guidance - ANS-referred to guiding, or helping others make choices about vocation, lifestyle, or education.

psychotherapy - ANS-assumed a medical model, meaning the person receiving help was sick. goal is to alleviate sickness, with the therapist as expert using information about the client's past to provide insight into thoughts previously kept out of awareness counseling - ANS-a proactive, holistically oriented process for helping persons learn to cope with problems of living and for promoting healthy development; involves a professional with the requisite graduate education and experience; scientifically validating methods; working with a client that is seeking assistance; involves the client to decide on feasible goals to identify, develop, and use personal and environmental resources to attain these goals.

depending on the client's situation, the process may be - ANS-facilitative, preventative, remedial, rehabilitative, enhancing wellness perspective - ANS-the goal of counseling is not to relieve the client of problematic symptoms, but rather to strive for optimal functioning and health in life. Maslow refers to this as the process of self-actualizing, whereas Rogers refers to this as the process of becoming fully functioning.

concentration within a wellness perspective - ANS-spirituality; self-direction; work and leisure; friendship; and love developmental perspective - ANS-what this means is that many of the problems viewed as pathological by others helping professionals are instead viewed by professional counselors as normal responses to abnormal events, or simply as transitory issues in response to change

Events that occur as expected are considered ____ , whereas events that occur earlier or later than expected are considered ____ . - ANS-on time, off time empowerment - ANS-after working off of the developmental model, clients can gain the confidence to navigate their future lives and problems, without becoming dependent on the counselor each time a new issue arises. the process by which people become aware of the power dynamics at work in their life, develop the skills and capacity for gaining some reasonable control over their lives, exercise this control without infringing upon the rights of others, and support the empowerment of others in the community.
