from we get numerous details on the social life working conditions wages and other aspects of life of people who earned their livelihood through manual labour as conditions in India appeared novel to them and they meticulously recorded everything with much interest Their information is corroborated with the Indian sources In both types of sources Persian and European artisans labourers and service providers have generally been projected as poor miserable and wretched who faced exploitation at all levels Still their contribution to the economy and society was imperative Aspects of life of such people deserve a detailed discussion as this volume amply proves Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

The Invisible Hand Matthew R. Longo, 2025-04-15 How the invisible hand of the nervous system makes the human hand such an evolutionary success The hand has a central role in both human evolution and cultural development in our descent and in our ascent It is Immanuel Kant said the visible part of the brain It is the invisible that concerns Matthew Longo in The Invisible Hand a wide ranging deftly written account of the neural and cognitive mechanisms that have made a seemingly ordinary physical appendage an extraordinary tool in the evolution of humanity The hand has been the focus of an enormous amount of research from a dizzying range of disciplines from anatomy psychology and neuroscience to evolutionary biology and archaeology With the concept of the invisible hand Longo integrates and contextualizes the findings from these disparate fields to show how the neurocognitive mechanisms that comprise the invisible hand are central to understanding a wide array of phenomena including basic sensory and motor function space perception gesture and even the self More generally he contends that the extraordinary abilities of the hand arise precisely from the complementary nature and tight integration of the visible and invisible hands a proposition that leads deep into topics as diverse as haptics tool use handedness phantom limbs and evolution His work elucidates and significantly expands a key chapter of the story of human evolution and culture as manifested in the human hand

Interior Design and Identity Susie McKellar, Penny Sparke, 2004-11-27 This chronologically arranged set of case studies looks at how interior design has constantly redefined itself as a manifestation of culture from the eighteenth century to the present day The book looks at the amateur activities of female home makers in search of creative outlets and married couples seeking to modernize their homes as well as the contributions of early professional female interior decorators and later male interior designers It also considers the more anonymous role of commercial enterprises such as hairdressing salons cruise ships or modern offices Issues relating to interiority gender and the relationship of the public sphere are also considered opening up a new level of design historical enquiry

A Companion to Seals in the Middle Ages, 2019-02-11 A Companion to Seals in the Middle Ages is a cross disciplinary collection of fourteen essays on medieval sigillography It is organized thematically and it emphasizes important often cutting edge methodologies for the study of medieval seals and sealing cultures As the chronological temporal and geographic scope of the essays in the volume suggests the study of the medieval seal its manufacture materiality usage iconography inscription and preservation is a rich endeavour that demands collaboration across disciplines as well as between scholars working on material from different regions and periods It is hoped that this collection will make the study of medieval seals more accessible and will stimulate students and scholars to employ and further develop these material and methodological approaches to seals Contributors are Adrian Ailes Elka Cwiernia Paul Dryburgh Emir O Filipovi Oliver Harris Philippa Hoskin Ashley Jones Andreas Lehnertz John McEwan Elizabeth A New Jonathan Shea Caroline Simonet Angelina A Volkoff and Marek L W jcik Turkey and Its Destiny Charles MacFarlane,1850 Selection of Reports and Papers of the House of Commons ,1836
