Handbook on the Geographies of Money and Finance Ron Martin, Jane Pollard, 2017-03-31 The aim of this timely work which appears in the wake of the worst global financial crisis since the late 1920s is to bring together high quality research based contributions from leading international scholars involved in constructing a geographical perspective on money Topics covered include the crisis the spatial circuits of finance regulation mainstream financial markets banking equity etc through to the various alternative and disruptive forms of money that have arisen in recent years It will be of interest to geographers political scientists sociologists economists planners and all those interested in how money shapes and reshapes socio economic space and conditions local and regional development

The Palgrave Handbook of Disciplinary and Regional Approaches to Peace Oliver Richmond, Sandra Pogodda, Jasmin Ramovic, 2016-03-15 In this handbook a diverse range of leading scholars consider the social cultural economic political and developmental underpinnings of peace This handbook is a much needed response to the failures of contemporary peacebuilding missions and narrow disciplinary debates both of which have outlined the need for more interdisciplinary work in International Relations and Peace and Conflict studies Scholars students and policymakers are often disillusioned with universalist and northern dominated approaches and a better understanding of the variations of peace and its building blocks across different regions is required Collectively these chapters promote a more differentiated notion of peace employing comparative analysis to explain how peace is debated and contested

The Northeast Question Pradip Phanjoubam, 2015-12-14 This book explores the idea psychology and political geography of Northeast India as forged by two interrelated but autonomous meta narratives First the politics of conflict inherent in and therefore predetermined by physical geography and second the larger geopolitics that was unfolding during the colonial period Unravelling the history behind the turmoil engulfing Northeast India the study contends that certain geographies most pertinently fertile river valleys and surrounding mountains which feed the rivers are integral to nature and any effort to disrupt this cohesion will result in conflict It comprehensively traces the geopolitics of the region since colonial era in particular the Great Game the politics that went into the making of the McMahon Line the Radcliffe Line and the Pemberton

Line the region's relations with its international neighbours China Bhutan Myanmar Bangladesh and Nepal as well as the issue of many formerly non state bearing populations awakening to the reality of the modern state Lucid and analytical this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of Northeast India modern Indian history international relations defence and strategic studies and political science      America Ascendant Stanley B. Greenberg, 2015-11-03 Renowned pollster who was key advisor to President Clinton Stanley Greenberg reveals how America will be ascendant and how new Democratic presidents can lead a new era of bold reform      A University Education David Willetts, 2017-11-17 Universities have a crucial role in the modern world In England entrance to universities is by nation wide competition which means English universities have an exceptional influence on schools a striking theme of the book This important book first investigates the university as an institution and then tracks the individual on their journey to and through university In A University Education David Willetts presents a compelling case for the ongoing importance of the university both as one of the great institutions of modern society and as a transformational experience for the individual The book also makes illuminating comparisons with higher education in other countries especially the US and Germany Drawing on his experience as UK Minister for Universities and Science from 2010 to 2014 the author offers a powerful account of the value of higher education and the case for more expansion He covers controversial issues in which he was involved from access for disadvantaged students to the introduction of 9 000 fees The final section addresses some of the big questions for the future such as the the relationship between universities and business especially in promoting innovation He argues that the two great contemporary trends of globalisation and technological innovation will both change the university significantly This is an authoritative account of English universities setting them for the first time in their new legal and regulatory framework

Geographical Data Science and Spatial Data Analysis Lex Comber, Chris Brunsdon, 2020-12-02 We are in an age of big data where all of our everyday interactions and transactions generate data Much of this data is spatial it is collected somewhere and identifying analytical insight from trends and patterns in these increasing rich digital footprints presents a number of challenges Whilst other books describe different flavours of Data Analytics in R and other programming languages there are none that consider Spatial Data i.e. the location attached to data or that consider issues of inference linking Big Data Geography GIS Mapping and Spatial Analytics This is a learning by doing textbook building on the previous book by the same authors An Introduction to R for Spatial Analysis and Mapping It details the theoretical issues in analyses of Big Spatial Data and developing practical skills in the reader for addressing these with confidence      Intergenerational Mobilities Lesley Murray, Susan Robertson, 2016-10-04 Drawing from work on mobilities and geographies of the lifecourse this collection is concerned with the ways in which age as a relational concept is constructed and played out in mobile urban space With studies of ageing and mobility often focusing on discrete age groups most notably children and older people this study seeks to fill a gap in existing literature by exploring mobility in relation to the lifecourse and generation looking not only at the margins Whilst some generations are increasingly mobile others are less so and this disparity in mobility opportunity is relational as age is relational This book addresses gaps in knowledge in relational geographies of ageing whilst contributing to literature on mobility and transport in particular the burgeoning field of mobility in justice Here mobility is considered in its broadest sense for example in relation to the movement or lack of movement of bodies and to computer mediated intergenerational communications Through focusing on urban mobile spaces from very local spaces of medical care to global spaces of migration that are the context for intergenerational mobilities this collection explores these interdependencies and considers ways in which intergenerational mobilities are conceptualised and researched

Articulations of Capital John Pickles, Adrian Smith, 2016-01-19 Articulations of Capital offers an accessible grounded yet theoretically sophisticated account of the geographies of global production networks value chains and regional development in post socialist Eastern and Central Europe Proposes a new theorization of global value chains as part of a conjunctural economic geography Develops a set of conceptual and theoretical arguments concerning the regional embeddedness of global production Draws on longitudinal empirical research from over 20 years in the Bulgarian and Slovakian apparel industries Makes a major intervention into the debate over the economic geographies of European integration and EU enlargement

Reconciling Cultural and Political Identities in a Globalized World Michális Michael, 2016-04-29 Though geographically far apart Turkey and Australia are much closer than many would think This collection provides a relevant comparative and comprehensive study of two countries seeking to reconcile their history with their geography

Climate Consciousness and Environmental Activism in Composition Joseph R. Lease, 2020-02-18 Now more than ever in a time when Americans still do not believe that humans are the primary cause of Earth's climate change crisis the burden on educators to inform challenge and motivate students about sustainability is greater than it ever has been On college campuses writing intensive courses often located within First Year or General Education curricula are an ideal place to take up this charge because of the flexibility of their content and the high volume of students that they reach In this volume a varied group of composition instructors with wide ranges and types of experiences provides best practices for bringing issues surrounding climate change into the writing classroom From literature based composition and creative writing courses to design thinking workshops to seminars against sustainability the authors in this volume lay out a multitude of possibilities for blending writing and environmental concerns that fellow practitioners can easily adopt or modify for their own use

Palestinian Refugees in International Law Francesca Albanese, Lex Takkenberg, 2020 The Palestinian conflict has produced one of the most tragic refugee crises since World War II with the number of refugees caused by the violence associated with the creation of the State of Israel numbering around 11 million in 2011 The much lauded first edition in 1998 of The Status of Palestinian Refugees in International Law was the first book to comprehensively analyse the legal aspects of the Palestinian refugee crisis yet the last two decades have seen multiple developments New waves of conflict and displacement have affected Palestinian refugees in the Middle East and there has been Israeli encroachment on Palestinian territory Hamas has grown and a schism has formed within the first Palestinian government The so called Arab Spring has impacted the life fate and legal status of thousands of Palestinian refugees In international legal jurisprudence change has been similarly rapid In 2004 the International Court of Justice delivered a crucial advisory opinion on the Separation Wall authoritatively elucidating the international legal framework applicable to the Israeli occupation Numerous international human rights bodies and UN fact finding missions have added their analysis to the mix The possibility of the State of Palestine joining the International Criminal Court has spurred discussion relating to the applicability of international criminal law to Palestinian refugees Clear compelling and authoritative Lex Takkenberg and Francesca Albanese discuss the status quo both on the ground and in the courts and pose future scenarios to come

Development Challenges and Solutions After the Arab Spring Ali Kadri, 2016-01-26 Since the events of 2011 most Arab countries have slipped into a state of war and living conditions for the majority of the working population have not changed for the better This edited collection examines the socioeconomic conditions and contests the received policy framework to demonstrate that workable alternatives do exist
