FREE APPLICATION for FEDERAL STUDENT AID

Use this form to apply free for federal and state student grants, work-study and loans.

Or apply free online at www.fafsa.gov.

Applying by the Deadlines

For federal aid, submit your application as early as possible, but no earlier than January 1, 2014. We must receive your application no later than June 30, 2015. Your college must have your correct, complete information by your last day of enrollment in the 2014-2015 school year.

For state or college aid, the deadline may be as early as January 2014. See the table to the right for state deadlines. You may also need to complete additional forms.

Check with your high school guidance counselor or a financial aid administrator at your college about state and college sources of student aid and deadlines.

If you are filing close to one of these deadlines, we recommend you file online at www.fafsa.gov. This is the fastest and easiest way to apply for aid.

Using Your Tax Return

We recommend that you complete and submit your FAFSA as soon as possible on or after January 1, 2014. If you (or your parents) need to file a 2013 income tax return with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), and have not done so yet, you can submit your FAFSA now using estimated tax information, and then you must correct that information after you file your return.

The easiest way to complete or correct your FAFSA with accurate tax information is by using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool through www.fafsa.gov. In a few simple steps, most students and parents who filed a 2013 tax return can view and transfer their tax return information directly into their FAFSA.

A Dream Defaulted Jason N. Houle, Fenaba R. Addo, 2022-08-16 A Dream Defaulted explores how the student loan crisis disproportionately affects Black borrowers and why rising student debt is both a cause and consequence of social inequality in the United States Jason N Houle and Fenaba R Addo offer a deft analysis of the growing financial crisis in education examining its sources and its impacts Based on more than five years of ongoing qualitative and quantitative research this incisive work illustrates how the student loan system has not benefited all students equally The authors tell the story of how first generation college students low income students and students of color are disadvantaged in two opposing phases of the process debt accumulation and debt repayment They further demonstrate that policies intended to mitigate financial burden and prevent default have failed to assist the people who most need help Houle and Addo present these social and racial disparities within a broader context tracing how centuries of institutionalized racism have contributed to social and economic inequities perpetuating the racial wealth gap and leading to intergenerational inequality Through interviews with borrowers they illuminate the ways in which racial disparities affect who has college access how and why people take on debt and who has the ability to repay student loan debt after leaving college Recognizing that the affordability crisis cannot be solved by higher education reform alone Houle and Addo consider solutions They argue that policy must extend beyond debt reduction and financial aid to address entrenched patterns of racial inequality and racial discrimination both inside and outside institutions of higher education
