This handbook offers a collection of scholarly essays that analyze questions of reproductive justice throughout its cultural representation in global literature and film. It offers analysis of specific texts carefully situated in their evolving historical, economic and cultural contexts. Reproductive justice is taken beyond the American setting in which the theory and movement began; chapters apply concepts to international realities and literatures from different countries and cultures by covering diverse genres of cultural production including film, television, YouTube documentaries, drama, short story, novel, memoir and self-help literature. Each chapter analyzes texts from within the framework of reproductive justice in an interdisciplinary way including English, Japanese, Italian, Spanish and German language literature and culture, comparative literature, film, South Asian fiction, Canadian theatre, writing, gender studies, Deaf studies, disability studies, global health and medical humanities and sociology. Academics, graduate students and advanced undergraduate students in Literature, Gender, Sexuality and Women's Studies, Cultural Studies, Motherhood Studies, Comparative Literature, History, Sociology, the Medical Humanities, Reproductive Justice and Human Rights are the main audience of the volume. Relationship of Exposure to Toxic Chemicals and Reproductive Impairment United States.
