

Soccer: My life

Hi everybody, you can call me zen or Z. well at my school i dont meet a lot of ppl who love soccer. i love soccer and if you take it away from me its like your taking my breath away. Right now im injured so i feel like i can't breathe and i am sad because my sister gets to play and i don't.
Now every time i play i have to put ice on it afterwards.
I just i feel like i've let my team down because they need someone who is really fast(like me) and i just feel really bad not to be playing. Everytime i play i feel like i can touch the sky but since im not playing i feel useless. I just want to get better so i can play with my team and play for my school. The only thing i mostly do is play soccer and since i can't right now i pretty much don't have anything to do. I love soccer so much and i love all of my soccer friends and they love me so much. I'm the coaches daughter so i have to go to every game and when i see my sister play my heart breaks into a million pieces because i can't do what i love <3

Metaphors of ANGER across Languages: Universality and Variation Zoltan Kövecses, Réka Benczes, Veronika Széld, 2024-11-04. Anger is one of the basic emotions of human emotional experience, informing and guiding many of our choices and actions. Although it has received considerable scholarly attention in a number of disciplines, including linguistics, a basic question has still remained unresolved: why do variations in the folk model of anger exist across languages if it is indeed a basic emotion rooted in largely universal bodily experience? By drawing on a wide selection of comparable linguistic data from dozens of languages, including a number of less researched languages, this volume provides the most comprehensive account of what is universal and what is variable in the folk model of anger and why. It also investigates the role that metonymies might play in the emergence of anger related metaphors and in what ways context influences or shapes anger metaphors and thereby the resulting folk model of anger. No such volume exists in the cognitive linguistic literature on anger or on emotions for that matter. The book is thus an essential contribution to the study of anger and will serve as basic reading for any researcher interested in how the conceptualization of anger is constructed via the interplay of bodily experience, language, and the larger cultural context.
