Wilderness Ming Kuo, Cathy Jordan, 2019-11-04 The Machinery of School Internationalisation in Action Laura C.
Engel, Claire Maxwell, Miri Yemini, 2019-10-21 Drawing on scholarship from the field of internationalisation in higher education and other theoretical influences in education policy comparative education and sociology of education this edited collection offers a much needed extension of discussion and research into the compulsory schooling context In this book established and emerging scholars provide an authoritative set of conceptual tools for researchers in the field of internationalisation of compulsory schooling It provides an overview of the current knowledge base and ways in which future research could engage with gaps in understandings Through detailed case studies of the multiple forms of internationalisation present within schools and schooling systems the volume considers why and how processes of internationalisation are shaping compulsory schooling today This book will offer scholars and educators a clearer more coherent set of conceptual frameworks within which to position their work in sociology of education and international and comparative education helping to develop a more comprehensive understanding of the many ways compulsory schooling is being internationalised and with what consequences Young People on the Margins Loic Menzies, Sam Baars, 2021-03-30 Our society leaves too many young people behind More often than not these are the most vulnerable young people and it is through no fault of their own Building a fair society and an equitable education system rests on bringing in and supporting them By drawing together more than a decade of studies by the UK's Centre for Education and Youth this book provides a new way of understanding the many ways young people in England are pushed to the margins of the education system and in turn society Each contributor shares the personal stories of the young people they have encountered over the course of their fieldwork and practice combining this with accessible syntheses of previous studies alongside extensive analysis of national datasets and key publications By unpicking the many overlapping factors that contribute to different groups vulnerability the book demonstrates the need to understand each young person s life story and to respond quickly and collaboratively to the challenges they face The chapters conclude with action points highlighting the steps individuals institutions and policy makers can take to bring young people in from the margins Young People on the Margins showcases first hand examples of where these young people s needs are being addressed and trends bucked drawing out what can and must be learned for teachers leaders youth workers and policy makers
