting means of achieving racial equity through housing policy Goetz traces the tensions involved in housing integration and policy to show why he doesn t see the solution to racial injustice as the government moving poor and nonwhite people out of their communities The One Way Street of Integration critiques fair housing integration policies for targeting settlement patterns while ignoring underlying racism and issues of economic and political power Goetz challenges liberal orthodoxy determining that the standard efforts toward integration are unlikely to lead to racial equity or racial justice in American cities In fact in this pursuit it is the community development movement rather than that has the greatest potential for connecting to social change and social justice efforts Yojana ,2014

Carceral Worlds Hanneke Stuit, Jennifer Turner, Julianne Weegels, 2024-07-25 We live a world in which the number of prisons is growing and experiences of incarceration are increasingly widespread Carceral Worlds offers a necessary and timely contribution to understanding these carceral realities of the globalized present The book asks how the carceral has become so central in life how it manifests in different geographical locations and finally what the likely consequences are of living in such a carceral world Carceral Worlds focuses on carceral practices experiences and imaginaries that reach far beyond traditional spaces of confinement It shows the lasting effects of colonial carceral heritage the influence of prison systems on city management and the entrapping nature of digital infrastructures It also discusses new urbanized forms of migrant detention the relation between prisons and homelessness the use of carceral metaphors in the everyday and the carceral implications of the uneven distribution of climate risk across the globe The volume brings together work from scholars across the world and from a variety of disciplines in the social sciences and humanities offering a fresh approach to the carceral as a central vector in modern life

Anti-Corruption and its Discontents Grant W. Walton, 2017-08-03 The fight against corruption is now a core part of development policy and practice Some call these efforts a war on corruption What does this so called war mean for developing countries And how do international perspectives on corruption relate to local and national concerns This book examines the relevance of anti corruption discourse in Papua New Guinea PNG one of the most culturally rich and corrupt countries on earth Despite increased international national and local efforts to address corruption over the past two decades many fear that levels of corruption continue to rise largely unabated Some believe that the mismatch between international national and local assumptions regarding the nature of corruption and how it should be addressed is at the heart of the issue International anti corruption initiatives stress zero tolerance and try to strengthen formal state based institutions However many people in PNG are more concerned about maintaining social relationships than following state laws and rules This book critically examines the implications of the anti corruption agenda and the collision of international national and local perspectives In doing so it provides a diagnostic on international assumptions about corruption and how it should be fought in developing countries offering surprising and important lessons This book is essential reading for scholars and students of Development Studies Geography Political Studies and Economics as well as practitioners and policy makers working in development

Resilience in the Pacific and the Caribbean Simon Hollis, 2020-10-26 This book critically examines the global diffusion and local reception of resilience through the implementation of Disaster Risk Reduction DRR programmes in Pacific and Caribbean island states Global efforts to strengthen local disaster resilience capacities have become a staple of international development activity in recent decades yet the successful implementation of DRR projects designed to strengthen local resilience remains elusive While there are pockets of success a gap remains between global expectations and local realities Through a critical realist study of global and local worldviews of resilience in the Pacific and Caribbean islands this book argues that the global advocacy of DRR remains inadequate because of a failure to prioritise a person orientated ethics in its conceptualization of disaster resilience This regional comparison provides a valuable lens to understand the underlying social structures that makes resilience possible and the extent to which local governments communities and persons interpret and modify their behaviour on risk when faced with the global message on resilience This book will be of much interest to students of resilience risk management development studies and area studies

Planning for an innovation district Sara Lawrence,Michael Hogan,Elizabeth Grace Brown,2019-02-13 Innovation districts are physical spaces that serve to strengthen the foundations and institutions of an innovation ecosystem The design implementation and management of formalized innovation districts is a new practice area Research draws upon the experience of concentrated areas of innovation that occurred organically such as Boston s Route 128 as well as intentional projects to bring together innovators in large science and technology parks such as North Carolina s Research Triangle Park Existing research focuses on how to define and design innovation districts and evaluate their impact as well as general policy considerations In this paper we review the definitions and benefits of an innovation district reviewing the existing empirical research on their impacts We then propose a series of questions to guide practitioners in addressing the economic physical social and governance elements of an innovation district Finally we outline some of the challenges in creating an innovation district and ways to measure progress to allow practitioners to get ahead of potential issues in the future This paper is intended to help policymakers and practitioners working in innovation and economic development translate the concepts of innovation ecosystems into actionable next steps for planning innovation districts in their communities

Remains of the Everyday Joshua Goldstein,2020-12-22 Remains of the Everyday traces the changing material culture and industrial ecology of China through the lens of recycling Over the last century waste recovery and secondhand goods markets have been integral to Beijing s economic functioning and cultural identity and acts of recycling have figured centrally in the ideological imagination of modernity and citizenship On the one hand the Chinese state has repeatedly promoted acts of voluntary recycling as exemplary of conscientious citizenship On the other informal recycling networks from the night soil carriers of the Republican era to the collectors of plastic and cardboard in Beijing s neighborhoods today have been represented as undisciplined polluting and technologically primitive due to the municipal government s failure to control them The result Joshua Goldstein argues is the repeatedly re inscribed exclusion of waste workers from formations of modern urban citizenship as well as the intrinsic liminality of recycling itself as an economic process
