Metamorphosis Siren Songs English Edition:

Sirens Michael Bull, 2020-02-06 Sirens are sounds that confront us in daily life from the sounds of police cars and fire engines to less often tornado warnings Ideologies of sirens embody the protective the seductive and the dangerous elements of siren sounds from the US Cold War public training exercises in the 1950s and 1960s to the seductive power of the sirens entrenched in popular culture from Wagner to Dizzee Rascal from Kafka to Kurt Vonnegut from Hans Christian Andersen to Walt Disney This book argues using a wide array of theorists from Adorno to Bloch and Kittler that we should understand siren sounds in terms of their myth and materiality and that sirens represent a sonic confluence of power gender and destructiveness embedded in core Western ideologies to the present day Bull poses the question of whether we can rely on sirens both in their mythic meanings and in their material meanings in contemporary culture The Sirens' Song Maurice Blanchot, 1982

Siren's Song Jordan-Paige Nichols, 2011-01-14 Ivian is different So different that she can't be referred to as human She's a Siren When she tries to live her old human life as a succubus she learns the hard way that things can never be the same again Enter a world where all the boundaries you know of the world have disintegrated Where Sirens roam the Earth Where secrets are kept Where memories are erased Where people will do anything to stay alive or keep the ones they love alive Enter a world where everything revolves around music Enter the world and hear the Sirens' Song Aino Kallas Leena Kurvet-Käösaar, Lea Rojola, 2011-07-12 The collection first one ever on Aino Kallas in English highlights her significance to the artistic and intellectual horizons of modernity of Finland and Estonia as well as those of Scandinavia and Europe In the 1920s and 30s Aino Kallas became an internationally renowned author and a selection of her work was translated into English For her participating in the immediate cultural debates in Estonia and Finland was a priority yet her whole oeuvre is a negotiation between her more immediate contexts and the leading conceptual frameworks of aesthetics genality knowledge subjectivity race sexuality nature etc circling in Europe at the end of the 19th and the beginning of the 20th century Containing articles focusing on the question of female voice and echoes of feminist ecological thought in her fiction a contrapuntal reading of her fiction and that of Isak Dinesen her unknown manuscript Bathseba the implications of existentialist thought for her work Kallas engagement in her cultural criticism and life writings with decadent modernism issues of race and heredity subjectivity and borders travel ageing her interpretation of Goethe and the iconography of Kallas the collection features the work of today's leading Aino Kallas scholars in Finland and in Estonia

Intimacy Dominic Pettman, 2017-03-21 A perceptive engaging and clever set of meditations on how sound produces human technical and nonhuman intimacies Richard Grusin University of Wisconsin Milwaukee Sonic Intimacy asks us who or what deserves to have a voice beyond the human Arguing that our ears are far too narrowly attuned to our own species the book explores four different types of voices the cybernetic the gendered the creaturely and the ecological Through both a conceptual framework and a series of case studies Dominic Pettman tracks some of the ways in which these voices intersect and interact He demonstrates how intimacy is forged through the ear perhaps even more than through any other sense mode or medium The voice then is what creates intimacy both fleeting and lasting not only between people but also between animals machines and even natural elements those presumed not to have a voice in the first place Taken together the manifold material actual voices of the world whether primarily natural or technological are a complex cacophony that is desperately trying to tell us something about the rapidly failing health of the planet and its inhabitants As Pettman cautions we would do well to listen Pettman is a very engaging writer and the way he traverses contexts and theoretical horizons is thrilling Naomi Waltham Smith Boundary 2 With Sonic Intimacy we are manifestly in the hands of a skilled and not a little playful writer who connects new media to long developed philosophical conversations David Cecchetto York University

Feminist Mythology Chiara Bottici, 2021-10-21 A Feminist Mythology takes us on a poetic journey through the canonical myths of femininity testing them from the point of view of our modern condition A myth is not an object but rather a process one that Chiara Bottici practises by exploring different variants of the myth of womanhood through first and third person prose and poetry We follow a series of myths that morph into each other disclosing ways of being woman that question inherited patriarchal orders In this metamorphic world story telling is not just a mix of narrative philosophical dialogues and metaphysical theorizing it is a current that traverses all of them by overflowing the boundaries it encounters In doing so A Feminist Mythology proposes an alternative writing style that recovers ancient philosophical and literary traditions from the pre Socratic philosophers and Ovid's Metamorphoses to the philosophical novellas and feminist experimental writings of the last century

Behold an Animal Thangam Ravindranathan, 2020-01-15 As animals recede from our world what tale is being told by literature's creatures Behold an Animal Four Exorbitant Readings examines incongruous animals in the works of four major contemporary French writers an airborne horse in a novel by Jean Philippe Toussaint extinct orangutans in Ric Chevillard stray dogs in Marie NDiaye vanishing bits of hedgehogs in Marie Darrieussecq Resisting naturalist assumptions that an animal in a story is simply literally or metaphorically an animal Thangam Ravindranathan understands it rather as the location of something missing The animal is a lure an unfinished figure fleeing the frame crossing bounds of period genre even medium and language Its flight traces an exorbitant self portrait in which thinking admits to its commerce with life and flesh It is in its animals at the same time unbearably real and exquisitely unreal that literature may today be closest to philosophy This book's primary focus is the contemporary French novel and continental philosophy In addition to Toussaint

Chevillard NDiaye and Darriussecq it engages the work of Jean de La Fontaine Eadweard Muybridge Edgar Allan Poe Lewis Carroll Samuel Beckett and Francis Ponge The Cambridge Companion to Margaret Atwood Coral Ann

Kleinman,1963 The Muses on Their Lunch Hour Marjorie Garber,2016-12-01 Witty shrewd and imaginative essays on interdisciplinary topics from Shakespeare to psychoanalysis and the practice of higher education today Publishers Weekly As a break from their ordained labors what might the Muses do on their lunch hour today This collection of essays uses these figures of ancient legend to explore such modern day topics as the curious return of myth and ritual in the theories of evolutionary psychologists and much more Two themes emerge consistently The first is that to predict the next big thing in literary studies we should look back at ideas and practices set aside by a previous generation of critics In the past several decades we have seen the reemergence of for example textual editing biography character criticism aesthetics and philology as hot new areas for critical intervention The second theme expands on this observation making the case for cultural forgetting as the way the arts and humanities renew themselves both within fields and across them Although she is never represented in traditional paintings or poetry a missing Muse we can call her Amnesia turns out to be a key figure for the creation of theory and criticism in the arts
