Chiles, 2023-12-28 A Black majority city with a history of the most severe segregation and inequity Richmond is still grappling with this legacy as it moves into the twenty first century Marvin Chiles now offers a unique take on Richmond's racial politics since the civil rights era by demonstrating that the city's current racial disparities in economic mobility housing and public education actually represent the unintended consequences of Richmond's racial reconciliation measures He deftly weaves municipal politics together with grassroots efforts examining the work and legacies of Richmond's Black leaders from Henry Marsh on the city council in the 1960s to Mayor Levar Stoney to highlight the urban revitalization and public history efforts meant to overcome racial divides after Jim Crow yet which ironically reinforced racial inequality across the city Compellingly written this project carries both local and broader regional significance for Richmonders Virginians southerners and all Americans

Earned Citizenship Michael J. Sullivan, 2019-03-19
 The migration and settlement of 11 million unauthorized immigrants is among the leading political challenges facing the United States today
 The majority of unauthorized immigrants in the U S have been here for more than five years and are settling into American communities working forming families and serving in the military even though they may be detained and deported if they are discovered
 An open question remains as to what to do about unauthorized immigrants who are already living in the United States
 On one hand it is important that the government sends a message that future violations of immigration law will not be tolerated
 On the other sits a deeper ethical dilemma that is the focus of this book what do the state and citizens owe to unauthorized immigrants who have served their adopted country
 Earned Citizenship argues that long term unauthorized immigrant residents should be able to earn legalization and a pathway to citizenship through service in their adopted communities
 Their service would act as restitution for immigration law violations
 Military service in particular would merit naturalization in countries with a strong citizen soldier tradition including the United States
 The book also considers the civic value of caregiving as a service to citizens and the country contending that family immigration policies should be expanded to recognize the importance of caregiving duties for dependents
 This argument is part of a broader project in political theory and public policy aimed at reconciling civic republicanism with a feminist ethic of care and its emphasis on dependency work
 As a whole Earned Citizenship provides a non humanitarian justification for legalizing unauthorized immigrants based on their contributions to citizens and institutions in their adopted nation
