M. Gasper, Francis Watson, Matthew R. Crawford, 2017-06-26 Producing Christian Culture takes as its thread the interpretative genres within which medieval people engaged with the Bible Contributors to the volume present specific material as a case study illustrative of a specific genre whether devotional homiletical scholarly or controversial The chronological range moves from St Augustine to the use of gospel texts in polemical writing of the first two decades of the 1500s with focal sections on early medieval Anglo Saxon and Carolingian theology the scholastic turn of the High Middle Ages and the influence of vernacular writing in the later Middle Ages The tremendous range and vitality of medieval responses to biblical texts are highlighted within the studies Canones: The Art of Harmony Alessandro Bausi, Bruno Reudenbach, Hanna Wimmer, 2020-11-23 The so called Canon Tables of the Christian Gospels are an absolutely remarkable feature of the early late antique and medieval Christian manuscript cultures of East and West the invention of which is commonly attributed to Eusebius and dated to first decades of the fourth century AD Intended to host a technical device for structuring organizing and navigating the Four Gospels united in a single codex and in doing so building upon and bringing to completion previous endeavours the Canon Tables were apparently from the beginning a highly complex combination of text numbers and images that became an integral and fixed part of all the manuscripts containing the Four Gospels as Sacred Scripture of the Christians and can be seen as exemplary for the formation development and spreading of a specific Christian manuscript culture across East and West AD 300 and 800 In the footsteps of Carl Nordenfalk's masterly publication of 1938 and few following contributions this book offers an updated overview on the topic of Canon Tables in a comparative perspective and with a precise look at their context of origin their visual appearance their meaning function and their usage in different times domains and cultures
