An Account (geographical, Statistical and Historical) of Orissa Proper A. Stirling,1904 Models and World Making Annabel Jane Wharton,2022-01-14 From climate change forecasts and pandemic maps to Lego sets and Ancestry algorithms models encompass our world and our lives In her thought provoking new book Annabel Wharton begins with a definition drawn from the quantitative sciences and the philosophy of science but holds that history and critical cultural theory are essential to a fuller understanding of modeling Considering changes in the medical body model and the architectural model from the Middle Ages to the twenty first century Wharton demonstrates the ways in which all models are historical and political Examining how cadavers have been described exhibited and visually rendered she highlights the historical dimension of the modified body and its depictions Analyzing the varied reworkings of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem including by monumental commanderies of the Knights Templar Alberti's Rucellai Tomb in Florence Franciscans olive wood replicas and video game renderings she foregrounds the political force of architectural representations And considering black boxes instruments whose inputs we control and whose outputs we interpret but whose inner workings are beyond our comprehension she surveys the threats posed by such opaque computational models warning of the dangers that models pose when humans lose control of the means by which they are generated and understood Engaging and wide ranging Models and World Making conjures new ways of seeing and critically evaluating how we make and remake the world in which we live

Brutal Aesthetics Hal Foster,2023-10-17 How artists created an aesthetic of positive barbarism in a world devastated by World War II the Holocaust and the atomic bomb In Brutal Aesthetics leading art historian Hal Foster explores how postwar artists and writers searched for a new foundation of culture after the massive devastation of World War II the Holocaust and the atomic bomb Inspired by the notion that modernist art can teach us how to survive a civilization become barbaric Foster examines the various ways that key figures from the early 1940s to the early 1960s sought to develop a brutal aesthetics adequate to the destruction around them With a focus on the philosopher Georges Bataille the painters Jean Dubuffet and Asger Jorn and the sculptors Eduardo Paolozzi and Claes Oldenburg Foster investigates a manifold move to strip art down or to reveal it as already bare in order to begin again What does Bataille seek in the prehistoric cave paintings of Lascaux How does Dubuffet imagine an art brut an art unscathed by culture Why does Jorn populate his paintings with human animals What does Paolozzi see in his monstrous figures assembled from industrial debris And why does Oldenburg remake everyday products from urban scrap A study of artistic practices made desperate by a world in crisis Brutal Aesthetics is an intriguing account of a difficult era in twentieth century culture one that has important implications for our own Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art Washington DC Please note All images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size

The Big Top on the Big Screen Teresa Cutler-Broyles,2020-01-27 Circuses and film are a natural pairing and the new essays making up this volume begin the exploration of how these two forms of entertainment have often worked together to create a spectacle of onscreen alchemy The films discussed herein are an eclectic group ranging from early silent comedies to animated 21st century examples in which circuses serve as liminal or carnivalesque spaces wherein characters and by extension audience members can confront issues as far reaching as labor relations sensuality identity ethics and more The circus as discussed in these essays encompasses the big top the midway the sideshow and the freak show it becomes backdrop character catalyst and setting and it is welcoming malicious or terrifying Circus performers are family friends foe or all of the above And film is the medium that brings it all together This volume starts the conversation about how circuses and film can combine to form productive exciting spaces where almost anything can happen
