

In Cold Blood* – Study Guide – Section One

“The Last to See Them Alive”

Please read the entire section before answering questions, and make sure you use quotes from the book (quoted correctly) to back up your answers.

1. Capote spends quite a bit of time describing the “village” of Holcomb, Kansas. Find at least one simile in his description. Explain the main purpose(s) in the first five pages of the book.

There are several similar to students might pick, for example: “a white cluster of grain elevators rising as gracefully as Greek temples on a hillside. . .” The main purpose(s) in the first three pages is the difference in Holcomb before and after the “four shot gun blasts” – the town tranquil and boring – after that, everyone was suspicious of one another.

2. Capote says that the “lines of mistrust (p.3) were etched in Holcomb. Explain why this statement is true.

This statement is proven to be true throughout this section as the townspeople start mistrusting each other. There are several instances the students can cite, one of the best examples is, “The man in the airplane. The one Herb used for creating one his fruit trees. If it wasn't him, maybe it was you. Or somebody across the street. All the neighbors are mathematicians. . .” (10)

3. What is “River Valley Farm”? Describe it. Who lives there?

River Valley Farm was Herb Clutter's farm. It was a large farm of over 3000 acres. Mrs. Clutter's domain consisted of over 800 acres owned outright and three thousand more worked on a rental basis” (27). There was three barns. He had several different crops and several different types of livestock. It was bordered by a river and fruit orchards.

4. Describe Herbert Clutter; what sort of man, father, and business man is he?

Herb Clutter was 48-year-old. He was in good health and good physical shape. “Mr. Clutter cut a man's-man figure. His shoulders were broad, his hair had held its dark color; his square jawed, confident face retained a healthy-lined youthfulness. . .” (6) He was a good father; his children loved him. He was a great businessman. He was wealthy and well-respected in his town, and even by some people around the country as he had once worked for the department of Agriculture. He was “an educated man successful in his profession, an an ardent Republican and church leader. . .” (24)
