Transcontinental Dialogues R. Aída Hernández Castillo, Suzi Hutchings, Brian Noble, 2019-04-09 Transcontinental Dialogues brings together Indigenous and non Indigenous anthropologists from Mexico Canada and Australia who work at the intersections of Indigenous rights advocacy and action research These engaged anthropologists explore how obligations manifest in differently situated alliances how they respond to such obligations and the consequences for anthropological practice and action This volume presents a set of pieces that do not take the usual political or geographic paradigms as their starting point instead the particular dialogues from the margins presented in this book arise from a rejection of the geographic hierarchization of knowledge in which the Global South continues to be the space for fieldwork while the Global North is the place for its systematization and theorization Instead contributors in Transcontinental Dialogues delve into the interactions between anthropologists and the people they work with in Canada Australia and Mexico This framework allows the contributors to explore the often unintended but sometimes devastating impacts of government policies such as land rights legislation or justice initiatives for women on Indigenous people s lives Each chapter s author reflects critically on their own work as activist scholars They offer examples of the efforts and challenges that anthropologists Indigenous and non Indigenous confront when producing knowledge in alliances with Indigenous peoples Mi kmaq land rights pan Maya social movements and Aboriginal title claims in rural and urban areas are just some of the cases that provide useful ground for reflection on and critique of challenges and opportunities for scholars policy makers activists allies and community members This volume is timely and innovative for using the disparate anthropological traditions of three regions to explore how the interactions between anthropologists and Indigenous peoples in supporting Indigenous activism have the potential to transform the production of knowledge within the historical colonial traditions of anthropology

Christology, Science of Health and Happiness Oliver Corwin Sabin, 1901 The Congregational Review, 1866 Radical Underworld Iain McCalman, 1988-03-03 This highly acclaimed study draws on information from spy reports and contemporary literature to look at English popular radicalism during the period between the anti-Jacobin government Terror of the 1790s and the beginnings of Chartism. The book traces for the first time the history of the underground revolutionary republican grouping founded by the agrarian reformer Thomas Spence. Challenging conventional distinctions between high and low culture, McCalman illuminates the darker, more populist sides of Romanticism. Radical Underworld broadens the conventional boundaries of popular politics and culture by exploring a political underworld connected with poverty, crime, prophetic religion, and literary culture.
