Grade 6 Curriculum Guide Jamaica:

Inside Jamaican Schools Hyacinth L. Evans, 2001 Students and teachers of education in the Caribbean have long relied on ethnographic research from North America to enrich their understanding of life in schools and classrooms Based on actual experiences from the perspectives of both students and teachers this collection of ethnographic research articles provides the first up close view of Jamaican schools and classrooms Hyacinth Evans and her research team used careful well executed interviews and participant observation methods The result is an insightful view of the ways society's tensions are played out in educational settings the ways personalities are shaped and identities formed in face to face interactions and the ways circumstances and experiences in the Jamaican setting affect teaching and learning The articles examine Student teacher interaction Teacher authority how it is maintained nurtured or eroded The social construction of student interest and attention versus disruptiveness and apathy Consequences of streaming children in perceived ability groups Standard
