The Struggle of Non-Sovereign Caribbean Territories H. Adlai Murdoch,2021-02-12 The Struggle of Non-Sovereign Caribbean Territories is an essay collection made up of two sections in the first a group of anglophone and francophone scholars examines the roots effects and implications of the major social upheaval that shook Guadeloupe Martinique French Guiana and R union in February and March of 2009 They clearly demonstrate the critical role played by community activism art and media to combat politico economic policies that generate un employment labor exploitation and unattended health risks all made secondary to the supremacy of profit In the second section additional scholars provide in depth analyses of the ways in which an insistence on capital accumulation and centralization instantiated broad hierarchies of market driven profit capital accumulation and economic exploitation upon a range of populations and territories in the wider non sovereign and nominally sovereign Caribbean from Haiti to the Dutch Antilles to Puerto Rico reinforcing the racialized patterns of socioeconomic exclusion and privatization long imposed by France on its former colonial territories

Nordic Criminal Justice in a Global Context Mikkel Jarle Christensen,Kjersti Lohne,Magnus Hörnqvist,2022-10-18

This book critically investigates Nordic criminal justice as a global role model. Not taking this role for granted, the chapters of the book analyze how Nordic approaches to criminal justice were folded into global contexts and how patterns of promotion were built around perceptions that these approaches also had a particular value for other criminal justice systems. Specific actors both internal and external to the region itself have branded Nordic criminal justice as a form of penal exceptionalism associated with human rights universalistic welfare and social cohesion. The book shows how building and using the brand of Nordic criminal justice allowed stakeholders to champion specific forms of crime control across a variety of criminal justice areas in both domestic and international settings. The book will be of interest to scholars and students of criminal justice, international law and justice, Nordic and Scandinavian studies, and more widely to the social sciences and humanities.

Race and the Brazilian Body Jennifer Roth-Gordon, 2017. Brazil's comfortable racial contradiction. Good appearances, race, language and citizenship. Investing in whiteness, middle class practices of linguistic discipline. Fears of racial contact, crime, violence and the struggle over urban space. Avoiding blackness, the flip side of boa aparência. Making the mano the uncomfortable, visibility of blackness in politically conscious Brazilian hip hop. Conclusion: seeing race. Bloomsbury Encyclopedia of Popular Music of the World, Volume 11 David Horn, 2017-10-05. See Visualizing Violence in Francophone Cultures Magali Compan, 2015-10-13. Visualizing Violence in Francophone Cultures brings together two complex and powerful loci of meaning: violence and the visual. As such, it offers a comprehensive overview from which one can gain a better understanding of the complexity of the visual rhetoric of violence. The visual representations of violence explored in this volume include both fictional works, including for example narrative films, graphic novels, and theatre, and non-fictional genres such as news media and cultural artifacts. This volume's strength is also grounded in its interdisciplinary approach by bringing together scholars from a variety of academic fields to examine a broad range of visual artifacts such as photography, graphic novel, films, paintings, objects. The book offers a substantive corpus focusing on the rhetoric of violence. The essays collected in this volume explore the ways in which visual expressions of violence have infiltrated diverse narrative forms and, as such, how they both construct and challenge general understandings of contemporary violence. They all chart with cultural and historical specificity the way in which images of violence shape the visual imaginary of ethical worlds.

Charity Organisation Reporter, 1882. A Moral Economy of Whiteness Steve Garner, 2015-08-14. A Moral Economy of Whiteness presents a working model for understanding the main ways in which white UK people make race through talking about immigration in the twenty-first century. Based on extensive empirical interviews, Steve Garner establishes four overlapping frames through which white English people understand immigration. This comprises a narrative of unequal treatment where equality is a dirty word because it is seen as an agenda for redistributing resources to undeserving ethnic minorities, non-integrating migrants, and unproductive white people. Political correctness is seen as the ideological glue binding this unfair system. People are thus retreating from Britishness into a more exclusive Englishness. Garner explores the context of these understandings the dominance of neoliberal market rationales in which the State deprioritises anti discrimination work He concludes that these frames only make sense in a social world where Britain s imperial past has no bearing on the present and where racism in popular and media culture becomes purely a story of individual deviancy This book generates numerous international points of comparison that deepen our understanding of the backlash against multiculturalism in the West It will appeal to scholars and students of sociology social policy anthropology political science im migration multiculturalism nationalism and British studies

Education and Power in Contemporary Southeast Asia Azmil Tayeb,Rosalie Metro,Will Brehm,2023-07-18 This book focuses on education and power in Southeast Asia and analyzes the ways in which education has been instrumentalized by state non state and private actors across this diverse region The book looks at how countries in Southeast Asia respond to the endogenous and exogenous influences in shaping their education systems Chapters observe and study the interplay between education and power in Southeast Asia which offers varying political social cultural religious and economic diversities The political systems in Southeast Asia range from near consolidated democracy in Indonesia to illiberal democracy in Singapore and Thailand to the communist regime in Laos to absolute monarchy in Brunei Structured in three parts i centralization and decentralization ii privatization and marketization and iii equity and justice these themes are discussed in single country and or multi country studies in the Southeast Asian region Bringing together scholars from and focused on Southeast Asia this book fills a gap in the literature on education in Southeast Asia
