Report to the Legislature

Information System Audit

System for the Enforcement and Recovery of Child Support (SEARCHS)

Department of Public Health and Human Services

This report provides information regarding application controls over the department's SEARCHS system, and access and change controls over the related processing environment. It contains recommendations for improving controls over the SEARCHS information system environment.

These recommendations include:

- Resolving programming problems to ensure child support collections are assigned to the state for reimbursement of public assistance.
- Distributing excess reimbursed assistance to custodial parents.
- Validating social security numbers.
- Modifying support orders to include medical support.
- Reviewing bank account information.
