Glass,2017-01-27 The drug addicted mother gave birth to the future killer in a back alley on skid row The mother wanted to throw him in the dumpster but a friend interceded by wrapping the baby in an old rag and pacing him on the top step of the church The baby grew up in the orphanage where the Nuns discovered he had a brilliant mind and a uncanny gift of being able to duplicate any great artist What they didn t discover is his lack of compassion and his fascination with death He honed the skills of a killer during his period in the orphanage He went on to become a serial killer where he took his vacations on the luxurious cruise ship Ellen Jean Serial Forms Clare Pettitt,2020-06-03 Serial Forms The Unfinished Project of Modernity 1815 1848 proposes an entirely new way of reading the transition into the modern It is the first book in a series of three which will take the reader up to the end of the First World War moving from a focus on London to a global perspective Serial Forms sets out the theoretical and historical basis for all three volumes It suggests that as a serial news culture and a stadial historicism developed together between 1815 and 1848 seriality became the dominant form of the nineteenth century Through serial newsprint illustrations performances and shows the past and the contemporary moment enter into public visibility together Serial Forms argues that it is through seriality that the social is represented as increasingly politically urgent The insistent rhythm of the serial reorganizes time recalibrates and rescales the social and will prepare the way for the 1848 revolutions which are the subject of the next book By placing their work back into the messy print and performance culture from which it originally appeared Serial Forms is able to produce new and exciting readings of familiar authors such as Scott Byron Dickens and Gaskell Rather than offering a rarefied intellectual history or chopping up the period into Romantic and Victorian Clare Pettitt tracks the development of communications technologies and their impact on the ways in which time history and virtuality are imagined The Othering of Women in Silent Film Barbara Tapa Lupack,2023-11-06 In The Othering of Women in Silent Film Cultural Historical and Literary Contexts Barbara Tapa Lupack explores the rampant racial and gender stereotyping depicted in early cinema demonstrating how those stereotypes helped shape American attitudes and practices Using social cultural literary and cinema history as a focus this book offers insights into issues of Othering including discrimination exclusion and sexism that are as timely today as they were a century ago Lupack not only examines the ways that dominant cinema of the era imprinted indelible and pejorative images of women including African Americans Native Americans Asians Hispanics and New Women Suffragists but also reveals the ways in which a number of pioneering early filmmakers and performers attempted to counter those depictions by challenging the imagery interrogating the stereotypes and re politicizing the familiar narratives Scholars of film gender history and race studies will find this book of particular interest
