Educational Assessment Christine Harrison, Constant Leung, David Pepper, 2023-10-19 This book explores and builds on the extraordinary work of Professor Paul Black across assessment and pedagogy across the curriculum including STEM humanities and social science subjects This book explores the influence that Black has had within educational settings focusing on interpretations of the work and scholarship he has achieved across a range of settings and on the ways scholars who have worked with him or been influenced by his ideas have developed their research and teaching The contributions are presented under three thematic sections each of which reflects a set of shared educational concerns and values drawing on the natural and social sciences and developments in public policy These concerns and values with their emphasis on teacher assessment provide a basis for a strategic informed and coherent response to challenges in education such as the cancellation of public examinations in the face of the Covid 19 pandemic Revolutionizing K-12 Blended Learning through the i²Flex Classroom Model Avgerinou, Maria D., Gialamas, Stefanos P., 2016-06-20 Blended learning has gained significant attention recently by educational leaders practitioners and researchers i Flex a variation of blended learning is based on the premise that certain non interactive teaching activities such as lecturing can take place by students without teachers direct involvement Classroom time can then be used for educational activities that fully exploit teacher student and student student interactions allowing for meaningful personalized feedback and scaffolding on demand Revolutionizing K 12 Blended Learning through the i Flex Classroom Model presents a well rounded discussion on the i Flex model highlighting methods for K 12 course design delivery and evaluation in addition to teacher performance assessment in a blended i Flex environment Emphasizing new methods for improving the classroom and learning experience in addition to preparing students for higher education and careers this publication is an essential reference source for pre service and in service teachers researchers administrators and educational technology developers A Research Agenda for Environmental

Geopolitics Shannon O'Lear, 2020-02-28 Challenging the mainstream view of the environment as either threatening or valuable this book considers how geographic knowledge can be applied to offer a more nuanced understanding Framed within geopolitics and using a range of methodologies the chapters encapsulate different approaches to demonstrate how selective forms of knowledge measurement and spatial focus both embody and stabilize power shaping how people perceive and respond to changing features of human environment interactions The Science IA Daniel Slosberg, 2016-02-17

Education Policy in England 2010-2024 Rebecca Morris, Thomas Perry, 2025-08-28 This text presents an informative overview of Conservative led education policy over the last 14 years The book provides a broad and detailed picture of the developing education landscape in England during this period highlighting the transformational and sometimes radical reforms that the country has seen Crucially the book draws together contributions from over 40 esteemed education researchers working in the UK The chapters showcase work from a range of experienced and early career researchers ensuring original thought provoking and evidence informed perspectives as we examine the impact of recent policy and explore how it might develop into the future Key thematic areas covered include Restructuring and governing the system Teaching policy practice and professionalism Confronting the challenges of inclusion and inequality Steering and transforming the curriculum and assessment This timely collection will interest students at all levels researchers education professionals and policymakers It sheds important light on this tumultuous era for education policy and will inform those interested in this area for years to come Education in a Federal UK John Furlong, Ingrid Lunt, 2019-10-23 Britain's two recent referenda on Brexit 2016 and on Scottish independence 2014 have raised in the public mind fundamental questions about the future of the UK It seems that for the first time the public the media and the political elite have woken up to the fact that in different parts of the UK there are different histories different aspirations and different imagined futures in relation to a whole range of vitally important political issues But what the public debate often fails to recognise is that in many areas of public life perhaps especially education the UK is already a federal state and in key respects has been so for many years The aim of this volume is therefore to take stock to try and capture what the current state of educational policy and practice is across the whole of the UK This has been achieved by commissioning two different papers from each of the four countries Wales Scotland Northern Ireland and England The first is an overview exploring the distinctive history principles and current policies of each country The second paper has been specifically chosen as a case study of a key policy that highlights the distinctiveness of each country the Foundation Phase for Wales assessment policy in Scotland shared education initiatives in Northern Ireland and higher education policy in England Taken together these eight papers give an important insight into the complexities of educational policy and practice across the whole of the UK today This volume was originally published as a special issue of Oxford Review of Education
