Careers in Africa Oluwatimilehin Temitope Ologunoye, Chima Mordi, Olatunji David Adekoya, 2025-04-16 As Africa continues to rise as a global economic and cultural force more scholarly attention must be paid to the diverse and dynamic world of careers and professional development on the African continent This edited volume presents a collection of studies written by some of the most prominent career research scholars in Africa shedding light on the multidimensional and ever evolving landscape of careers across the African continent The book advocates for a greater focus on the institutionalist approach to studying career dynamics in Africa and also offers recommendations and directions for future career studies It motivates future scholars to contribute to cross cultural research on career dynamics by providing an African perspective The narrative explores historical and current practices in career guidance and counselling in Africa by addressing pressing matters such as minimum wage policies equity social justice labour market gender dynamics disability and employment intellectual capital and educational development This book will be of great interest to scholars and students of careers and employment HRM international business and African business more generally as well as practitioners and policymakers working on the continent

The Forgotten People Saleem Badat, 2013-01-29 The apartheid state employed many weapons against its opponents imprisonment banning detention assassination and banishment In a practice reminiscent of Tsarist and Soviet Russia a large number of enemies of the state were banished to remote areas far from their homes communities and followers Here their existence became a slow torture of the soul a kind of social death This is the first study of an important but hitherto neglected group of opponents of apartheid set in a global historical and comparative perspective It looks at the reasons why people were banished their lives in banishment and the efforts of a remarkable group of activists led by Helen Joseph to assist them Bantoe-onderwysblad,1978 The Athenæum ,1919 Inside African Anthropology Andrew Bank,Leslie J. Bank,2013-04-08 Inside African Anthropology offers an incisive biography of the life and work of South Africa s foremost social anthropologist Monica Hunter Wilson By exploring her main fieldwork and intellectual projects in southern Africa between the 1920s and 1960s the book offers insights into her personal and intellectual life Beginning with her origins in the remote Eastern Cape the authors follow Wilson to the University of Cambridge and back into the field among the Mpondo of South Africa where her studies resulted in her 1936 book Reaction to Conquest Her fieldwork focus then shifted to Tanzania where she teamed up with her husband Godfrey Wilson In the 1960s Wilson embarked on a new urban ethnography with a young South African anthropologist Archie Mafeje one of the many black scholars she trained This study also provides a meticulously researched exploration of the indispensable contributions of African research assistants to the production of this famous woman scholar s cultural knowledge about mid twentieth century Africa Debates of the Transkei Legislative Assembly Transkei (South Africa).
