Flamingo Desires Edward Eriksson, 2014-10-29 In Flamingo Desires Laureen Metcalf an African American journalist uncovers a seventeen million dollar scandal in the politics of suburbia Then one of the guilty politicians Tom Flynn is found dead in his office Laureen stands to be nominated for a Pulitzer Prize but she needs to find out if Flynn's death was a suicide or something else Her secret informer the suave political leader Frank Van Dam once her boyfriend in high school might have been using her to get at Flynn Or maybe he'd just been trying to win her back The man is a player who crosses racial lines with ease and is now having an affair with the beautiful Rochelle Davis President of the Council on Racial Matters It appears that this woman may have wanted to have Flynn murdered for hiding the money that should have come to her and Van Dam Along the way two more deaths pose serious questions and now Laureen must try hard to maintain her sanity in a world spinning out of control on the force of illicit desire something she herself is not immune to Her only consolation comes in the person of Sonny Anzalone a whimsical gay acting teacher who thinks he can help solve her problem Fascinating characters carry the plot of this mystery written with a touch of satire humor and subtle psychology

Selves in Dialogue Begoña Simal, 2011 Selves in Dialogue A Transethnic Approach to American Life Writing constitutes an explicit answer to the urgent call for a comparative study of American autobiography This collection of essays ostensibly intends to cut across cultural racial and or ethnic boundaries introducing the concept of transethnicity and arguing for its increasing validity in the ever changing field of American Studies Accordingly the comparative analysis in Selves in Dialogue is implemented not by juxtaposing essays that pay separate but equal attention to specific monoethnic or monocultural traditions as has been the usual strategy in book length publications of this sort but by critically engaging with two or more different traditions in every single essay Mixing rather than segregating The transethnic approach proposed in this collection does not imply erasing the very difference and diversity that makes American autobiographies all the more thrilling to read and study Group specific research of an intra ethnic nature should and will continue to thrive And yet the field of American Studies is now ready to indulge more freely and more knowledgeably in transethnic explorations of life writing in an attempt to delineate both the divergences and the similarities between the different autobiographies written in the US Because of its unusual perspective Selves in Dialogue can be of interest not only for specialists in life writing but also for those working in the larger fields of American Literature Ethnic Studies or American Studies
