The Narrator, Daisy's cousin, Tom's old Yale classmate, Jordan's love interest, Gatsby's neighbor

2. Nick says, "I'm inclined to reserve all judgments," and he claims it's a matter of what? (p. 2)

3. Gatsby had a "distorted sensitivity to" what? (p. 2)

The promise of life.

Watch this guide and be ready to talk about it on the next (p. 2):

"It was a readiness such as I have never found in any other person and which it is not likely I shall ever find again. No—Gatsby turned out all right in the end; it is what proved on Gatsby, what soul that flowered in the wake of his dream that temporarily closed out my interest in the abjective sorrows and short-sighted elations of men."

4. How did Nick find his house? (p. 3)

A young man at his office suggested that they take a house together in a commuting town, but at the last minute their firm ordered him to Washington, so Nick went to the country alone.

West Egg (New Money) and Jay Gatsby

Daisy is Nick's second cousin once removed. Nick knew Tom from college.

7. Describe the Buchanan's' house. (p. 4)

It was even more elaborate than Nick expected. It was a cheerful red-and-white Georgian Colonial mansion that overlooked the bay. The lawn started at the beach and ran toward the front door for a quarter of a mile, jumping over sun-dials and brickwalks and burning gardens. It had French windows.

8. What is the first question Daisy asks Nick? (p. 4)

"Do they miss me?"

9. Every year Daisy waits for something, but what's it. What is it? (p. 4)

The longest day of the year.

The Pitfalls of Reform John Tanner, 2013-12-16 The systems that make up the accountability package in education standards assessments and the quality determination for a school have each entered the educational field under the explicit assumption by their creators that they would drive educator behavior in a positive way But what if that isn't actually the case What if each of the components was actually designed for another purpose entirely and now is tasked with a role that was never considered in its design If that is the case those who put the systems in place risk expecting a result that the system was never designed to produce That is exactly where we find ourselves today In education the misalignment between what the systems were designed to do and the intent of those who selected them is masked in the sheer complexity of the educational exercise What this book does so marvelously is unravel that complexity and present the contradictions in a clear coherent manner Understanding these contradictions is the first step towards actual improvement
