Ripley author of The Smartest Kids in the World Launched with a hugely popular New York Times Magazine cover story Building a Better Teacher sparked a national conversation about teacher quality and established Elizabeth Green as a leading voice in education Green's fascinating and accessible narrative dispels the common myth of the natural born teacher and introduces maverick educators exploring the science behind their art Her dramatic account reveals that great teaching is not magic but a skill a skill that can be taught Now with a new afterword that offers a guide on how to identify and support great teachers this provocative and hopeful book should be part of every new teacher's education Washington Post

Census of Population and Housing 2012, 2012 Research on Teaching Strategies and Skills in Different Educational Stages Pedro Gil-Madrona, Linda Saraiva, Luisa Losada-Puente, 2025-03-19 The teaching practice becomes a reciprocal activity in the classroom when teachers apply their creativity and their knowledge resulting from research and scientific evidence in the didactic teaching process with the purpose of strengthening in the students the key competencies of their training turning students at the core of the didactic process Teaching strategies must be articulated from previous research and planning and designed sequentially to promote real and interesting learning scenarios and thereby achieve significant learning From this perspective of teaching learning strategies the reciprocal interaction between the student and the teacher becomes the focus of attention with a playful motivating interesting and rewarding approach for the learner The role of the teacher is conceived as fundamental in the teaching process to achieve the link between teaching learning and evaluation strategies For this reason multidisciplinary studies are welcome from all stages of the educational system with quantitative qualitative and mixed approaches and reviews promoting good teaching practices of reflection and innovation from these studies Teaching and Learning Secondary School Mathematics Ann Kajander, Jennifer Holm, Egan J Chernoff, 2018-10-24

This volume brings together recent research and commentary in secondary school mathematics from a breadth of contemporary Canadian and International researchers and educators It is both representative of mathematics education generally as well as unique to the particular geography and culture of Canada The chapters address topics of broad applicability such as technology in learning mathematics recent interest in social justice contexts in the learning of mathematics as well as Indigenous education The voices of classroom practitioners the group ultimately responsible for implementing this new vision of mathematics teaching and learning are not forgotten Each section includes a chapter written by a classroom teacher making this volume unique in its approach We have much to learn from one another and this volume takes the stance that the development of a united vision supported by both research and professional dialog provides the first step #ICT4HR Molly Land, Patrick Meier, 2012 The linkage between information and communication technologies ICT and human rights is a subject that has not received a lot of attention until recently A new report ICT for Human Rights is an effort to contribute to the studies in this field by providing new knowledge and experience of the nexus between protection and promotion of human rights and the use of ICT The study has been led by Professor Molly Land at New York Law School and her colleagues Within the World Bank Tiago Peixoto from the World Bank Institute WBI and Hans Otto Sano of the Nordic Trust Fund were involved in commissioning the work A series of consultations were held between the World Bank staff and Professor Land and her colleagues including other members of the writing team Patrick Meier Mark Belinsky and Emily Jacobi Patrick Boyle Christoph Doellefeld Adam Gartenberg Meredith Hutchison John Kelly Joe Raffanello and Carl Zander provided excellent research and drafting assistance After a review of the draft in May 2012 the final report was presented by Professor Land at a broader World Bank team on July 17th 2012 The study's co sponsor ICT4Gov ODTA project at the WBI has now run for nearly three years supported by the Nordic Trust Fund and directed by WBI's Senior Governance Specialist Boris Weber While most of the work of the project highlighted in this report focuses on country activities in the intersection of governance and human rights the report opens the space for learning at a general and cross cutting level including reports from a number of country case studies in Eastern Africa in Central America and globally

Dilemmas of Educational Ethics Meira Levinson, Jacob Fay, 2019-01-02 Educators and policy makers confront challenging questions of ethics justice and equity on a regular basis Should teachers retain a struggling student if it means she will most certainly drop out Should an assignment plan favor middle class families if it means strengthening the school system for all These everyday dilemmas are both utterly ordinary and immensely challenging yet there are few opportunities and resources to help educators think through the ethical issues at stake Drawing on research and methods developed in the Justice in Schools project at the Harvard Graduate School of Education Dilemmas of Educational Ethics introduces a new interdisciplinary approach to achieving practical wisdom in education one that honors the complexities inherent in educational decision making and encourages open discussion of the values and principles we should collectively be trying to realize in educational policy and practice At the heart of the book are six richly described realistic accounts of ethical dilemmas that have arisen in education in recent years paired with responses written by noted philosophers empirical researchers policy makers and practitioners including Pedro Noguera Howard Gardner Mary Pattillo Andres A Alonso Jamie Ahlberg Toby N Romer and Michael J Petrilli The editors illustrate how readers can use and adapt these cases and commentaries in schools and other settings in order to reach a difficult decision deepen their own understanding or to build teams around shared values
