Stuart's Tarheels Chris J. Hartley,2011-08-10 When Confederate Major General J E B Stuart said North Carolina has done nobly in this army he had one of his own men to thank Brigadier General James Byron Gordon A protege of Stuart Gordon was the consummate nineteenth century landowner politician and businessman Despite a lack of military training he rose rapidly through the ranks and as the commander of all North Carolina cavalymen in the Army of Northern Virginia he helped bring unparalleled success to Stuart's famed Confederate cavalry This updated biography originally published in 1996 chronicles Gordon's early life and military career and through his men takes a fresh look at the vaunted Army of Northern Virginia its battles controversies and troops This second edition includes additional source material that has come to light and a roster of Gordon's 1st North Carolina Cavalry Growing Up Southern Chris Mayfield,1981 Under Our Skin Donald McRae,2012-03-29 Don McRae grew up in a South Africa where his father would call the black men he met boy and where his mother insisted that their black servants used tin mugs plates and cutlery as they ate the family's left over food in the backyard of their grand suburban property The McRaes like so many white people seemed oblivious to the violent injustices of apartheid As the author grew up the political differences between father and son widened and when Don refused to join up for National Service risking imprisonment or exile overseas the two were torn apart It wasn't until years later that the author discovered that the father with whom he had fought so bitterly had later in his life transformed himself into a political hero Risking everything one dark and rainy night Ian McRae travelled secretly into the black township of Soweto to meet members of Nelson Mandela's then banned African National Congress to discuss ways to bring power to black South Africa He had no political ambitions he was just a man trying to replace the worst in himself with something better Under Our Skin is a memoir of these tumultuous years in South Africa's history as told through the author's family story It offers an intimate and penetrating perspective on life under apartheid and tells a story of courage and fear hope and desolation and love and pain especially between a father and his son
