Readings in Educational Psychology Edgar Stones, 2012-05-04 The papers in this volume relate to the nature and conditions of classroom learning with particular emphasis on the cognitive aspects They are concerned with the question of concept formation and stress the importance of the teacher's function in ensuring that the child really has assimilated the ideas and not merely the words for the concepts The role of language is fundamental to this theme and the interaction of language thinking and learning is dealt with in the first section of the book This section also provides a context within which subsequent discussions of classroom learning problems can be viewed Some problems concerning the elaboration of a general theory of teaching are then examined with particular reference to possible methods of bridging the gap between research and implementation Routledge Library Editions: Curriculum Various, 2021-07-09 Reissuing works originally published between 1971 and 1994 this collection includes books which offer a broad spectrum of views on curriculum both within individual schools and the wider issues around curriculum development reform and implementation Some cover the debate surrounding the establishment of the national curriculum in the UK while others are more international in scope Many of these books go beyond theory to discuss practical issues of real curriculum changes at primary or secondary level The Set includes books on cross curricular topics such as citizenship and environment and also guidance careers life skills and pastoral care in schools A fantastic collection of education history with much still relevant today

Education and Development in Zimbabwe Edward Shizha, Michael T. Kariwo, 2012-01-01 The book represents a contribution to policy formulation and design in an increasingly knowledge economy in Zimbabwe It challenges scholars to think about the role of education its funding and the egalitarian approach to widening access to education The nexus between education democracy and policy change is a complex one The book provides an illuminating account of the constantly evolving notions of national identity language and citizenship from the Zimbabwean experience The book discusses educational successes and challenges by examining the ideological effects of social political and economic considerations on Zimbabwe's colonial and postcolonial education Currently literature on current educational challenges in Zimbabwe is lacking and there is very little published material on these ideological effects on educational development in Zimbabwe This book is likely to be one of the first on the impact of social political and economic meltdown on education The book is targeted at local and international academics and scholars of history of education and comparative education scholars of international education and development undergraduate and graduate students and professors who are interested in educational development in Africa particularly Zimbabwe Notwithstanding the book is a valuable resource to policy makers educational administrators and researchers and the wider community Shizha and Kariwo's book is an important and illuminating addition on the effects of social political and economic trajectories on education and development in Zimbabwe It critically analyses the crucial specifics of the Zimbabwean situation by providing an in depth discourse on education at this historical juncture The book offers new insights that may be useful for an understanding of not only the Zimbabwean case but also education in other African countries Rosemary Gordon Senior Lecturer in Educational Foundations University of Zimbabwe Ranging in temporal scope from the colonial era and its elitist legacy through the golden era of populist universal elementary education to the disarray of contemporary socioeconomic crisis covering elementary through higher education and touching thematically on everything from the pernicious effects of social adjustment programmes through the local deprofessionalization of teaching this text provides a comprehensive wide ranging and yet carefully detailed account of education in Zimbabwe This engagingly written portrayal will prove illuminating not only to readers interested in Zimbabwe s education specifically but more widely to all who are interested in how the sociopolitical shapes education how ideology policy international pressures economic factors and shifts in values collectively forge the historical and contemporary character of a country s education Handel Kashope Wright Professor of Education University of British Columbia Geographical Education Magazine ,1996 Design and Usability of

Digital Libraries: Case Studies in the Asia Pacific Theng, Yin-Leng,2004-12-31 This book showcases some of the best digital library practices from organizations in the Asia Pacific Particular emphasis has been placed on the design use and usability of digital libraries In addition to digital libraries it also examines related technologies the management of knowledge in digital libraries and the associated usability and social issues surrounding digital libraries The book will benefit practitioners researchers educators and policy makers from a variety of disciplines In particular developers designers of digital libraries librarians users and researchers will all find this collection of case studies a valuable tool School

Subjects and Curriculum Change Ivor F. Goodson,2013-04-03 The process of curriculum development is highly practical as Goodson shows in this enlarged anniversary third edition of his seminal work The position of subjects and their development within the curriculum is illustrated by looking at how school subjects in particular geography and biology gained academic and intellectual respectability within the whole curriculum during the late 1960s and early 1970s He highlights how subjects owe their formation and accreditation to competing status and their power to compete in the provision of worthwhile knowledge and considers subjects as continually changing sub groups of information Such subjects from the framework of the society in which individuals live and over which they have influence This volume questions the basis on which subject disciplines are developed and formulates new possibilities for curriculum development and reform in a post modernist age Geography, Paper 2 ,1983 Children Learning at Home Julie Webb,1990 Offers a review of the historical legal and theoretical background to home education in Britain Using data from interviews with home educating families and other interested parties Webb examines the issues of home based education which in turn illuminates aspects of orthodox educational systems
