WITS: The 'Open' Years Bruce Murray, 2022-09 In the period between the outbreak of World War II in 1939 and the enactment of university apartheid by the Nationalist Government in 1959 the University of the Witwatersrand Johannesburg Wits developed as an open university admitting students of all races This the second volume of the history of Wits by historian Bruce Murray has as its central theme the process by which Wits became open the compromises this process entailed and the defence the University mounted to preserve its open status in the face of the challenges posed by the Nationalist Government The University's institutional autonomy is highlighted by Yunus Ballim in his preface to the centenary edition of WITS The Open Years He writes The emerging posture of a university willing to rise in defence of academic freedom was important because this was to become infused into the institutional culture of Wits The book looks at the University's role in South Africa's war effort its contribution to the education of ex volunteers after the war its leading role in training job seeking professionals required by a rapidly expanding economy and the rise of research and postgraduate study Students feature prominently through their political activities the flourishing of a student intelligentsia the heyday of the Remember and Give Rag parade rugby intervarsity and the stunning success of Wits sportsmen and women WITS The Open Years paints a vivid picture of the range of personalities who enlivened the campus among them some well known figures in the new South Africa The book includes chapters by Alf Stadler who was Professor of Political Studies at Wits and the author of The Political Economy of Modern South Africa and Jonty Winch former Sports Officer at Wits and the author of Wits Sport African Activists in a Decolonising World Ismay Milford, 2023-03-09 A history of global decolonisation and anticolonialism told through East and Central African activists in the 1950s and 1960s Govan Mbeki Colin Bundy, 2013-04-09 Govan Mbeki 1910 2001 was a core leader of the African National Congress the Communist Party and the armed wing of the ANC during the struggle against apartheid Known as a hard liner Mbeki was a prolific writer and combined in a rare way the attributes of intellectual and activist political theorist and practitioner Sentenced to life in prison in 1964 along with Nelson Mandela and others he was sent to the notorious Robben Island prison where he continued to write even as tension grew between himself Mandela and other leaders over the future of the national liberation movement As one of the greatest leaders of the antiapartheid movement and the father of Thabo Mbeki president of South Africa from 1999 to 2008 the elder Mbeki holds a unique position in South African politics and history This biography by noted historian Colin Bundy goes beyond the narrative details of his long life it analyzes his thinking expressed in his writings over fifty years Bundy helps establish what is distinctive about Mbeki as African nationalist and as committed Marxist and more than any other leader of the liberation movement he sought to link theory and practice ideas and action Drawing on exclusive interviews Bundy did with Mbeki careful analysis of his writings and the range of scholarship about his life this biography is personal reflective thoroughly researched and eminently readable Chris Hani Hugh Macmillan, 2021-02-15 This biography shows how Black political leader Chris Hani's life and death were pivotal to ending apartheid and to establishing a democratic government in South Africa. Chris Hani is one of the most iconic figures in South Africa's history as a leader within the African National Congress (ANC) and as chief of staff of uMkhonto we Sizwe, the armed wing of the ANC. His assassination in 1993 by a far-right militant threatened negotiations to end apartheid and install a democratic government. Serious tensions followed the assassination, leading Nelson Mandela to address the nation in an effort to avert further violence. "Tonight I am reaching out to every single South African, black and white, from the very depths of my being. A white man full of prejudice and hate came to our country and committed a deed so foul that our whole nation now teeters on the brink of disaster. A white woman of Afrikaner origin risked her life so that we may know and bring to justice this assassin. The cold-blooded murder of Chris Hani has sent shock waves throughout the country and the world. Now is the time for all South Africans to stand together against those who from any quarter wish to destroy what Chris Hani gave his life for: the freedom of all of us." Hugh Macmillan's concise biography details Hani's important role in shaping twentieth-century South African history.

Biko Xolela Mangcu, 2013-09-20. Steve Biko was an exceptional and inspirational leader, a pivotal figure in South African history. As a leading anti-apartheid activist and thinker, Biko created the Black Consciousness Movement, the grassroots organisation which would mobilise a large proportion of the black urban population. His death in police custody at the age of just 30 robbed South Africa of one of its most gifted leaders. Although the rudimentary facts of his life and death are well known, there has until now been no in-depth book on this major political figure and the impact of his life and tragic death. Xolela Mangcu, who knew Biko, provides the first in-depth look at the life of one of the most iconic figures of the anti-apartheid movement, whose legacy is still felt strongly today both in South Africa and worldwide in the global struggle for civil rights.

Public Relations Management in Africa Volume 2 Albert A. Anani-Bossman, Takalani E. Mudzanani, Cornelius B. Pratt, Isaac A. Blankson, 2023-07-19. This two-part volume, the first of its kind, examines current pedagogical modules and research directions in public relations and communication management, identifying emerging issues driving the practice in Africa. In comparison to its Western and Asian counterparts, literature on public relations management in Africa is limited, and much of it is examined through the lenses of Western philosophies and pedagogies failing to reflect Africa's socioeconomic, political, and cultural contexts. This project aims to change that. Albert Volume 2 brings together African scholars moving beyond organizational impact to share the wider theoretical and practical perspectives on the practice of public relations on the continent within its cultural, global, and technological milieu. Through conceptual discussions and empirical analyses, this volume shows how Africa is gradually coming out of the shadows of the Western world by building a body of knowledge that reflects the nature of public relations management on the continent. Chapters cover how public relations contributes to strategic management in Africa, health communication, and public relations management, strategic management of issues, as well as the implications of the fourth industrial revolution for public relations practice in Africa Lantern ,1958 The Fires Beneath Seán Morrow,2016-06-01 The life of Monica Wilson is a story of groundbreaking scholarship passionate creativity and personal tragedy during South Africa's bitter and divided twentieth century As a young anthropologist in the 1930s Monica immersed herself in the lives work and beliefs of African communities in southern and East Africa while carefully observing the effects of historical change At the core of her existence was her intellectual collaboration and intense personal relationship with her husband the brilliant but clinically depressive Godfrey Wilson who took his own life in 1944 After Godfrey's death Monica raised their two children and built a career as a leading academic at Fort Hare Rhodes University College and the University of Cape Town In a political environment where black academics were under constant threat and ideas were censored she outspokenly advocated racial equality and freedom of speech her publications emphasising a common South African identity and implicitly challenging apartheid separate development This fascinating biography moves between the Eastern Cape Cambridge Tanganyika Nyasaland Northern Rhodesia and Cape Town It explores the relationship between anthropology and history and the tensions between liberalism Christianity Marxism and apartheid ideology Drawing on the letters and diaries left by Monica and Godfrey Wilson this is a powerful story about politics race war faith love and loss How to spend a month in Ireland, and what it will cost Sir Cusack Patrick Roney,1874 Mandela Martin Meredith,2010-03-30 Nelson Mandela stands out as one of the most admired political figures of the twentieth century It was his leadership and moral courage above all that helped to deliver a peaceful end to apartheid in South Africa after years of racial division and violence and to establish a fledgling democracy there Martin Meredith's vivid portrayal of this towering leader was originally acclaimed as an exemplary work of biography instructive illuminating as well as felicitously written Kirkus Reviews providing new insights on the man and his time Washington Post Now Meredith has revisited and significantly updated his biography to incorporate a decade of additional perspective and hindsight on the man and his legacy and to examine how far his hopes for the new South Africa have been realized Published as South Africa celebrates 100 years since its founding and hosts the 2010 World Cup Nelson Mandela is the most thorough and up to date account available of the life of its most revered hero The African in the Universities National Union of South African Students,1951 The Human Cost of African Migrations , Can Themba Sipiwo Mahala,2022-03-30 Mahala's biography gives insight into the life and writing of Can Themba 1924-1967 an iconic figure of the South African literary world and Drum journalist who died in exile Can Themba The Intellectual Tsotsi a Biography brings to life the iconic South African writer and journalist Can Themba 21 June 1924-8 September 1967 who died while exiled in Swaziland in 1967 Best known for his classic short story The Suit Themba has been somewhat of an enigma with very little known about his personal life This biography brings forth the voices of those who had personal interactions with him shining the light on different aspects of his life including education literature journalism and political fraternities It features interviews with prominent individuals including his former students Abdul Bham Pitika Ntuli and Mbulelo Mzamane journalistic mentees Juby Mayet and Joe Thloloe as well as friends colleagues and contemporaries Parks Mangena Peter Magubane Jurgen Schadeberg Don Mattera and Nadine Gordimer in addition to artists and academics Mothobi Mutloatse Muxe Nkondo and Njabulo S Ndebele Also featured in this biographical text are veteran political figures such as Mangosuthu Buthelezi Lindiwe Mabuza and Ahmed Kathrada Themba s intellectual acumen scholarly aptitude and witticism are some of his most revered characteristics amongst those who had interactions with him either in person or through comprehensive reading of his works Mahala is a master storyteller and deftly weaves together the threads of Themba s dynamic life In this edifying biography Mahala recreates the sparkle and pathos of Sophiatown of the 1950s and the Drum era Can Themba s successes and failures as well as his triumphs and tribulations reverberate on the pages of this long awaited biography

The Human Cost of African Migrations Toyin Falola,Niyi Afolabi,2007-11-13 In an era of globalization population growth and displacements migration is now a fact of life in a constantly shifting economic and political world order This book contributes to the discourse on the beneficiaries benefactors and the casualties of African displacement While the few existing studies have emphasized economic motivation as the primary factor triggering African migration this volume treats a range of issues economic socio political pedagogical developmental and cultural Organized with a multidisciplinary thrust in mind this book argues that any discussion of African migration whether internal or external must be conceived as only one aspect of a more complex organic and global patterning of flux and reflux necessitated by constantly shifting dynamics of world socio economic cultural and political order

Corridors of Death Malaik w Azania,2020-10-01 The post apartheid dispensation that has seen Black people continue to be hurled at the margins of existence has crystalised mental pathologies that have their roots in our violent and amoral past Millions of Black people in South Africa are battling with a range of mental health challenges resulting from a complex interplay between biological psychological social and environmental factors In Corridors of Death the lived experiences of Black students in historically White universities is explored exposing how structural violence racism and a culture of alienation are pushing them to the edge of depression and increasingly suicide The book contends that urgent structural and institutional interventions need to be made the centre of which must be transformation that reflects the demographic and socio political construct of the South African society Unless and until this happens Black students will increasingly reach an unendurable level of invisible agony and die in universities
