In My Head:

I See Movies in My Head Phillip D. Reisner, 2012-06-08 Author Phillip Reisner has been seeing movies and writing poetry in his head his entire life from his childhood years on a midwestern farm to his first venture out in the world as an adult He learned efficiency of thought action and description from his father who was a man of few words His poetry collection I See Movies in My Head takes place over a period of twenty years beginning before Phillip gained self awareness and coming up to a point of true life realization Phillip remembers his life experiences through movies in his head and poetically describes his personal history of growing up His innocence is pure early in his life but living gradually chips away with personal awareness and worldliness Concise and to the point the free verse poems of I See Movies in My Head seek to remind us that simplicity teaches while complexity awaits understanding I wish I could go back in time with more than organic films in my head and feel sweet special and innocent again I wish I could be six years old again and ignorantly unique without worldly knowledge to clutter my heart mind and soul

Language of Water Gino Leineweber, 2025-07-15 Water was one of the four classical elements in ancient Greek and Roman philosophy or the five in Indian philosophy It is the earth's main constituent and that of all known living organisms Without water there would be no life on earth No one understands water which covers two thirds of our planet It exhibits a whole raft of unusual behaviors many of which are essential for life as we know it So the mystery of water belongs to us or we to it how our lives It has inspired several poets to express their ideas about it in their poems For poets it doesn't just mean an element but opens spaces for sense perceptual excursions

Jimmy's Faith Christopher Hunt, 2024-12-03 A novel approach to understanding the work of James Baldwin and its transformative potential The relationship of James Baldwin's life and work to Black religion is in many ways complex and confounding What is he doing through his literary deployment of religious language and symbols Despite Baldwin's disavowal of Christianity in his youth he continued to engage the symbols and theology of Christianity in works such as The Amen Corner Just Above My Head and others With Jimmy's Faith author Christopher W Hunt shows how Baldwin's usage of those religious symbols both shifted their meaning and served as a way for him to build his own religious and spiritual vision Engaging Jos Esteban Muñoz's theory of disidentification as a queer practice of imagination and survival Hunt demonstrates the ways in which James Baldwin disidentifies with and queers Black Christian language and theology throughout his literary corpus Baldwin's vision is one in which queer sexuality signifies the depth of love's transforming possibilities the arts serve as the religious medium of knitting Black community together an agnostic and affective mysticism undermines Christian theological discourse androgyny troubles the gender binary and the Black child signifies the hope for a world made new In disidentifying with Christian symbols Jimmy's Faith reveals how Baldwin imagines both religion and the world otherwise offering a model of how we might do the same for our own communities and ourselves
