

FIFTY YEARS OF THE KOHLER CO. OBSERVED WITH BIG FESTIVAL

pavilion. And a big athletic program was carried out. John Weber's "Prize Band of America" played concerts both afternoon and evening, and the Kohler Band, under the leadership of the veteran Director John Schmidt, also contributed a concert.

Food Is a Feature

It is rather hard to single out any one feature of the festival as enjoying the highest regard of the crowd, but the first hot hamburger stands gave everything else a close race. An unbelievable amount of these delicacies was consumed, on the authority of the Recreation club. It is a fact that the club, in its order of a general percentage of excess over the consumption at the festival last year and 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon the supply was so seriously threatened with exhaustion that additional orders had to be placed with the various supply houses.

The same can be said of such other dainties as ice cream, crack-cakes and Chiffon cakes, which were liberally inroads on the food supply.

Emergency Arrangements

The Recreation club had excellent emergency arrangements. There was a rest room for women in the corner of the first of the hotel rooms was fitted as a nursery for babies. This was one of the most effectively run in the village. A professional nurse and several volunteer assistants were present all day to attend to the needs of the youngsters, to aid mothers in any emergency which may be necessary with babies from time to time.

And one lost baby was turned in a fat, blue-eyed little one. The child was not really lost, but had been left in a room for a while and had awakened in advance of schedule, which was not to be wondered at when with a merry sound around organ and the talk of those around it was going on at a certain time in the nursery when one observer called and did not seem to see the child.

There was only one small slip in the arrangements of the entertainment program opened on the dancing floor adjoining the Casino. The professional entertainers announced to appear did not make good, but the other numbers were well enjoyed.

The Smith Sisters, two tiny dancers, were really remarkable in their performance, doing intricate toe dancing evolutions with all the grace of the most expert danseuse. The women in the big crowd thought the youngsters particularly "cute" and they made a pronounced hit.

Another feature of a remarkable contortionist, and Alfred Burkhardt, a trick cyclist, featuring the high and low wheel, and the remainder of the program and scored heavily with the crowd. The platform was thrown open to the music of the Marquardt's orchestra. Dancing continued till 7:30, and after a social hour and the band concert was resumed at 10 o'clock, continuing till midnight.

It was an unusual feature, in that it was contributed by a resident of the village. It was the exhibition of aviation by a plane from Sheboygan Airport, of which Captain E. R. Schiller, organization, president of the village, is the owner.

Amusement for Everyone

The amusements in the afternoon were so arranged that anyone might enjoy them. The first of these was agreeably. Weber's band was playing on the midway of having the three other bands and band managers were engaged in a baseball game. For the first time the league sold the Kohler and American Chair teams of the Manufacturer's League. A better brand of ball there was dancing on the pavilion floor, a tennis tournament was in progress. The Kohler band played later in the afternoon, the concession stands were selling out refreshments. The amusements for the children were in full blast. The invited guests could spend some time examining the Kohler Co. exhibits and exhibits, the sale of which throughout the world makes the big festival possible. The exhibits, however, could not be seen at once, but the thing most attractive to the individual was the collection of exhibits, out the crowd and avoiding crushes.

The Crowning Event

Crowning the festival, epitomizing it as a happy gathering of Kohler people and their friends was the concert by the Weber band in the nature theatre in the evening. Above the theatre was a magnificent cluster of lights, suspended from a stage, making in the pine, a veritable bouquet of brilliance, a sort of "electric light plant" as one facetious observer described it. There were similar clusters on standards surrounding the theatre and his color is fluted Old Glory with its color emblazoned in the rays of three immense search lights streaming from as many directions.

The band was seated below the big cluster and Director Weber, resplendent in his white costume of ceremony, presided over the concert with an almost paternal as he made his group of musicians respond to his baton.

The program was on a higher plane than is usual with band concerts, including selections from Guonod, Offenbach and Verdi, interspersed with compositions by modern composers of the day. It may be that the crowd likes the "Orpheus" overture rather better than any other that was played, probably because of its familiarity and also because of the spirit and the melody of the well known coda. At the conclusion of this number the Nature theatre was the scene of a great event.

The crowd was the largest ever assembled in this immense natural amphitheatre for a number of years. It had been provided immediately in front of the theatre, a great grassy brook on the west side of the ravine. But these cared for only a comparatively small portion of the crowd. The others sat on the encircling hillsides, in no discomfort at all. They watched the band with note of the Star Spangled Banner and left the theatre with reluctance.

The quality of the band was revealed about as well through its performance of a Tobani arrangement of "The Merry Widow" and operas as the Barber of Seville, Faust, "The Trovatore" and several others. These fragments were to a great extent familiar to the crowd, and the better informed musicianly crowd delight in the variety of instrumentation employed in the pot purri of the program.

A demonstration of Weber's skill in arrangement was seen in Godfrey's "The Merry Widow" and a medley of jigs, reels, strathspeys and old loved songs. It almost set the crowd to dancing on the hill sides.

The veteran director and his musicians were greeted with a glory in their two concerts and added thousands of new admirers to their already long list.

Outstanding features of the concert were the solos of the cornet solos of Frank Simon and the soprano solos of Miss Katherine Hill.

Mr. Simon came as an old friend. He had played at Kohler some years ago in the Sheboygan Band. On the two occasions Saturday he was given an ovation, a sort of "Welcome Home" and Mr. Simon justified the high opinion in which he is held at Kohler. ease and authority of a xylophone. Ordinarily only among violinists, cellists and pianists are found musicians with such instrumental mastery and that displayed by Mr. Simon over his admittedly most difficult instrument.

And Miss Hoch won a place in Kohler hearts also. In the afternoon she sang a Strauss song, in the evening the big soprano aria from "La Traviata." Singing in the open makes special demands upon the artist, especially when accompanied by a military band. It involves volume and clarity of tone and Miss Hoch possesses and her golden notes soared out to the crowd the still air with a penetration remarkable in the circumstances. Physically and vocally, Miss Hoch is an ideal singer for occasions such as this and she achieved on this occasion a personal triumph.

Baseball Game

The annual baseball game between the Branch Managers and the Home Office teams was one of the interesting events of the festival.

Coming from behind with a sudden spur in the final inning, the Home Office team defeated the Branch Managers, 12 to 10. The game was closely fought from the very beginning. It was a nip and tuck business for both teams. The Home Office took the box of cigars away with the Branch Managers promising to return the same next year and take the prize. The score:
