Working Paper, 1972 The Politics and Governance of Basic Education Brian Levy, Robert Cameron, Ursula Hoadley, Vinodhan Naidoo, 2018-09-05. This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 International licence. It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations. All over the world, economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse. A well-performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development, but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult. Access to education has increased, but quality remains low, with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation. The Politics and Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education. Using the vivid example of South Africa, a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy, it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes. By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals, it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making progress, combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re-orient the system towards learning. Working Paper - Bureau of the Census United States. Bureau of the Census, 1973 The Economic Record Douglas Berry Copland, 1978. Includes section Reviews Review Body on Senior Salaries Review Body on Senior Salaries, 2012-12-05. This report is a response to the Government's request to consider whether pay for very senior managers in the NHS in England should be made more market facing at local level. The review was complicated by the fact the NHS is currently undergoing reorganisation. The conclusions must therefore be subject to the caveat that better information is needed. Three recommendations however are put forward that no additional locality pay measures be added to the new NHS very senior managers pay framework that the Department of Health collect and provide information on recruitment retention and motivation of NHS very senior managers and that all NHS very senior managers be assimilated into and paid according to the new pay framework on the basis of job weight once the current reforms have been fully implemented.
