1850-1970 Meredith Veldman, 2022-04-05 The British Jesus focuses on the Jesus of the religious culture dominant in Britain from the 1850s through the 1950s the popular Christian culture shared by not only church kirk and chapel goers but also the growing numbers of Britons who rarely or only episodically entered a house of worship An essay in intellectual as well as cultural history this book illumines the interplay between and among British New Testament scholarship institutional Christianity and the wider Protestant culture The scholars who mapped and led the uniquely British quest for the historical Jesus in the first half of the twentieth century were active participants in efforts to replace the popular image of Jesus in a white nightie with a stronger figure and so they hoped to preserve Britain s Christian identity They failed By exploring that failure and more broadly by examining the relations and exchanges between popular artistic and scholarly portrayals of Jesus this book highlights the continuity and the conservatism of Britain s popular Christianity through a century of religious and cultural transformation Exploring depictions of Jesus from over more than one hundred years this book is a crucial resource for scholars of British Christianity in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Bible Christian magazine, a continuation of the Arminian magazine Bible Christians, 1884 Methodist Magazine , 1895 Saving the World Allison Giffen, Robin Cadwallader, 2017-08-23 This book makes a significant contribution to the burgeoning field of childhood studies in nineteenth century literature and culture by drawing on the intersecting fields of girlhood evangelicalism and reform to investigate texts written in North America about girls for girls and by girls Responding both to the intellectual excitement generated by the rise of girlhood studies as well as to the call by recent scholars to recognize the significance of religion as a meaningful category in the study of nineteenth century literature and culture this collection locates evangelicalism at the center of its inquiry into girlhood Contributors draw on a wide range of texts including canonical literature by Harriet Beecher Stowe Susan Warner and Elizabeth Stuart Phelps and overlooked archives such as US Methodist Sunday School fiction children s missionary periodicals and the Christian Recorder the flagship newspaper of the African Methodist Episcopal AME Church These essays investigate representations of girlhood that engage codify and critique normative Protestant constructions of girlhood Contributors examine girlhood in the context of reform revealing the ways in which Protestantism at once constrained and enabled female agency Drawing on a range of critical perspectives including African American Studies Disability Studies Gender Studies and Material Culture Studies this volume enriches our understanding of nineteenth century childhood by focusing on the particularities of girlhood expanding it beyond that of the white able bodied middle class girl and attending to the intersectionality of identity and religion Arkansas Methodist , 1915 The Free Methodist , 1901 Faithful Intellect Neil Semple, 2005 In 1850 Samuel Nelles a well educated Methodist minister was selected to resuscitate the debt ridden and declining Victoria University As principal and later as president and chancellor he fought against shortsighted government educational policies while making the school into one of the premier universities in Canada A true academic Nelles believed in the importance of testing assumed laws dogmas and creeds However his pursuit of intellectual inquiry was always guided by a rational faith in God as well as the expectation of the future greatness and goodness of humanity Faithful Intellect expands the reader s understanding of many of the key intellectual religious and political concerns of nineteenth century English Canada while providing an essential contribution to the study of Canada s system of higher education The United States Catalog; Books in Print January 1, 1912 H.W.
