The Poetry of Pop Adam Bradley, 2017-01-01 From Tin Pan Alley to the Beatles to Beyoncé, Mr. Bradley skillfully breaks down a century of standards and pop songs into their elements to reveal the interaction of craft and art in composition and performance. The Wall Street Journal. Encompassing a century of recorded music, this pathbreaking book reveals the poetic artistry of popular songs. Pop songs are music first. They also comprise the most widely disseminated poetic expression of our time. Adam Bradley traces the song lyric across musical genres from early twentieth century Delta blues to mid-century rock n roll to today's hits. George and Ira Gershwin's Fascinating Rhythm, The Rolling Stones' I Can't Get No Satisfaction, Rihanna's Diamonds. These songs are united in their exacting attention to the craft of language and sound. Bradley shows that pop music is a poetry that must be heard more than read, uncovering the rhythms, rhymes, and metaphors expressed in the singing voice. At once a work of musical interpretation, cultural analysis, literary criticism, and personal storytelling, this book illustrates how words and music come together to produce compelling poetry, often where we least expect it.

The Vocabulary of Modern French Hilary Wise, 2003-10-04 The Vocabulary of Modern French provides a fresh insight into contemporary French. With this book, Hilary Wise offers the first comprehensive overview of the modern French vocabulary, its historical sources, formal organisation, and social and stylistic functions. Topics covered include external influences on the language, word formation, semantic change, style, and register. In addition, the author looks at the relationship between social and lexical change and examines attempts at intervention in the development of the language. Each chapter is concluded by notes for further reading and by suggestions for project work which are designed to increase awareness of specific lexical phenomena and enable the student reader to use lexicographic databases of all kinds. The Vocabulary of Modern French is an accessible and fascinating study of the relationship between a nation and its language, as well as providing a key text for all students of modern French.

Zones of Focused Ambiguity in Siri Hustvedt's Works Johanna Hartmann, Christine Marks, Hubert Zapf, 2016-05-10 This collection comprises essays from various interdisciplinary perspectives e.g. literary scholarship, intermediality, art history, psychoanalysis, philosophy and medicine to analyze and interpret the fictional and non-fictional works by Siri Hustvedt, an author whose reputation and public presence have been growing steadily in the 21st century and who is recognized as one of the most widely read and appreciated contemporary American writers. In her significance and stature as a public intellectual, she is not merely an American writer but a transnational cosmopolitan author who develops new forms not only of literary narrative but of interdisciplinary thought and writing, bringing together otherwise separated genres and branches of knowledge in a broad spectrum between literature and philosophy, historiography and art, psychoanalysis and neuroscience, narrative and medicine. The present volume is structured into the parts: Literary Creation and Communication, Psychoanalysis and Philosophy, Medicine and Narrative, Vision, Perception and Power, and Trauma, Memory and the Ambiguities of Self, and closes with an interview of Siri Hustvedt by Susanne Becker in which Hustvedt elucidates her personal conception of her own creative processes of writing.

Etymological Guide to the English Language John Wood (of Edinburgh.), 1837 English Words and Their Background George Harley McKnight, 1923 Acercamiento multidisciplinar para la investigación e intervención en contextos educativos MARIA DEL MAR PEREZ-FUENTES MOLERO JURADO (MARIA.), 2022-12-30 Jerusalem as Contested Space in Ezekiel Natalie Mylonas, 2023-05-18

Natalie Mylonas uses Ezekiel 16 as a case study in order to reveal the critical relationship between space, emotion and identity politics in the Hebrew Bible. Drawing on interdisciplinary research that emphasises how space and emotions are inextricably linked in human experience, Mylonas explores the portrayal of Yhwh's wife Jerusalem in Ezekiel 16 as a personified city who feels emotion. She foregrounds purity and gender issues as well as debates on emotions in the Hebrew Bible, emphasising that spatiality is a key component of how these issues are conceptualised in ancient Israel. This book argues that the power struggle between Jerusalem and Yhwh in Ezekiel 16 is a struggle over the contested space of Jerusalem's body and the city space. Jerusalem's emotions are in a dynamic relationship with the spaces in the text; they are signified by these spaces, shift as the constitution of the spaces shifts, and are shaped by Jerusalem's use of space. Her desire, pride and shamelessness are communicated spatially through her use of city space, while her representation as disgusting is underscored by her uncontrollable female body. Mylonas concludes by showing how Ezekiel's vision of the new Jerusalem in Ezekiel 40-48 re-establishes sacred space through the erasure of the feminine city metaphor coupled with strict boundary policing, which is a far cry from the assault on Jerusalem's boundaries described in Ezekiel 16.
