The Secret Agent's Pocket Manual Stephen Bull, 2017-12-21 Most wars have had some element of espionage and subterfuge but few have included as much as the Second World War where the all embracing nature of the conflict new technology and the battle of ideologies conspired to make almost everywhere a war zone The occupation of much of Europe in particular left huge areas that could be exploited Partisans spies and saboteurs risked everything in a limbo where the normal rules of war were usually suspended Concealment of oneself one's weapons and equipment was vital and so were the new methods and hardware which were constantly evolving in a bid to stay ahead of the Gestapo and security services Silent killing disguise covert communications and the arts of guerrilla warfare were all advanced as the war progressed With the embodiment and expansion of organisations such as the British SOE and the American OSS and the supply of special forces units which operated behind enemy lines clandestine warfare became a permanent part of the modern military and political scene Perhaps surprisingly many of these hitherto secret techniques and pieces of equipment were put into print at the time and many examples are now becoming available This manual brings together a selection of these dark arts and extraordinary objects and techniques in their original form under one cover to build up an authentic picture of the Allied spy The Miracle Michael Gurian, 2003-05-22 From bestselling author Michael Gurian comes a spiritual thriller that will change the way you look at the world forever The car crash that killed Jeffrey a child of prophecy was a dreadful tragedy But for the twelve witnesses to this terrible moment it was an incident that set off a string of spiritual awakenings and inexplicable miracles that would forever transform their lives For Beth Carey and the others including a serial murderer who calls himself the Light Killer the events of that late summer evening pulled back the veil that separates life and death Though all witnessed the same doorway of light open over the dying boy's body only Beth will discover the invisible world that binds all human life together As she evolves into the new human forecast centuries ago by St Teresa of Avila and as the Light Killer confronts inner storms of human evil forty eight hours of miracles reveal the poignant faces of human vulnerability and the hidden face of God Vivid often breathtaking The Miracle is part old fashioned mystery part new age revelation A fascinating and dramatic look at the subtle links between all life it offers an answer to the greatest mystery of them all Mytholudics Dom Ford, 2025-04-21 Games create worlds made of many different elements but also of rules systems and structures for how we act in them So how can we make sense of them Mytholudics Games and Myth lays out an approach to understanding games using theories from myth and folklore Myth is taken here not as an object but as a process a way of expressing meaning It works to naturalise arbitrary constellations of signs to connect things in meaning Behind the phrase just the way it is is a process of mythologization that has cemented it Mytholudics lays out how this understanding of myth works for the analysis of games In two sections each analysing five digital games it then shows how this approach works in practice one through the lens of heroism and one through monstrosity These ask questions such as what heroic mythology is constructed in Call of Duty What do the monsters in The Witcher tell us about the game's model of the world How does Hellblade Senua's Sacrifice weave a conflict between Norse and Pictish mythology into one between competing models of seeing mental illness This method helps to see games and their worlds in the whole Stories gameplay systems rules spatial configurations and art styles can all be considered together as contributing to the meaning of the game Lloyd's Register of Yachts 1896 Lloyd's Register Foundation,1896-01-01 The Lloyd's Register of Yachts was first issued in 1878 and was issued annually until 1980 except during the years 1916-18 and 1940-46 Two supplements containing additions and corrections were also issued annually The Register contains the names details and characters of Yachts classed by the Society together with the particulars of other Yachts which are considered to be of interest illustrates plates of the Flags of Yacht and Sailing Clubs together with a List of Club Officers an illustrated List of the Distinguishing Flags of Yachtsmen a List of the Names and Addresses of Yacht Owners and much other information For more information on the Lloyd's Register of Yachts please click here <https://lloydsregister.org.uk/archive/library/lloyds-register-of-yachts-online>

Sniping Rifles in the War Against Japan 1941-45 John Walter,2024-02-15 Fully illustrated this absorbing study explores the evolving sniping technology and tactics employed by both sides in Asia and the Pacific during 1941-45 During World War II both the Japanese and their Allied opponents made widespread use of snipers armed with a variety of rifles scopes and accessories and prepared by widely differing levels of training and tactical doctrine The challenges of fighting in a variety of harsh environments from the Pacific islands to the vast expanses of China prompted improvisation and innovation on both sides in the ongoing war between snipers and their adversaries Often operating at relatively close ranges in restrictive terrain snipers made particularly ingenious use of camouflage and deception as the fighting spread across Asia and the Pacific in the wake of the Pearl Harbor attack while troops tasked with countering enemy marksmen had to learn the hard way how best to defeat a seemingly invisible enemy Small arms expert John Walter considers the strengths and limitations of the rifles scopes and accessories deployed by Japanese snipers and their Allied counterparts as well as their different approaches to sniping tactics and training Specially commissioned artwork and carefully chosen photographs illustrate this enthralling study of the sniping war in Asia and the Pacific during World War II

Limits of Empire Simon Forty, Jonathan Forty, 2022-01-14 The borders of the Roman Empire were frontiers that were often wild and dangerous The expansion of the empire after the Punic Wars saw the Roman Republic become the dominant force in the Mediterranean as it first took Carthaginian territories in Gaul Spain and north Africa and then moved into Greece with purpose subjugating the area and creating two provinces Achaëa and Macedonia The growth of the territories under Roman control continued through the rise of Julius Caesar who conquered the rest of Gaul and the establishment of the empire each of the emperors could point to territories annexed and lands won By AD 117 and the accession of Hadrian the empire had reached its peak It held sway from Britain to Morocco from Spain to the Black Sea And its wealth was coveted by those outside its borders Just as today those from poorer countries try to make their way into Europe or North America so those outside the empire wanted to make their way into the Promised Land for trade for improvement of their lives or for plunder Thus the Roman borders became a mix just as our borders are today of defensive bulwark against enemies but also control areas where import and export taxes were levied and entrance was controlled Some of these borders were hard the early equivalents of the Inner German Border or Trump's Wall Hadrian's Wall and the line between the Rhine and Danube Others such as these two great rivers were natural borders that the Romans policed with their navy This book examines these frontiers of the empire looking at the way they were constructed and manned and how that changed over the years It looks at the physical barriers from the walls in Britain to the Fossatum Africae in the desert It looks at the traders and the prices that were paid for the traffic of goods It looks at the way that civil settlements vici grew up around the forts and fortlets and what life was like for soldiers sailors and civilians As well as artefacts of the period the book provides a guidebook to top Roman museums and a gazetteer of visitable sites

Nambu Pistols John Walter, 2023-04-27 This is the absorbing story of the handguns credited to Nambu Kijiro the principal personal defence weapons of the Imperial forces Featuring full color artwork and carefully chosen photographs this book charts the origins development combat use and legacy of the Nambu pistols Cutaway artwork reveals the inner workings of these important handguns while specially commissioned battlescenes depict them in use in action Influenced by the German C 96 and other semi automatic pistols the first Nambu model was never accepted for universal issue being confined largely to purchase by Japanese officers Adopted in 1925 the 14th Year

Type was to become the best known of these handguns serving in every campaign undertaken by the Japanese in the 1930s and then throughout World War II. It served alongside the bizarrely conceived Type 94 intended as the weapon of airmen tank crew and anyone to whom its compact dimensions were useful. When World War II ended thousands of Nambu pistols arrived in America with US veterans of World War II while others were carried by insurgents and other armed groups across South East Asia for decades after 1945. Fully illustrated this is the engrossing story of these distinctive pistols from their origins to their legacy.

A Sense of Urgency Debra Hawhee, 2023-06-08 A study of how the climate crisis is changing human communication from a celebrated rhetorician. Why is it difficult to talk about climate change? Debra Hawhee argues that contemporary rhetoric relies on classical assumptions about humanity and history that cannot conceive of the present crisis. How do we talk about an unprecedented future or represent planetary interests without privileging our own species? A Sense of Urgency explores four emerging answers: their sheer novelty, a record of both the devastation and possible futures of climate change, in developing the arts of magnitude, presence, witness and feeling. A Sense of Urgency invites us to imagine new ways of thinking with our imperiled planet.

Yearbook American Canoe Association, 1891 The Next Valley Over Charles Gaines, 2017-07-25 Acclaimed sporting and adventure writer Charles Gaines has spent much of his life on the water around the world fishing: rod in hand, angling for trout, redfish, salmon, bonefish, bass, marlin, tuna and practically everything else that swims. Just about any place where there's water to fish and eccentrics to keep him company. Gaines has been The Next Valley Over a collection of his best writing on fishing from his long and storied career is culled from the pages of Men's Journal, Forbes and Sports Illustrated among other publications and ultimately is about the heart of the sport. While his stories are lined with the accoutrement of angling, the art of technique, the equipment, the lodges, the fish themselves, they're really about why we love to fish and what it means to our culture. As Thoreau once said, "Many men go fishing all their lives without knowing that it is not fish they are after." What they are after is what Charles is curious about, and he has devoted the better part of his life and sanity to coming up with answers. Starting and ending at the majestic Lake Tadpole in St. Clair County, Alabama, where Gaines's love of fishing was initially sparked, the Next Valley Over chronicles exploits in exotic locations with eccentric characters. In the process of his quest of nearly every species known to man, Gaines explores what we are really searching for when we fish.

Lure of the Mountains Michael D. Lowes, 2014-05-15 Lure of the Mountains is the first published biography of accomplished photographer, ornithologist, teacher and 1924 Everest expedition member Bentley Beetham, 1886-1963. Written by the late Michael D. Lowes, a pupil of Beetham's at Barnard Castle School in County Durham and with a foreword by Graham Ratcliffe MBE, the first Briton to have summited Everest from both the North and South sides, and also a pupil of Barnard Castle School, Lure of the Mountains charts Beetham's life from childhood in Darlington to rock climbing in the Lake District to his selection by the Mount Everest Committee as a member of the infamous and ill-fated 1924 Everest Expedition on which George Mallory and Sandy Irvine disappeared high on the mountain. Many of Beetham's images, including those made on the 1924 expedition, were for over 25 years curated by Michael Lowes.

and are reproduced in this book with the kind permission of the Bentley Beetham Trust and Durham University His images of Tibet are an important historical record of Tibetan culture and a way of life that in modern times has rapidly begun to disappear Beetham was a highly skilled rock climber and a pioneer of new routes in the Borrowdale Valley where he established such notable climbs as Little Chamonix on Shepherd s Crag and Corvus on Raven Crag The author like many other pupils Beetham inspired was introduced to climbing by his teacher in the Lake District on club trips and over the years he became a valuable source of information and expert on Beetham s life and work
